

Stories from Out of Town

REDLAND.

Mr. Schwartz and Mr. Kerr have their sawmills running full blast, and bustling the road plank out on the road.

Real estate is changing hands again. A party by the name of S. N. Gilbert has bought part of the John Richardson place and two Swedish families have bought the Molly place.

Mr. and Mrs. Muir have moved to Woodburn to take charge of a hotel. James Fullem has a crew of men are working on the road again.

Rev. Coop preached at the Evergreen school house May 5th, and will hold services the first Sunday in each month.

Mr. and Mrs. Hendrickson and daughter have moved to their place at Redland.

Mr. Schneider is remodeling his house and will have a fine bungalow soon.

The Clear Creek Mutual Telephone Company held its annual meeting at the Logan hall. They elected the following directors: James Hayden, James Fullem, William Bard, Ren Mumpower, Henry Babler; O. D. Robbins re-elected Secretary.

Mrs. Campbell and daughter, of Glenwood, Wash., are visiting the former's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse.

Miss Bessie Sheppard, of Portland, was visiting relatives and calling on friends in Barlow and Aurora last week.

Mrs. Towne left Friday for her home at Tillamook, returning Monday evening.

Mrs. James Erickson was shopping in Portland Thursday.

Once more the sun shines. How long before someone will be calling for "rain?"

Mrs. Nora Dahlen and daughter, of Portland are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Fred Anderson.

Al Admson is building a barn on his property north of town. He intends building a house as soon as the barn is completed.

Miss Mae VanWinkle was visiting in Portland several days last week.

The relay race, which took place Saturday, caused much excitement, as it does each year. Many of the citizens were stationed at the starting point just south of town.

W. W. Irwin, of Aurora, was in town one day last week shaking hands with many of his old friends, who were all glad to see him, after his severe illness.

L. L. Skor, of Astoria, is visiting friends here.

A hay rack load of young folks passed through town Sunday, going to Fred Anderson's, where their "Young Peoples' Society" met.

Fredy Roddy of Portland, came up Saturday evening, returning Sunday evening.

Miss Clara Larson returned to Portland Sunday evening, where she will begin work again.

Miss Hattie Irwin went to Portland Sunday evening.

Miss Beth Zimmermann and cousin, Felix Isaacson, of Portland, were callers on Miss H. Irwin Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Anna Wooster and children, of Aurora, called on friends here Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Wurfel went to Portland Sunday evening to consult a physician. Mrs. Wurfel is suffering with the rheumatism again.

Mrs. Churchill visited her mother in Milwaukee several days last week.

The 4:10 train has changed time and leaves here at 2:40 now, going north.

From now on Yoder's meat wagon will be in town twice a week, Tuesday and Saturday.

Mrs. Mary Wright came up from Portland Tuesday to look after her interests here.

Mrs. Geo. Simpson and daughter, Dolly, of Aurora, were calling on friends here Tuesday afternoon.

J. J. Wurfel, J. Churchill, Dave Sheppard, Jas. Erickson and Bernard Berg were called to Oregon City Tuesday on a trial.

WILSONVILLE.

J. W. Thornton went to Portland on Thursday.

Elma Summer spent several days in Woodburn last week.

Emma Stangel visited friends in Portland last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pearson, of Portland, visited Mr. Pearson's parents in Wilsonville a few days the latter part of the week.

Mrs. Marion Young was in Portland Thursday, returning Friday with Mrs. Tate, who was the luncheon guests of Mrs. Norris Young.

Miss Straw, Mrs. Arnold and several ladies, including Mrs. Kyle, came over from Union district Friday afternoon to hear Mrs. Tate give an address on the benefit of uniting with the "Mothers' Congress."

Dr. Brown's drug store is nearing completion, and is a very nice building, adding very much to the appearance of the Main street.

There will be a motor racing on the river at Wilsonville on Sunday morning and afternoon. Our close proximity to the Oregon Electric makes this a convenient place, as well as an ideal one, for a day's outing in the spring.

