GOMEZ HIDES AS OROZCO RULES

PROVISIONAL PRESIDENT OF MEXICO FLEES FOR LIFE ACROSS BORDER

MONEYED INTERESTS QUIT HIM

Group of Men Who Once Surrounded Diaz Reported Financing Orozco Movement

JUAREZ, Mexico, May 11.—General Pascual Orozco, farmer, rancher and soldier of meager education, tonight holds the balance of power in the Mexican revolution.

Though Orozco with 7000 men is face to face with a federal army that is pressing him back toward the border and the outcome of the battle is uncertain, the developments of the day, chiefly the abdication of Emilio Vasquez Gomez of the provisional presidency, which he ceremoniously assumed a week ago tonight, indicate that the money interests behind Mexico's present disturbances must continue to court Orozco's favor.

Emilio Vasquez Gomez is in hiding tonight. Once a member of the Cabinet of President De la Barra, and the brother of Dr. Francisco Vasquez Gomez, recently defeated for the vice-presidency, the little man fled for his life early today across the Rio Grande to United States territory, where he was found in a boarding-house in El Paso late today. He declined to make any statement.

Jose Cordova, secretary of the State of Chihuahua, who bears Orozco's answer to the Gomez proposal of a provisional government, arrived here tonight.

Reliable information tonight was to the effect that a group of men who once surrounded ex-President Diaz had been financing the Orozco movement through the agency of Gonzalo C. Enrile, now in Chihuahua, but that another set of capitalists had sprung up who were seeking to oust the Enrile and control Orozco's hand. In the underground contest between these financial factions Gomez, who could furnish only political ambitions was lost.

SORRY SHE IS NOT IN AUTO CONTEST

GIRL JUST FROM EAST SAYS RACE IS CHANCE OF LIFE TIME

Young Woman Hopes Enterprise Will Offer Another Machine So She May Work For It

CLACKAMAS COUNTY APPEALS TO HER

"I wish to goodness I had arrived in Oregon City earlier," said a young woman Saturday, who recently came from the East. "Not only do I like the city and county so well that I am sorry I have not always lived here, but I am disappointed that I cannot be a contender in the great automobile race which is being conducted by the Morning and Weekly Enterprise. Even though I am a stranger, and have not made many friends here as yet, I believe if I had been able to have started with the others in the race I could have won the automobile easily. It is such a fine chance for someone, and especially a girl to get a machine for a few hours work daily. And oh, how much fun a person could have in dear old Clackamas, taking spins along the beautiful roads in the good old summer time. I do hope the Enterprise will offer another machine soon, and if it does, I am going to start in right away. I am not able to buy a machine now, but I am able to work for one under such favorable conditions as are presented by the Enterprise. I guess I am a little too late for this one, but next time just watch this little Yankee girl."

And she meant every word she said.

GOOD ROADS DAY WORKERS ACTIVE

The Oregon City Commercial Club entered enthusiastically into the Good Roads Day work, and the desired number of signatures to the petitions were received several days ago and forwarded to C. T. Prall, Secretary of the Oregon League for Highway Improvement. Mr. Prall wrote O. D. Ely, who had charge of circulating the petitions, that the results were gratifying. However, the work did not stop with the obtaining of signatures and the members of the club Saturday impressed upon their friends the desirability of having the road measures initiated. No meetings were held here, but the results have been just as gratifying as in other counties where there were enthusiastic ones.

Where are you going to finish in the auto contest.

From banking to horse trading a guarantee is the rule of all sound business. Why let the hosiery manufacturer escape the rule? Ask your hosiery dealer if he will guarantee his ordinary hose to wear four months in heel, sole and toe. If not, then try a box of Winderhose made by the Chastanooga Knitting Mills.

TRIUMPH SCORED BY MRS. METZGER

LARGE AUDIENCE HEARS CHARMING ARTIST AT MATINEE RECITAL

SONGS IN 3 LANGUAGES RENDERED

Although Little Older Than Girl Dramatic Soprano Proves That She Is Foremost Artist

Mrs. Henry William Metzger, of Portland, sang before a large audience at Woodmen Hall in a matinee recital Saturday. The audience was composed of members of the Dertwick musical society and their friends and was the concluding open meeting for the season of 1911-12. The hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. George A. Harding, Mrs. E. T. Avison, Mrs. Neita Barlow Lawrence and Mrs. E. E. Brodie.

Mrs. Metzger gave a varied program in a most charming manner. Her voice is a dramatic soprano of splendid range and volume and of beautiful quality. From her first number until the last she proved that she must be considered in the artistic class. She sang songs in English, German and French, ever with a ringing clear enunciation.

