WHITE SATIN AND SILVER.

This exquisitely beautiful evening gown was quite dazzling, being of ivory white satin and silver. The right side of the bodice is of satin, the left side is part of a princess tunic of net embroidered in silver, which falls in deep point weighted by silver cords and tassels. Beneath this is another and longer tunic of the satin, bordered with the silver embroidery which is held together on the right side of the plain satin underskirt by loops and heavy tassels of silver. Evening turban of silver tissue surmounted by white Paradise feathers.

SPRING MODES.

Little Change in Skirt Lines--Rough Crash Materials.

Newest suit skirts show slight increase of width. Latest suit jackets are twenty-two inches long, with the loose, straight backs, showing no curve at waist line.

A swagger gown of heavy natural rough crash is made up in combination with chameleon taffeta and is braided

CHILD'S KIMONO DRESS.

In white. The rough linen opens at both sides, not only in the usual slash toward the foot, but also in a slit at the hip, showing the taffeta as though it were a petticoat. The simplest dresses are the prettiest for the younger children. This one is made in just two pieces, with underarm seams and shoulder seams that are closed for a portion of their length only, the closings being made under the shoulder straps.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

This May Manton pattern is cut in sizes from four to eight years of age. Send 10 cents to this office, giving number, 723, and it will be promptly forwarded to you by mail. If in haste send an additional two cent stamp for letter postage, which insures more prompt delivery. When ordering use coupon.

MACCABEES INITIATE SEVEN CANDIDATES

Seven candidates were initiated Tuesday night at an enthusiastic meeting of the Knights of the Maccabees. The work was executed by the new team in an admirable manner, and much credit is due the members for the success of the exercises. The order has grown from ninety-one members December 1, 1911 to 180, and several candidates will be initiated at a meeting to be held the second Tuesday in June when Portland Team No. 67 will execute the degree work.

Cotton Corduroys.

So many women like the velvet finished corduroys that they will doubtless be glad to see the same weave introduced into the cotton fabrics.

The new spring cotton corduroys much resemble the velvet ones, though they have not, of course, the same brilliant finish. There is the same cordlike weave, however, and the cotton corduroys will doubtless prove as good for hard service as the other members of the corduroy family.

And, being of cotton and nothing to be hurt about them, these new spring fabrics may very easily be washed, which will make them more useful than velvet.

Dressmakers For Blind.

The blind seamstresses are especially benefited by the distribution of sewing machines to the sewing sisters. Many a blind woman who use it find it desirable, because of opportunity to earn money and to do this with in the best manner.

When rough, high-proof, strong whiskey begins to tell on you--when your nerves and stomach commence "calling for help"--try a little Cyrus Noble.

It is mild in character--aged in wood in charred barrels--blended and re-aged in steam-heated warehouses.

This gives it that palatable, enjoyable flavor peculiar to its mellowness--its richness.