Miss Wolburt went to Portland on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brobst are visiting in Prineville with Misses Ellen and Elizabeth Brobst.

Mr. Summer has been in Madras looking for property in that section of the country.

Mrs. Lawrence was in Portland Monday on business.

Miss Mary Batalgia visited her parents several days last week.

H. D. Aden's store has had a new coat of paint, making a great improvement, the work being done by Walter Murray.

Mrs. Howard, of Portland, visited Mr. and Mrs. Reed Graham Thursday and Friday.

Quite a large number of Wilsonville residents attended the celebration at Champegon, May 2nd, and report a very enjoyable time.

John Dutton has improved his property, which he purchased recently.

Wilsonville postoffice has been chosen by the Government as one of the places suitable for a savings bank depository.

The choir of the M. E. church will give a social on the evening of May 17th, for the benefit of the building fund. Be on hand, for a good time is in store for everyone.

The Parent-Teachers' Association held a meeting in the Methodist church on Friday afternoon, May 3rd, and after the routine of business, a splendid programme was given by local talent. A song by Mrs. Joe Thornton was much appreciated and she was forced to respond to a rousing encore. At the close of the programme Mrs. Tate, president of the Parent-Teachers' Association in Oregon, gave an eloquent address.

Mac Baker entertained quite a large number of friends at her home on Saturday evening, in honor of her birthday. Games were played, refreshments served, and a very enjoyable time spent by all present.

Corral Creek school will have a flag raising on Friday, May 17th, the closing day of school. Superintendent Gary has been invited to deliver an address. Outsiders are cordially invited to bring baskets of lunch for a picnic dinner, and share in the festivities.

NORTH LOGAN.

Thursday night the boys of Cummins' and Orewellers' sawmill camp gave a stag social, at which vocal and instrumental selections and story telling were the order of the evening.

Mr. Jack O'Brien, by far, carried off the honors of the evening. Among the prominent visitors were Harry McMurray and Bill Downs.

Frank Sutherland, the hook tender for C. Christiansen's logging camp has been on the sick list for a few days.

P. J. McMurray killed a fine hog this week.

Steve Sagar has gone to work for the Christiansen Logging Camp as rigging silnger.

Jack O'Brien has accepted a position with Oreweller and Cummins on the turn down.

Bird Newkirk was a caller at our camp this week.

Ball game, Sunday, at Logan; Logan vs. Springwater, score 3 to 9, in Springwater's favor. Battery for Oak Grove: Gurber and Sagar; for Springwater, Boylan and Dobbie. This is the first defeat for Logan this year.

Walter and Fred Eggleston made a business call here this week.

Chas Sagar was in Oregon City last week on a business and pleasure trip.

JENNINGS LODGE.

Many improvements are being made on homes at this place.

Howard Smith is remodeling the cottage recently purchased from Geo. A. Shaver, and Mr. Rosenberg is making his home attractive.

The pretty bungalow of Mrs. Mable Pierce is rapidly being completed by Wilcox & Russell.

The MacFarlane home is well under way and when completed will be the finest home at this place.

Work commenced Monday on the house of Mrs. Bess Bruchert. It will be a four-room cottage with built-in conveniences.

The contract has been let to a Portland firm for the beautiful new home of Judge and Mrs. Bronaugh. The grounds have been in the hands of landscape gardeners for some time, and with the beautiful driveways leading to the home, which overlooks the Willamette will make an ideal home.

Milton and Warren Potter have commenced their building on Adlie St. The cottage of Mr. Kerns is well under way and the work on the A. C. MacFarlane home is progressing rapidly.

About thirty of the members of the Community Club went to Oregon City Friday night to confer with the officials of the P. B. & L. Co. in regard to a reduction of rates. Our men-folks came home rather disappointed. Another meeting is being planned for Friday evening, May 10th.

