SCORES ARE SLAIN IN BELGIUM RIOTS

POST ELECTION DISTURBANCES MAY BE PRECURSORS OF REVOLUTION

ARMY STREWS STREETS WITH DEAD

Socialist Committee Announces That It Will Proclaim Strike Today—Children Among Killed

BRUSSELS, Belgium, June 4.—The post election riots in Belgium have taken on a revolutionary character. Following last night's troubles at Liege and other places, the Socialist central committee declared today that it would proclaim a general strike tomorrow.

A mob at Verriers today assailed gendarmes with missiles. The latter charged repeatedly and when the rioters refused to disperse, opened fire. Thirty of the mob fell killed or wounded. Several gendarmes were injured. Many arrests were made.

A score of persons were wounded at Ghent in a fight with gendarmes. Mobs attacked several convents, breaking the windows of the buildings. The rioters also smashed at the windows in the stores on several streets.

At Antwerp one battalion of scouts and a section of artillery of the civil guard joined the manifestants. They rebelled against the police authorities and vented their feelings in demolishing windows. The clerical press demands the dismissal of these troops.

Several persons were killed and a score wounded in the exchange of volleys between mounted gendarmes and rioters at Liege.

In addition to the trouble at Liege and Verriers, where gendarmes fired upon a crowd, killing or wounding more than 50 persons, among whom were two children, there was less serious rioting at Burges, Tournai, Ghent, Louvain, Antwerp and in this city.

Several Jesuit colleges and Catholic institutions were attacked and the windows smashed. The gendarmes charged the rioters with drawn swords.

The fatal encounter occurred near the Socialist headquarters known as "Populaire." Firing revolvers in the air the protestants advanced through the streets, smashing stores and cafes as they went. After they had arrived at headquarters, several shots were fired from within upon the mounted gendarmes.

WOODFIN MUSICAL PLEASES BIG CROWD

One of the most successful musical events ever given in Oregon City was the piano recital of the pupils of Oscar Lawrence Woodfin, given in the direction of the Congregational church Tuesday evening, when the church parlors were filled with a large and appreciative audience. The interior of the church was a bower of beauty with its decorations of ferns and cut flowers. The color scheme was pink and green, these colors being used throughout the church. Indian baskets filled with ferns and Caroline Testout roses were used in many parts of the church. The platform was banked with roses and sweet briar, and the electric lights were shaded in pink. The flower girl was little Della Woodfin. The ushers were Miss Adah Hulbert, Miss Louise Walker and Miss Florence Grace.

The program which consisted of compositions of greatest composers, was highly appreciated, and every number given by the pupils showed they had received thorough instruction. Mr. Woodfin's numbers appeared last on the program, which completed one of the most delightful recitals given here. The program was as follows:

PART I.—"Queen of Drowsy Land" (4 hands) Duce, Laura Johnson and Hazel Miller; "First Waltz," Biederma, Alva Erickson; "The Graces," Loeschhorn, Marvin Eby; "Picnic Dance," Spindler, Velma Randall; (a) "Rondo in C" Mozart, (b) "Boat Song," Dutton, Marjorie Reed; "In the Field," Spalding, Arleigh Read; "Northland Cradle Song," Gaynor, Earl Frost; "An Indian Village," Brown, Gladys January.

PART II.—(a) "March of the Tin Soldiers," Gurli, (b) "Funeral March," Tchakowski, (c) "The Crick-et," Krogman, Violet Beaulieu; "Menu-et," Beethoven, Carrie Cross; (a) "Spinning Song," Ellerlich, (b) "To a Wild Rose," Macdowell, Willa Woodfin; (a) "The Joyous Farmer," Schumann, (b) "The Skylark," Tchakowski, Laura Johnson; (a) "Nocturne," Hanten, (b) "The Menagerie," Brown, Bernice Johnson.

