NEW YORK, May 17 .- Reports that Evelyn Nesbit Thaw is preparing to withdraw from the life of Harry K. Thaw, her husband the slayer of Stanford White, now held as an insane and a few friends. The prizes were man in Matteawan, were scoffed at won by Mrs. Henry O'Malley and Mrs. here today by close friends of the couple, who maintain that their 21months-old baby, born in Hamburg, Germany, is likely to inherit the bulk of the Thaw millions.

The boy baby's future, friends here of Evelyn assert, is one of the chief reasons why she will cling to Harry, Mrs. M. D. Latourette, Mrs. J. H. she believing that the millionaire will make their child his chief heir. It is Barlow Lawrence, Mrs. C. H. Meissner also believed that Harry's mother, Mrs. George Harding, Mrs. George Mrs. William Thaw, will remember the boy in her will, if Evelyn remains in the family.