The President of the Community Club of this place, Mr. John Jennings, attended the dinner given for the officials.

A special meeting, called at 8 P. M., May 9th, to be held at the club rooms in Oregon City will be of great benefit to all concerned, and it is hoped a good delegation from the Commu-

ity Club will attend.

The eighth grade examinations of the Jennings Lodge school will be held May 9 and 10, at the school house, under the able direction of Mrs. Bertha M. Hart.

Aileen Warner, Fern and Ethel Hart and Arthur Roberts are to take the examinations. This is the first class to complete the eighth grade at this place.

Mrs. Wiewersick and daughters were callers at the Wilcox home Monday; over Sunday visitors at the above home were Mrs. Harold Wilcox and children, of Oak Grove.

Mr. August Warner, of Portland, was a business caller at this place Monday.

Mr. McGovern, a former resident of Gladstone, will make his home at this place for a while. Mr. McGovern is interested in the real estate business.

Wm. R. Davidson, of Omaha, Nebraska, and Mr. Bert Greenbank, of Olympia, Wash., were over-Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Ostrom.

Mrs. J. B. Mason and daughter, Miss Nancy, of Omaha, Nebraska, are also visiting Mrs. Geo. A. Ostrom.

Grandma Newell is on the sick list she will be greatly missed, as she was always calling about, doing much good.

Edwin Newell and wife visited at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Newell.

Charles Huddell, of Elk City, has returned to this place and will work the coming summer for Mrs. DeForest.

Mrs. Harold Wilcox and children, of Oak Grove, were Sunday callers at the L. Wilcox home.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. C. Robinson, of this place, attended the Marshall, May or wedding in Canemah on the evening of May 1st. Mrs. Robinson assisted by rendering Logenhrin's wedding March.

Mr. C. Truscott, son of Mrs. Edith Truscott, of this place, was one of the lucky fishermen at the beginning of the season. Mr. Truscott and partner catching a ton of fish the first night, making a neat sum for each of them.

Mr. Kern moved into his new little cottage Monday.

Mrs. Fisher departed last week for a month's visit in Indiana.

Ed. Webb left Monday night for a visit with his folks in Redding, California. Mr. Webb expects to remain a month and will also visit in Los Angeles.

Rev. Goode, of Lents, and secretary of the Evangelical Campground Association, was out looking over their interests at this place Tuesday. May 9th, Rev. Goode leaves for Tacoma to attend the conference of the Oregon branch. Owing to the absence of Rev. Calvin Beigstresser, who is also at Tacoma, no preaching will be held on the afternoon of May 12th. The Sunday school at the usual time and place.

Mrs. A. C. MacFarlane will be the hostess of the Circle May 15th. Mothers' Day will be observed.

Mrs. Olin Ford and little son, of Portland are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Newell.

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank our many friends and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy during our recent bereavement.

MRS. M. J. WATENPAUGH AND CHILDREN.

A Half Partner.

A.—That woman who just went out is the partner of your joys and sorrows, I suppose.

B.—She's partner to my joys all right, but when it comes to my sorrows she slips over to see her mother.

BLOOMFIELD PUZZLES SEATTLE SLUGGERS

PORTLAND, May 13, (Special).—Portland had a walkover today, Seattle being outclassed from the start. The score was 10 to 2. Fullerton allowed 11 hits and Bloomfield 6. Seattle made 7 misplays, and Portland one.

The results Monday follow: National League Chicago 4, New York 4. Cincinnati 2, Brooklyn 1. St. Louis 4, Boston 3. American League Chicago 3, Philadelphia 1. Washington 9, Cleveland 6. New York 15, Detroit 4. Boston 14, St. Louis 9.

GYPSIES ARE GUESTS OF MRS. GRIFFITH

Mrs. Charles Griffith entertained the Gypsies at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Pope Saturday evening at Five hundred, the prize being won by Miss Marjory Caulfield. Refreshments were served. The next meeting will be at the home of Miss Aimee Bollack in Portland May 25, when the members will be dinner guests, after which they will attend the theatre.