PART III.—"Simple Confession," Thome, Miss Mathilda Myers; (a) "Sonata in D Major," Joseph Haydn, (b) "Allegro con grilo. II. Largo e sostenuto. III. Presto ma non troppo. (b) "Humoresque" Dvorak, (c) "March Mignon," Poldini, Miss Myrtle Holmes; (a) "Fantasia in C sharp Minor" Chopin, (b) "The Swan," St. Saens, (c) "March of the Dwarfs," Greig, (d) "The Song of the Brook," Woodfin, (e) waltz "a la bien-aimée" (To My Beloved) Schutt, Oscar Laurence Woodfin.

LOUIS LEE'S FUNERAL TO BE THIS AFTERNOON

The funeral of Louis Lee, who committed suicide in his home near Boring Sunday, will be held at the Holman Undertaking Establishment this afternoon. Oley L. Lee, of White Salmon, a brother of the dead man, arrived here Tuesday and took charge of the remains.

COUNTY DIVISION SCORED BY WIRES

ORGANIZATION GOES ON RECORD AGAINST PLAN BY UNANIMOUS VOTE

FREE BATHS MAY BE OBTAINED

Patrons Of Cars Will Vote Today On Proposition To Have More Stops In Gladstone

Almost every matter of public import that the Live Wires have had under consideration for the past month came up for discussion at the monthly evening luncheon of the organization Tuesday night. The attendance was record breaking. Many of the members had something to offer for the good of the Association as well as for the common weal.

By unanimous vote the Live Wires went on record as opposed to the division of Clackamas County for the purpose of effecting the creation of the new county of Cascade, with Estacada as the county seat. The matter was taken up by B. T. McBain, chairman of the committee that has had the matter in hand, upon the initiative of R. M. Standish, secretary of the Estacada campaign committee.

In a letter to Mr. McBain the Estacada man desired to know the attitude of the Live Wires, which is sold against the division of the county. The adherents of county division are already circulating petitions to get the matter before the people at the November election.

The Live Wires also gave their hearty and unqualified endorsement of the city council in its effort for better civic conditions, and particularly in the support of the ordinance which will soon come up for enactment to compel owners of property to keep sidewalks free from dirt and other obstructions. Councilman Toosa reported that there are sidewalks in Oregon City that have not been used for a year because of the dirt that covers them. He also said that a conference between members of the street committee and Captain J. T. Apperson over the condition of a portion of Eleventh street had had a happy termination, indicating that the street fronting the Apperson property will be placed in a condition that will be satisfactory.

Rev. C. W. Robinson and William Sheahan, members of the committee on public baths, said they hoped to have a proposition to present in concrete form at the next meeting of the Live Wires. They have had some correspondence with the officers of the Russel Sage Foundation Fund in reference to an appropriation, and are in touch with the secretary of this fund, which is very similar to the Carnegie Library Fund, appropriating money for the construction of public baths and establishment of public playgrounds. It is planned by the committee to have the matter in shape to place it before the people of Oregon City at the special election in July.

The committee proposes to maintain a free public bath for children, and to charge a small fee for adults to defray the cost of maintenance. The Russel Sage Foundation Fund may, it is understood, care for a portion of the cost of construction and the city will probably be asked to pay the remainder.

It was announced that the vote for or against an additional stop at Gladstone at Hereford street will be taken Wednesday on the cars between Canemah and Golf Links, and that all passengers will be entitled to a vote. The company has taken this method of solving the problem. The Gladstone people are asking for a third stop and other patrons of the line are objecting on the ground that additional stops mean an impairment of the service.

Mr. McBain reported that the United States engineers intended deepening the lower lock next October, when the stage of water is most favorable, further improvement and reconstruction of the Willamette River locks will probably have to be deferred until next year.

J. E. Hedges and Lily Stipp, comprising the committee on laws, discussed the proposed tax amendments and the status of the University of Oregon and the Oregon Agricultural College, outlining the situation clearly and concisely.

Attorney William M. Stone was elected to membership.

WORK ON CLACKAMAS SOUTHERN RESUMED

Work was commenced Tuesday on the Clackamas Southern Railway Company line, beginning at Oregon City, and an officer of the Company said the work would be pushed all summer and the force will be increased from time to time so that the road will be completed and in operation in the Molalla valley before fall.

