TRIAL STARTS LOS ANGELES, May 15 .- The trial of Clarence S. Darrow on a charge of bribing George N. Lockwood, a juror in the McNamara case, began today before Presiding Judge George H. Hutton of the superior court The case was called in the Hall of Justice in the very room where the McNamara brothers were sentenced to the penitentiary for dynamiting the building of the Los Angeles Times. Darrow listened with calm demeanor to the reading of the indictment that assailed his honor. He appeared in excellent health, although it was apparent that he had aged much since coming to Los Angeles several months ago to take up the defense of the McNamara brothers.

Appearing for Darrow were his chief counsel, Earl Rogers, who marshaled the defense of Patrick Calhoun in the course of the San Francisco "graft prosecutions," W. H. Dehm, associate counsel; Judge Cyrus McNutt, who was associate counsel under Darrow for the McNamaras and W. H Anderson

The state's forces were led by District Attorney John D. Fredericks. who successfully prosecuted the Mc Namaras. He was aided by Assistant District Attorney Joseph Ford and Deputy District Attorney Arthur Keetch. Ford also played a pr nent part in the McNamara trial. promi