Mrs. Griffith's guests were Miss Bessie Daulton, Miss Aimee Bollack, Miss Cis Barclay Pratt, Mrs. Walter Wells, Mrs. M. D. Latourette, Miss Helen Daulton, Mrs. L. A. Morris, Miss Marjory Caulfield, Miss Zide Goldsmith.

Her Fortune Teller.

Mrs. A.—Did you ever go to a fortune teller? Mrs. B.—Yes, once. Before I was married I went to the probate court to see how much my fiance's father had left him in his will.—Boston Transcript.

the Paris of France. "This is a world of change." "Yes, and, by the way, have you got any with you?"—Boston Transcript.

You May Have friends galore, but you will have none more steadfast, more ready to respond to your wants, more capable of pushing you ahead, more of an incentive to forge to the front than a growing bank account. This bank will help you—you can have one—come in. THE BANK OF OREGON CITY OLDEST BANK IN CLACKAMAS COUNTY

CEMENT, LIME, WALL PLASTER Glass, Sash and doors, paints, oils, brushes and building materials. Prices the lowest. TRY US AND SEE, ANY AMOUNT. Delivered, or f. o. b., Parkplace. We are out for business if you want quick service and low prices. See us. Phone Main 2002. W. A. HOLMES & CO., Parkplace, Ore.

D. C. LATOURETTE President F. J. MEYER, Cashier THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF OREGON CITY, OREGON CAPITAL, $25,000.00 Transacts a General Banking Business. Open from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M.

MR. AND MRS. MOORE HAVE FAREWELL PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. James Moore, who will leave today for Eastern Oregon, were given a surprise party Saturday evening at their home on Clackamas Heights, their guests being residents of Clackamas Heights and Parkplace. The evening was devoted to games and a luncheon was served. Present were Mrs. Jennie Butts, Mrs. R. Rovers, Mrs. W. Rittenhouse, Mrs. A. Rittenhouse, Mrs. C. Rittenhouse, Mrs. Winnie Rittenhouse, Mrs. T. Brown, Mrs. S. Jones, Miss Pearl Jones, Mrs. John Kent, Mrs. Mary Kent, Mrs. F. J. Jones, Mrs. C. E. DeFord, Mrs. Retta Leiter, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Alldredge Mr. and Mrs. Alldredge Miss Marjorie Rittenhouse, Mrs. Crosby Smith, Miss Reva Jones.

THREE MEN FIGHTING TURN OVER STOVE

But for the prompt work of E. L. Shaw, a tenement house just across an alley from the Oregon City Jail might have burned Sunday morning as a result of a fight. Shaw was attracted to the building by loud talking and a general commotion. In the front room he found two men beating another one. The room was filled with smoke, the stove having been knocked down by the belligerents. After arresting the men, who gave their names as Monera Konstantine, Joe Konstantine and Stoyko Yonoff, Shaw returned and aided in righting the stove.

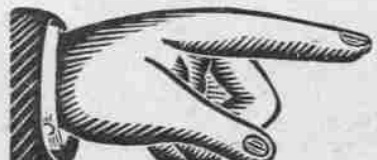

CARRIER TO GIVE HORSE VACATION

Frank Whiteman, a rural carrier, whose route covers about twenty-eight miles daily from this city to Fisher's Mill, and in a round about way to Kirchem's place near Logan, has decided that his two faithful horses, "Pet" and "Peggy," are entitled to a summer vacation as well as he, and he has decided to give them a good rest starting today. They will not be pressed into service again until fall. Mr. Whiteman will use an automobile while the roads are good. He has decided to work out his road tax on the Fisher hill road and when he left Monday he took with him a shovel, an ax and a hoe.