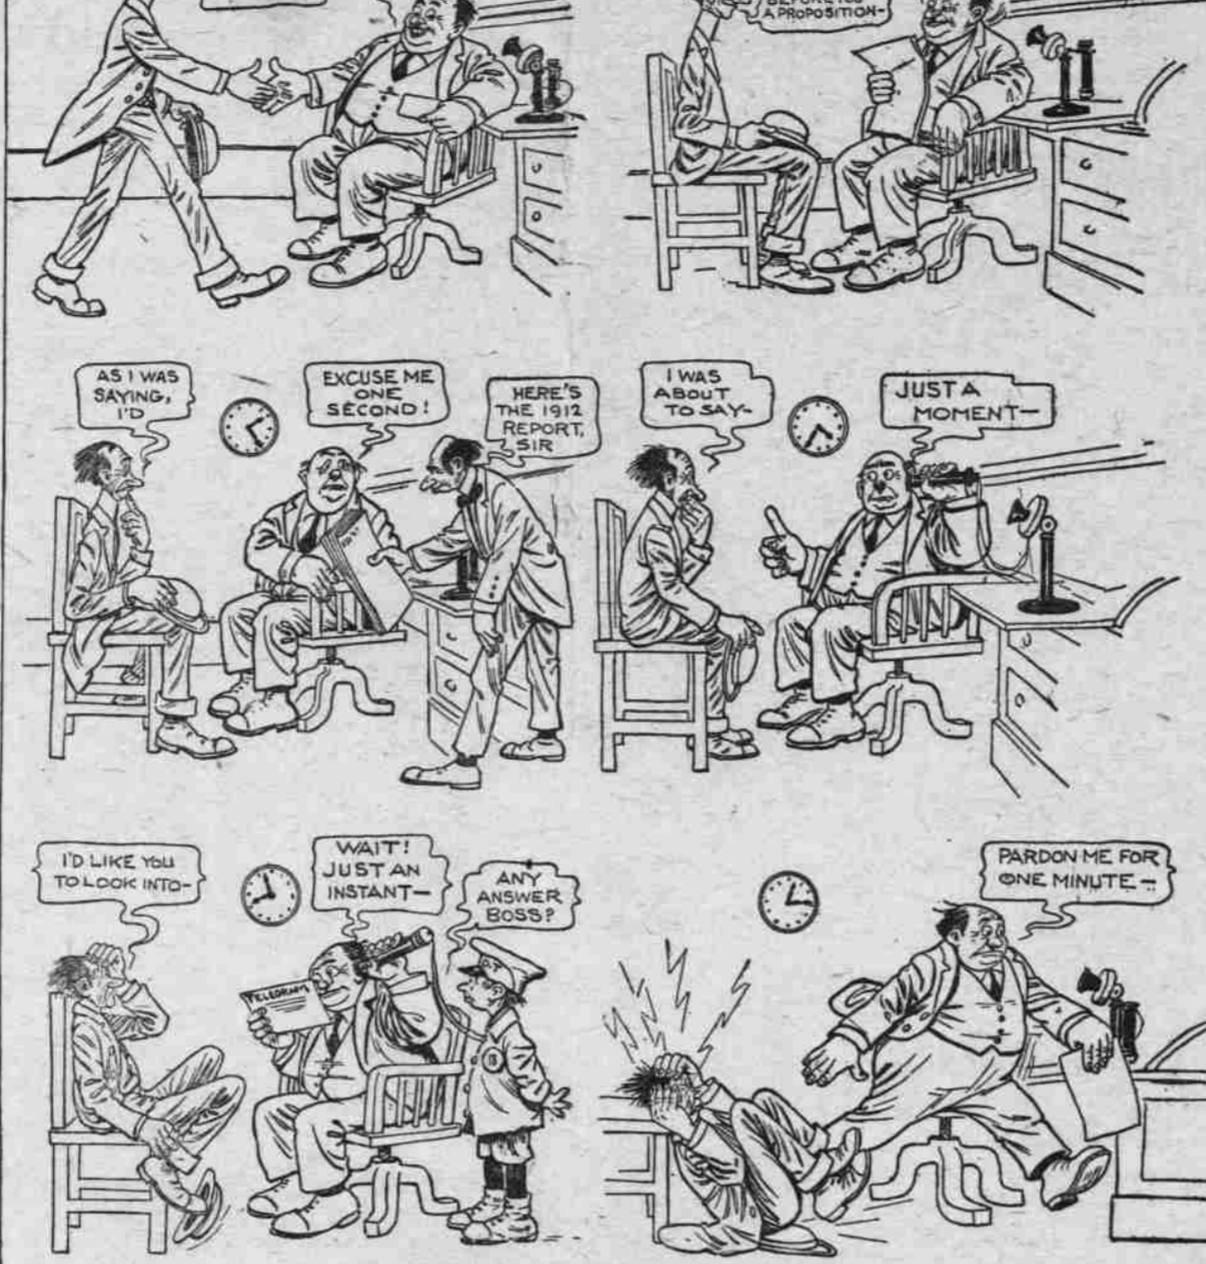

The Company has worked against great odds by not having the party support of all citizens who will be benefited materially by the completion of the line. With the assistance of Stephen Carver and the people of Oregon City, and those who live along the line the road can be placed in operation into the Molalla valley before October 1.

It is the intention to complete the road from Oregon City, Southerly and confine all of the work at one end of the line so as to get it in operation from Oregon City to Beaver Creek, as soon as possible, so that the road can be used in hauling to market logs, lumber, cord-wood and piling, as there is a great deal of that material in that section awaiting transportation.

GOMPERS ACCUSED IN BRIBE CASE

FRANKLIN SAYS DARROW RECEIVED MONEY USED FROM LABOR CHIEF

FUND TRACED TO DEPOSIT VAULT

Defense Declares It Has Won Many Points in Examination—Witness Does Well Under Cross Fire

LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 4.—Samuel Gompers, head of the American Federation of Labor, sent the money direct to Clarence S. Darrow, which Franklin has testified was to be used in the bribery of George N. Lockwood according to Bert Franklin, under cross-examination today in the trial of Darrow for alleged jury bribery in connection with the McNamara case. Franklin said Mr. Darrow had given him this information.

Franklin testified at the same time that Darrow had told him he need not worry about Job Harriman being implicated in the case. Harriman, Darrow told the witness, could account for his visit to the safe deposit vault the morning he secured the $4000 by the fact that he took out $500 to pay a mortgage, said Franklin.

