BOARD WILL ELECT TWO SUPERVISORS

Two new supervisors for the schools of Clackamas County will be chosen by the County Educational Board, which meets next Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock, to fill the vacancies due to the retirement of Carl T. Anderson, who has been elected principal of the West Oregon City schools, and Mrs. Emilie C. Shaw, who has been chosen principal of the school at Wichita, in the North part of the county. J. E. Calavan will probably be retained as supervisor. There are few applicants for the positions, which pay $100 per month and traveling expenses for 10 months in the year. The members of the County Educational Board are County School Superintendent T. J. Gary, H. G. Starkweather, E. E. Brodie, John R. Cole and Henry Babler.

CORRESPONDENCE

CLARKES.

We are having quite a spell of rainy weather at the present writing. Grain and gardens are showing up fine since the rain. Mr. and Mrs. H. Wallace spent Saturday and Sunday visiting their son and wife, at Colton, returning home Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Louie Sagar and daughter, Mabel, spent Sunday at the Wallace home. Strawberries are starting to ripen.

Sunday on account of the rain. The two small children of Mrs. Moser have been very sick with colds and symptoms of pneumonia. Neil Lapham has left for his former home, Falls View, Idaho. E. Stark is putting a new wire fence around his yard. Mr. and Mrs. Tallman and daughter were calling on Lou Sagar and wife one day last week.

EAGLE CREEK

A. H. Page, of Big Cabin, Oklahoma, is the guest of his sister, Mrs. Heitsman, of Eagle Creek. A large crowd attended the funeral of Mrs. R. A. Wilcox, of Springwater, Tuesday. The services were held in the Eagle Creek church, and were conducted by Mr. Aue. Interment was made in the Forrester cemetery. Mrs. Wilcox was a sister of Jim and Eli Suter. The bereaved family have our sympathy. Chester Dean is working for H. S. Gibson. Mrs. Judd came up to stay with her son, George, for a time. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Guy Clester, on Tuesday, twin girls.

FIRWOOD.

A railroad meeting was held at Firwood Saturday evening. Officers were elected and a committee of five appointed to co-operate with the railroad officials in securing the right of way from Sandy to Welches. Officers: F. L. Mack, chairman, E. D. Hart, Secretary. Committee, J. Dixon, W. F. Fischer, Wm. Bosholm, Theo. Koenecka and E. D. Hart. The only thing we lack to make this the garden spot of Oregon is a railroad and a high school, and these are now practically assured.

The machinery for the Mt. Hood Co-operative Creamery plant is arriving and will be installed immediately.

J. R. Cornog's brother, W. A. Cornog, is here from Texas.

Mr. Cornog expects his house to be ready to occupy in about a week.

Mrs. E. R. Hart made a business trip to Kelso Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Fischer, Mr. and Mrs. Malar and Miss Ida Stucke visited Multnomah Grange at Orient Saturday.

A. Motel is putting in a small saw mill on his ranch.

A. Malar went to Portland Saturday to place his brother, John, in a Sanatorium.

STAFFORD.

It continues to rain gently, and seeds and plants put in the ground shoot up quickly.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Scholtz write they have arrived at the old home in Dakota and are having a very pleasant visit.

The Gold Dollar strawberry is ripening now and ready for the market. Mrs. Nussbaum picked and distributed among her neighbors last week the first to get ripe.

The officers of the district met last week and decided to retain both Mr. Knowls and Miss Benche as teachers for the coming year.

Mrs. Gage and her daughter, Mrs. Ray, drove to Oregon City Tuesday to get some dental work done and will go down again Friday.

The Messrs Larson and Borland put in a new telephone at Gage's Wednesday.

OAK GROVE

Mrs. A. Lincoln Hart and two sons will leave the first week in June to join her husband in Ohio. Mr. Hart has decided to remain in the east for the present as he has a good position there. Mrs. Hart is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Brandt and they regret very much to have the family leave Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gillespie of Portland have rented the Bennett cottage of Mrs. Ida Dedrick and will settle in Oak Grove permanently.

Pursey Day has shipped a lot of household goods to Newburg and dame rumor says there will be a Mrs. Day, any way we wish Pursey good luck.

Mrs. Jessie Durban has accepted a position as operator on our switch board in place of Miss Maud Magee, who resigned and is working in the new department store of Holtz in Portland.

The Concord school held their closing exercises Monday afternoon. A good program was given by the children, and refreshments, consisting of ice cream and cake were served by the ladies, and all enjoyed themselves.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Barnett entertained a number of friends Saturday evening in honor of Frank Lawton, who came home for a short visit, from Victoria, B. C. It was also a gathering to bid Leigh Moody good bye. He is leaving Sunday morning in company with his brother for Victoria, B. C., having accepted a position with the Dominion Carton Company of that city. The evening was spent with music and cards, ice cream and cake were served, and the guests departed at a late hour, wishing the boys success.

CHERRYVILLE

The Cherryville school has closed for the summer and Miss Lola Herald, the teacher, has left for her home at Lentas.

Miss Maggie Muggles, of Portland, has been visiting Mrs. Bedenstein for several weeks.

Keith Abraham, who has been working at Rhodes' shingle mill, has gone to visit his parents at Forest Grove for a few weeks.

Mrs. J. T. Friel, Jr., with the assistance of Mrs. Ray Murray and Mrs. Wm. Allen, has papered her kitchen in a very artistic manner. Mrs. Friel is preparing the hotel for the rush of summer tourists.

Thos. McCabe has returned after several weeks' visit in Oregon City. O. Wyman, the Cherryville photographer, has left for a month's trip through Oregon. During his trip he will take views.

Deputy forest supervisor, W. B. Osborne, left for Portland Thursday. The government has finished planting fir trees in the vicinity of Wild Cat Mountain for the season and will shortly commence work on the government trail, connecting Cherryville with eastern Oregon, via Wild Cat mountain. This trail has been completed for a distance of about 20 miles beyond Wild Cat mountain and will be a very short route for horse back riders, going back and forth between eastern and western Oregon, and the region in the vicinity of Wild Mountain will be a paradise for the huckleberry pickers, hunters and fishermen.

J. T. Friel, Jr. made a trip to Portland last week for a load of goods for his Cherryville store and brought back a pair of Belgian rabbits for Master Johnny Friel. Messrs. Milan and Devlin are working for Dr. O. Botkins, on his ranch.

Ben Beach has left for Portland, but expects to return soon with his family and resume his position as fire warden for the Southern Pacific during May 23rd. Mrs. J. T. Friel, Jr. has purchased an Edison phonograph. Jas. T. Edgerton's mother died in Portland May 20th and was buried the summer season.