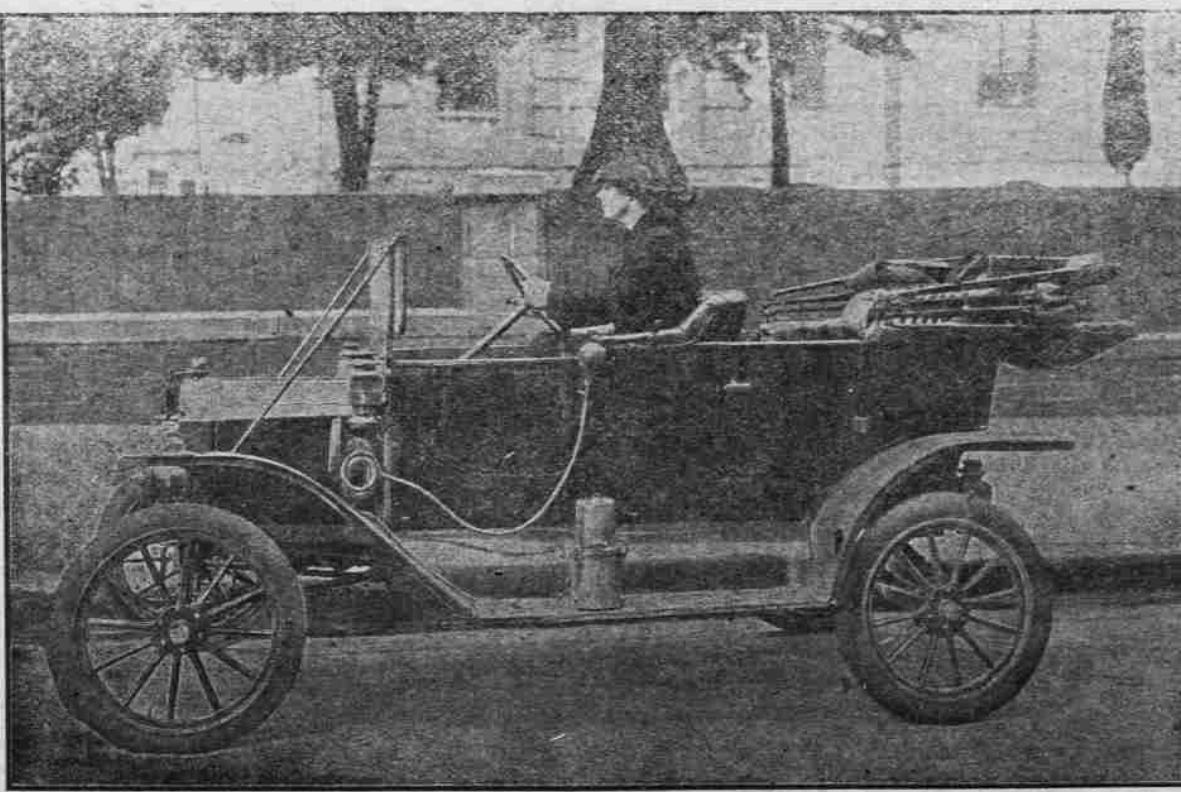

The time to read the Morning Enterprise is at the breakfast table or a little before.

STOP! LOOK! Listen?

Working for the other fellow and Get Busy for Yourself What can be won with a little work a fine prize every 10 days BESIDES THE AUTO To what people are saying and you will see how popular you are THEN GET IN AND WIN

Yours for the asking

Don't it look good to you

To stimulate interest in the coming and give each one a chance to profit by their work we will give a prize every ten days. These prizes will not affect the final count in any way as all votes will count on

THE GRAND AUTOMOBILE

These prizes will be given to the one that hands in the largest number of votes very ten days.

$100 in Gold

We will give $100 to the contestant who makes the second best showing. If you don't think you can win the car get in and win the $100. Just think; $100 for a few week's work in the evening or before work.