The conversation in which Gompers' name was mentioned followed a newspaper account purporting to show that the $4000 used in the Lockwood case had been marked money. "I asked Mr. Darrow," said Franklin, "if he had seen in the papers that the District Attorney had traced the money from the safe deposit vault in the hands of Mr. Darrow and from there into my hands; also that it was marked money. I asked Mr. Darrow if there was any way for the money to be traced. He said that the money was sent direct to him by Samuel Gompers."

Franklin also testified to another conversation with the defendant in the course of which he said Darrow had asked him for a description of the calls and accommodations at the San Quentin and Folsom prisons. "I told him the best I could," continued the witness. "I was thinking seriously about that myself."

Questioned as to conversations, following his arrest with Attorney Le-compte Davis, Franklin claimed the privilege of declining to answer on the ground that Davis was his attorney. He declared that he did not intend to draw Davis into the case. Chief Counsel Rogers, for the defense, claimed that Franklin waived all privileges when he took the stand for the prosecution.

Judge Hutton ruled that Franklin was not privileged to withhold any conversations with his attorney. The prosecution offered further objections to the questions asked the witness, which were overruled.

Franklin told of private conversations with Davis concerning the latter's efforts to procure his release on payment of a fine.

"Did you ever tell Mr. Davis that Mr. Lockwood had solicited a bribe of you and that you wanted to catch him?" asked Rogers.

"Yes, I think it was in the office of Mr. Gage," was the reply. "I told Mr. Davis that Lockwood came to my office and solicited a bribe."

