Mr. Otis and Miss Nouna Valen and the day teacher, Miss Allen, visited Mr. and Mrs. Dan Stahlnecker Monday night.

GARFIELD.

The ladies of the Garfield Dorcas Society gave an entertainment and social at the Grange hall, which was a grand success, both socially and financially. The programme consisted of recitations, a drill by the Hoodoos, music, followed by a luncheon and silver shower. Games were the features of the evening. All enjoyed the time at the hall and hope it will be their pleasure to come again.

On the way home Mr. F. Rhodes and family, also Miss Feretti and Miss Lottie Tracey were mixed up in an accident caused by someone on horseback riding into the back of the hack they were in, with such force as to shove the rig forward to break the neckyoke straps, letting the hack fall onto the team. The impact also threw the seat which the three ladies occupied, to the ground, severely bruising Mrs. Rhodes' head and injuring the other two young ladies. Their clothing was nearly ruined. It damaged the hack and did quite a bit of other damage. Too fast riding in a crowd, especially at night, endangers life should be guarded against.

Mr. Rhodes was carrying a light on his hack at the time of the accident. Two women ministers are holding services at the Tracy schoolhouse each evening this week, which is attended by an appreciative crowd.

Fruit men that have small fruit to market met in Estacada Tuesday to order their supplies or crates and pound boxes by the carload. Several residents of this place attended the meeting at Oregon City Tuesday night to discuss county division.

Fiebig as president, and the Concord association with Mrs. John Risley president, a lecture on the moral training of children was given at the Methodist church Wednesday evening, May 8th, at 8 o'clock. Judge E. C. Brounough, Mrs. T. L. Elliot, and Miss Emma Wold spoke, followed by a general discussion, and a duet by Mrs. S. A. Blackman and C. A. Chambers.

Mrs. L. E. Armstrong and mother, Mrs. Payne spent Thursday with Mrs. Koenig at her home in Montavilla. J. M. Hart was in Oregon City Monday on business.

Chas. Risley was in Oregon City Monday on business. SPRINGWATER It has been reported that the Logan team has not been defeated this season, but the Springwater Maroons showed them who they were May 5th on the Logan diamond. They did not only defeat them but they skunked them. The score was 3 to 0 in favor of the Springwater Maroons. Batters for Springwater were Dolboro and Boylan and Logan, Gerber and Sager.

Heart to Heart Talks. By EDWIN A. NYE.

MISS BROWN'S AD

Margaret Brown, a Chicago stenographer, wanted a position. Also there were other stenographers in Chicago who wanted positions. Miss Brown's friends suggested advertising.

Miss Brown looked over the long columns of "Situations Wanted" in the newspapers for suggestions. She read many advertisements like the following:

Situation Wanted—Young girl of twenty-three, five years' experience, desires position as stenographer, trustworthy and rapid; references exchanged. Box X. Y. Z. Miss Brown shook her head.

To go into the newspapers like that was like going into a lottery. There were so many advertisers, all of them doubtless as capable as she. How could she catch the eye and arrest the attention of the manager looking for help?

Miss Brown wrinkled her forehead, tried a few times and produced the following: Situation Wanted—A brown haired girl of the name of Brown would like a position as stenographer with a firm named Brown, although others would be considered. Address X 673.

Rather unique, to be sure. And the result? A great bunch of letters came to the newspaper office in answer to the advertisement of X 673. From these the girl selected the most promising and called. The same day she was engaged.

The day following shrewd Miss Brown was at her desk taking dictation. And the other girls still advertised. The teaching of the little story from real life is plain. Ours is an era of advertising. The nearest quickest road to publicity is by the way of the newspaper office. Nowadays the business world does not hang out a sign "Stenographer Wanted." It goes to the wanted column.

But—In advertising originality counts largely. The thing is in the way you put it. Whoever devises a new method of publicity, a new style of advertising, other things being equal, best secures the attention of the public. Miss Brown got the idea. Her ad. was different.

And the retelling of her experience, if it shall lead some bright boy or girl to thinking along the lines of modern advertising, will have accomplished its purpose.

Careless of Her.

"You look annoyed. What's the matter?" "Bertha told me a secret the other day and I can't tell you what it is."

"Why not?" "I've forgotten it."—Pele Mele.

Curmudgeon!

Gabe—Is Wilkins a popular man? Steve—No. He saves his money.—Cincinnati Enquirer

Very Sad.

Under the eye of Mrs. R. H. Barlow, the golf player, a Philadelphia lawyer teed off rather nervously and rather poorly at the Country club.

"Do you know," he said to Mrs. Barlow afterward, "it seems to me that the more I play the worse I play."

"You've played a good deal, then, haven't you?" said Mrs. Barlow.—New York Tribune.

The Safety Match.

"Pop, what is a safety match?" "The kind which is made in heaven. My son."—Preston Post.

METHODISTS MAY ALLOW DANCING

MINNEAPOLIS, May 9.—Scores of memorials are pouring into the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, now in session here. Far in the lead is that relating to the famous "Paragaph 260" of the church discipline, which prohibits dancing, card playing and kindred amusements. That this section will be amended at the present session, so as to leave the question to the "conscience" of the individual member, is the belief of many delegates.

Another memorial which has appeared frequently in the church records is that changing the name from "district superintendent" back to that of "presiding elder." The latter was in use until the change was made at Baltimore four years ago.

That there is a suffragist movement in the church has been shown by a memorial which asks that women be licensed to preach. A number of years ago a rule was adopted forbidding the ordaining of a woman as minister.

PITCHERS' BATTLE WON BY PORTLAND

SACRAMENTO, May 9, (Special).—Luck favored the Beavers today and they won. Temple pitched fine ball, but no better than Baum. Portland made 4 hits; Sacramento made 6. Portland made 4 errors; Sacramento made 2. The score was 1 to 0. Portland tallied in the third as follows:

Howley singled; Temple fanned; Howley took second on balk; Chadbourne flied to Van Buren; Rodgers tripled, scoring Howley; Butler out, Baum to Miller.

It was a fine game despite the errors. The results Thursday follow: At Sacramento—Portland 1, Sacramento 0. At Oakland—Vernon 4, Oakland 2. At Los Angeles—San Francisco 9, Los Angeles 1.