The program opened with two arias from "La Boheme," the first solo of "Mimì" with its sweet simplicity, and the second the waltz song of the coquette "Musetta." She responded to an encore with Massenet's "Elegy" with its haunting note of sadness.

The second group "A Rose Cycle" (Liza Lehmann) consisted of seven songs of the life of a rose and calls for a variety of tone. She clearly demonstrated the dramatic quality of her voice in this most difficult number.

The third song, "The Bee," Mrs. Metzger gave with a dainty, pianissimo tone; in contrast to this was the last song "Rosa Resurget" with its climax on high b, given in full voice. For encore Mrs. Metzger gave "Where Blossoms Grow."

The last group consisted of "In The Churchyard" Brahms; "Birthday Song" Cowen; "The Day is Done," Lang; "Serenade," Strauss, and "The Years at the Spring," Beach. After insistent encore Mrs. Metzger repeated "The Years at the Spring;" and in response to a double encore "Comin' Thro' the Rye," which she gave in a charmingly girlish manner.

Though Mrs. Metzger is scarcely more than a girl she demonstrated she is one of Oregon's foremost artists.

Mrs. R. C. Hammond was a very able and sympathetic accompanist.

LADIES JOIN MASONS IN BANQUET PROGRAM

Members of Multnomah Lodge No. 1, A. F. & A. M., and their wives, sisters, daughters and sweethearts enjoyed a program and banquet Saturday night. The affair was characteristic of Masonic social functions in its happy informality and the Masons were treated to a surprise, when after the close of the Lodge the ladies joined them.

The programme was very pleasing, consisting of orchestra numbers, vocal solos by Mrs. E. H. Cooper and Oscar Woodin and a violin selection by Mr. Flechner. The applause was spontaneous and encores were insisted upon.

The women of Pioneer Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, served an appetizing supper in the banquet hall of the Masonic Temple after the program. The menu was delicious and was interspersed with brief talks by J. E. Hedges, O. D. Ely, Mrs. Anderson, worthy matron of the Eastern Star, Mrs. E. T. Avison, Mrs. W. A. White, Rev. W. T. Milliken, Rev. T. B. Ford, Mayor Grant B. Dimick and others.

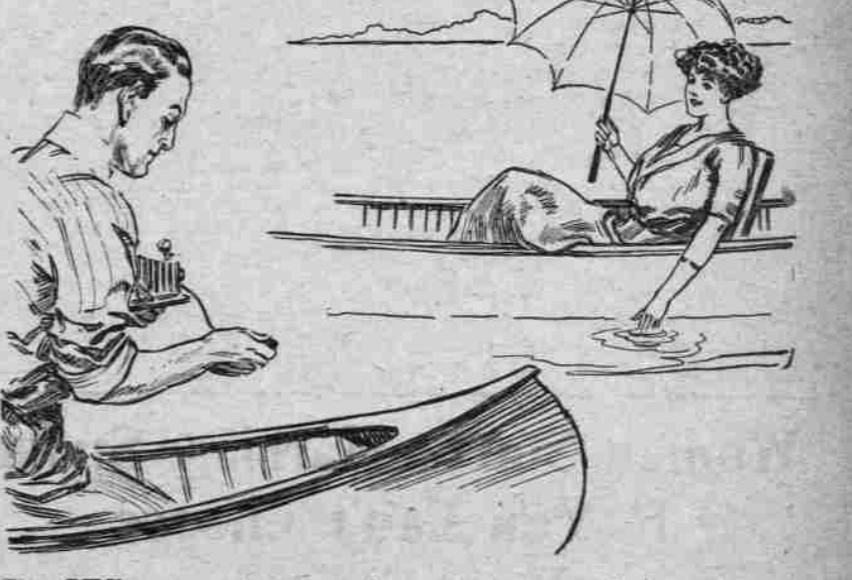

John H. Walker, Master of Multnomah Lodge, officiated as toastmaster, and instrumental music was rendered by an orchestra under the direction of R. V. D. Johnston.

Four candidates were given degrees during the afternoon and evening sessions of the Lodge and the program and banquet was an enjoyable finale.

P. R., L. & P. TO HAVE NEW OFFICE

The Portland Railway, Light & Power Company, Saturday leased from Frank Jaggar, the store room formerly occupied by W. A. Holmes in the Beaver Building. The company will establish an office in the building for the convenience of persons who do not wish to go to the southern end of the city to pay their electric light bills. It is thought that a part of the floor space will be sublet. It is the intention of the company to continue the old office, which will be used principally for freight business.