Continuing the cross-examination Rogers drew from the witness the statement that Davis had told him to say that the money used in bribing Lockwood had been sent to him from Chicago. Franklin denied that he had ever told a group of newspaper men at his preliminary examination that Darrow had nothing to do with the alleged jury bribery. He also denied making subsequent statements to newspaper avowing Darrow's innocence. A number of such statements were read by Rogers, and each denied by Franklin.

Although the defense has professed itself well pleased with a number of points brought out by its examination of one of the state's chief witnesses, the essential story told on direct examination by Franklin has not been materially changed as a result of attack by the defense.

AUTO CLUB HAS FIRST BANQUET TONIGHT

The Clackamas County Automobile Club will give its first banquet at 6:30 o'clock this evening in Masonic Banquet Hall. At least fifty owners of automobiles will be in attendance. Among those expected to attend are Governor West; W. J. Clemens, President of the Portland Automobile Club; H. Wemme, Vice-President of the Portland Automobile Club; F. B. Riley, President in Oregon of the Pacific Highway Association; B. W. Olin, Secretary of State; B. F. Rodgers, Chairman of the Capital Highway Association; Judge Thomas F. Ryan, of Salem and Judge E. C. Bron-augh, Dr. H. S. Mount will be toastmaster. The wives of owners of automobiles are invited to attend.

IDAHO FOR CLARK; LEADER IS SNUBBED

COEUR D'ALENE, Idaho, June 4.—The Idaho state Democratic convention selected today 16 delegates to the Baltimore convention, each with half a vote, instructed for Chaamp Clark, but Fred T. Dubois, manager of the Clark National campaign, was not among them.

The Dubois forces maneuvered for every point, but were defeated at every turn by the determined anti-Dubois majority. The presentation of Dubois' name with 23 others for places on the delegation, let loose a flood of indorsement and of condemnation.

MISS McCORD AND SHEAHAN LEADERS

ONE OF THEM WILL WIN AUTO IN BIG CONTEST WHICH CLOSES TONIGHT

SPECIAL OFFER BRINGS OUT VOTES

Thousands Of Ballots Cast Last Double Vote Day—Race Close Between Young Man And Young Woman

The greatest newspaper contest ever conducted in Clackamas County closes at 7 o'clock this evening. All votes to be counted must be cast before that time. Thousands of ballots were polled Tuesday—the last double vote day—and the race for the automobile narrowed down between Miss Ruby McCord and Joseph Sheahan. One of them will certainly win the $785 Ford touring car and the other seems reasonably certain of the second prize—$100 in gold. These two have occupied the two first places since the great race started. Sheahan led at first, but it was not long until the systematic, continuous work of Miss McCord began to tell and she forged to the front in the number of ballots cast, which position she still holds. How many ballots she and Sheahan have in reserve no one knows but themselves. Both, however, said Tuesday afternoon that they were confident of winning the car. While admitting that he had a hard row to hoe to defeat Miss McCord, Sheahan smiled knowingly when he asserted that he would be the winner. "And even if I do lose the car," said the High School athlete philosophically, "I will have that $100 to pay on my lot."

The judges will begin counting the ballots promptly at 7 o'clock this evening and the announcement of the winners will be made as soon as possible.

H. L. YOUNG NAMED LIGHT CO.'S AGENT

H. L. Young, recently of the Light and Power department of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company was in Oregon City Tuesday overlooking local condition with a view to remodeling the new quarters of his department which will be located in the Beaver Building and getting acquainted with the various patrons of the company.

Mr. Young, who is affectionately known by his friends as "Colonel" has had considerable experience in this branch of work and comes to this city with the well wishes of the Portland office.

"Colonel" Young assures the public that the task of moving into the up-town quarters will progress as rapidly as possible and would like to meet in person all users of "juice" and assist them in any matters pertaining to his department they are not at present acquainted with, particularly so on account of the new lighting rates which go into effect July 1.

