Arizona Gets the Recall

A bill providing for the recall of the judiciary has been passed by both branches of the Arizona Legislature, and signed by the Governor. Evidently the people of that commonwealth want this privilege, for it passed the Legislature with but a handful of dissenting votes. Scarcely any organized opposition was made to it.

The recall of the judiciary was in the constitution of Arizona, which was framed in 1911, but President Taft refused to sanction admission unless that provision was stricken out. The desire to get staidhood on almost any terms impelled the Arizonians to accede to the president's wishes on that point, as they knew they would, as a state, be free to reject it. And now, as a state, they get it.

Thus the youngest of the forty-eight states has adopted a fad which has thus far obtained no footing elsewhere. Several states have the initiative and referendum, and a few have the recall, but not for the judiciary. Arizona stands alone in this innovation. The country will watch the workings of this new departure with some curiosity.

COUNTY DIVISION

Considering silence, we should say that Estacada is not exerting itself on this important subject. We certainly hope our Estacada friends have seen the error of their ways and have gotten into the band wagon. "In unity there is strength."

NEW Items. Dep River Oarsmen. Both houses have passed our bill for deepening the Willamette between Portland and Oregon City, but is now in conference on account of Senate amendments. The item of $12,000 is expected to be available before the end of this summer. This with the deeper locks and government control will place Oregon City shipping and shippers on a par with other districts.

The late king of Denmark had the advantage of beginning life as a poor boy. Two of his sister though princesses, were compelled, on account of limited family means, to make their own dresses, yet one became queen of England, and the other empress of Russia.

Iowa Democrats assert that Bryan, if nominated, will poll from 500,000 to 1,000,000 more votes than any other Democratic candidate can get. Bryan proved his party superiority in all

Civilization's Two Great Evils, War and Death Penalty

WAR AND CAPITAL PUNISHMENT ARE TWO LEGALIZED FORMS OF MURDER. IN TRUTH CAPITAL PUNISHMENT IS INDEFENSIBLE ON ANY GROUND.

Punishment ought to be REFORMATORY in character. Surely electrocution is not that. As for protecting society, protection can be secured by the PERMANENT SEGREGATION OF THE CRIMINAL.

"Thou shalt do no murder" moves us to demand PROTECTION FOR THE LIVES OF THE WORKER. Compensation laws and safeguards in the event of loss of life or hurt to limb are good, but better still is adequate and complete protection.

The most potent single force against war is too often suffered to lapse into abeyance—the code of international morals. AS LONG AS WE BELIEVE THAT WAR MUST BE IT WILL BE. To believe that war is inevitable is to make it so. If we but are mindful that we are the makers of war we will not forever suffer war to unmake and to undo us.

his three battles, but how about never getting votes enough?

A Democratic contemporary remarks that Mr. Bryan "has none of Theodore Roosevelt's knack of discovering unsuspected loopholes of escape from plain and outright declarations." Information on this point will be more definite after the Baltimore ticket is hammered into shape.

Did you see the three new boilers for the Willamette mills brought up from Portland by the Willamette Navigation Company. These with the lumber on hand look like expansion. What do they mean?

China will try another experiment in socialism under the leadership of Sun Yat Sen. The latter has evidently had a bad tip.

Every politician of note wants to be like Abraham Lincoln, but in trying to be like him not many of them use the real Lincoln method.

Colonels Bryan and Roosevelt do not care who writes the songs of their country so long as they can do the bulk of coming back.

The commencement day orators of the present month may succeed in saving the country and then see it lost in the political vortex of June.

Live Wirelets

There is a big difference manifested in the scrap scheduled for July fourth this year and the big mill on the same date two years ago.

Perhaps now the property holders will be willing to voluntarily remove overhanging rocks on streets where heavy cuts have been made for street improvements.

Think of a baby weighing 170 pounds at birth and requiring ten cans of malted milk a day. We are speaking of a baby elephant.

This week the annual exodus of berry pickers will begin.

The merchant who sold a suit case and a trunk to a stranger, and taking the purchasers word that "he would come in tomorrow," doesn't deserve much sympathy.

Which will it be today—fishing, the ball game or church?

It would cost less than $2,000 to get that Vancouver biman to give a series of flights here on Bargain day. This exhibition would bring 6000 persons to the city, and estimating that each visitor would spend at least 75 cents, wouldn't it be a good investment? Possibly 2000 persons would come up from Portland to see him soar above the falls and probably the transportation companies would help out on the financial end. At any rate it would be the biggest stunt ever pulled off in the county.