ROSE SHOW DAY PLANS COMPLETED

BIGGER CROWD THAN THAT AT BOOSTER CELEBRATION IS EXPECTED SATURDAY

ADDITIONAL PRIZES ARE OFFERED

Woman's Club Announces That Bibles For Show Should Be Registered At Publicity Office

Oregon City will have one banner day next Saturday, when the annual rose show of the Clackamas County Rose Society, will be held. It is predicted that there will be a larger crowd in the city even than that on Booster Day, which was some crowd. Mrs. A. C. Warner, President of the Society and her assistants have worked harder than ever before to make the show a big success and it is a foregone conclusion that their efforts will result in the biggest demonstration ever known in this city.

Mrs. Warner announced Tuesday evening that in addition to the classes and prizes enumerated on the folders which have been distributed that W. P. Hawley had offered a handsome cut glass vase for the best exhibit of six new roses since 1906, and that O. E. Freytag had offered cash prizes for the best displays of pink and white Calarney. She also announced that folders could be obtained at the office of the Publicity Committee and Harding's drug store.

The Woman's Club announced Tuesday that bibles for entry in the baby show to be given at the Congregational church in connection with the Rose Festival could be registered at the Promotion Office.

The program for the day will be as follows:

10-11 A. M.—Music by Concert Band, Seventh and Main streets.

11:00 A. M.—Children's Rose Parade. Headed by Oak Grove Girls' Band. Starts at Hawley Mill. Review at Judges' stand, Seventh and Main streets. Ends at Twelfth street.

1:30 P. M.—Automobile parade. Decorated automobiles. Decorated motorcycles. Headed by concert band.

2 P. M.—Baby Show at Congregational church, Eleventh and Main streets.

2:30 P. M.—Rose show opens at Busch's Hall, Eleventh and Main streets.

2:30 to 3 P. M.—Concert at entrance to rose show hall.

C. M. ABBOTT DIES; PARENTS SOUGHT

FORMER EDITOR OF WESTERN STOCK JOURNAL EXPIRES IN HOTEL

DIMICK PAYS HIM HIGH COMPLIMENT

Newspaper Man Revealed Little Of Life's History, But Is Believed To Have Been College Graduate

Charles M. Abbott, formerly editor of the Western Stock Journal, published in this city, died Tuesday at the Willamette Hotel after an illness of about one week. Mr. Abbott had worked as a newspaper reporter and copy editor in San Francisco, Oakland, Boston, New York and other cities in the East. He came to Oregon City about six months ago, and worked several weeks on a special issue of a newspaper, after which he obtained the editorship of the stock journal. Mr. Abbott vouchsafed little information regarding himself, excepting his newspaper connections and that his parents lived in New York City. He was an experienced newspaper man, a fluent writer and evidently a college bred man.

He complained several weeks ago of stomach trouble and remained in bed three days. Afterward he was apparently as well as ever, and resumed his newspaper duties. His last illness, however, was much more serious from the start and his physician, Dr. M. C. Strickland, said several days ago that he probably would not recover.

"I never knew a finer young newspaper man than Mr. Abbott," said Grant B. Dimick, Manager of the Western Stock Journal. "He was a well informed man, and a versatile writer. He knew little of the stock business when we employed him, but he made a careful study of it, and the last articles he wrote were highly praised by stockmen. While he told me little of his personal history, I am confident that he came of a well-to-do family, and was probably a college graduate."

A telegram announcing Mr. Abbott's death was sent to his parents in New York but no answer has been received. He told J. E. Hill, who nursed him, that his father was Hon. John T. Abbott, and his address was St. George Hotel, New York City.

CARRIER, STALLED, WON'T GIVE UP AUTO

Frank Whiteman, mailcarrier of R. F. D. No. 2 of Oregon City, is still having trouble with his automobile and his horses, "Pet" and "Peggy" which were to have a long vacation, are being put into use several days a week. Mr. Whiteman had decided to use the automobile the remainder of the summer in delivering the mail. The first few days he got along all right but finally he was caught in the rain, which made part of the road impassable. The machine was disabled and he had to return to Oregon City on foot. "Peggy" was again put into commission on the route until the necessary repairs were made to the car. The machine again broke down Tuesday and Mr. Whiteman had to telephone to this city for another machine to bring him and the broken car here. He has at last decided that it is the fault of the automobile instead of the roads, and is contemplating purchasing another machine.