One Oregon City man attends the K. & L. of Security Monday night, Tuesday night the Maccabees, Wednesday night the K. of P., Thursday night the Moose lodge, Friday night the Elks. Saturday night he goes to the Yocemen meeting and plays billiards at the Commercial Club Sunday nights. And yet he doesn't want his wife to join the Woman's Club!

Some Seattle people are knocking Portland on account of her "road-houses." No doubt these places are "hell holes" all right but one will have to travel many a day to find worse places than exist in Seattle's Georgetown. "People who live in glass houses should undress in the basement."

CANBY PUPILS GIVE FINE ENTERTAINMENT

The oratorical contest held at Canby Friday night in the City hall was largely attended. An excellent program was given. Those taking part in the oratorical contest did exceptionally well, the judges being, County School Superintendent T. J. Gary and John Seivers, of Oregon City.

It takes 40 clowns to amuse the crowds in a big circus, but we know a woman in this town who is whole circus herself. No—you don't know her.

Many persons admired the trim 60 foot cruiser Sea Otter last Sunday when she passed through the locks on her way to Wilsonville. But few knew that this is the only ocean-going vessel that has ever passed through the locks.

No wonder that every piece of new music is a "rag." The composer of Alexander's Ragtime Band wrote the words in ten minutes and the foolish little ditty has already earned him $30,000 in royalties.

SCENE FROM THE COMEDY, "THE MAN FROM HOME," AT HEILIG THEATRE, ALL THIS WEEK. The famous actor, William Hodge, will present the play success of the century, "The Man from Home," at the Heilig Theatre, 7th and Taylor streets, for 7 night, beginning today. Special price matinee Saturday.

MARSHALL VATCHER ENTERTAINS FRIENDS

Marshall Vatcher entertained in a most delightful manner at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Vatcher, Twelfth and Center streets, Friday evening, his guests being his schoolmates. The evening was devoted to music and games. Ice cream and cake were served. The decorations were very artistic. The living room was in American Beauty roses and ferns and the dining room was in LaFrance roses and ferns. Those in attendance were the Misses Marion Pickens, Alice Holman, Carrie, Ellen Grace, Messrs. Fairfax Myers, Ted Sheahan, Oran Moore, Victor Meyer, Albert Moore, Marshall Vatcher.

THE DEEP PURPLE

Baker Stock Company in Great Play Of Criminal Life This Week.

Paul Armstrong, who wrote Alias Jimmy Valentine, the Heir to the Hoohah and other noted play successes, also gave to the stage the Deep Purple, which the Baker Stock Company will present for the first time in Stock all this week opening today matinee. Like Alias Jimmy Valentine, it is distinctly a play of criminal life, and yet not an unpleasant one. It is thrilling and exciting and yet carries a sense of suppressed danger that is most fascinating all the time. And it is full of comedy for even crooks enjoy their humor. The first act opens at a boarding house kept by one Frisco Kate, a reformed confederate who will otherwise make it decent woman, who nevertheless, is obliged to harbor a gang of crooks is in most excellent form to give the same remarkable performance of William Lake he was then. Maude Hannaford, who sprang into instant popularity here by her performance of Peggy in Brewster's Millions will play Doris Moore, and the entire Baker Company will be in the cast. Bargain night Monday.

REDLAND BAND GIVES DELIGHTFUL CONCERT

Redland can boast of having a fine band, this was proved at meeting at the home of R. Kerr, of Redland, Friday evening, when the band gathered to hold its regular weekly meeting. One of the enjoyable features of the evening was the surprise planned and carried out for the Kerr family, when 60 people walked in while the band was rehearsing one of its best selections. Mr. Kerr as well as his family proved most enjoyable entertainers. The evening was devoted to games and music, the band rendering an excellent program, this being followed by refreshment that was prepared and brought by the ladies.

The Redland band was organized one and one-half years ago, and is one of the best musical organizations of this kind in Clackamas County, and the leader, Frank Schwartz, is somewhat responsible for this, for since taking up his duties has spared no pains to make this one of the leading musical organizations, and it was proved on Friday evening when the band played some of its choicest selections.

We try to teach but we are willing to learn.

Here---everywhere---in the frozen north---in the fever ridden swamps of the tropics they look to me for aid.

To the invalid, the convalescent, the old, the infirm, I give real helpful service.

A little of me goes a long way.
