CORRESPONDENCE

MOLALLA.

In the burning of the Perry Hotel Molalla lost one of its best buildings, and the owner had $7,500 go up in the blaze.

City water works will be the leading thought of our town as it goes on the way of building for the future.

Dr. Powell has vacated old No. 1 building, moving to Tobin Corner with his stock of goods, while Mr. Wood has fitted up a barber shop for the present on the Gregory Corner.

Mr. Shoemaker has moved into his new dwelling. F. C. Perry will occupy the McDonald House this summer.

Dr. Todd has his residence "shingle" up at the door of the Frank Adams' residence.

Frank Dicken and wife have moved to their home, recently vacated by Dr. Todd.

Clackamas Southern Railway officials were again in our midst Monday morning.

The Canby and Molalla right-of-way men have been buying their way through, paralleling the Clackamas Southern from Liberal. This line will take on a substantial appearance for business when completed; just think of the coming conditions if you can.

Railroad tie contractors are negotiating for all the young tie timber they can procure on the line.

Geo. H. Gregory has his townsite sign posted. Lots $125 up, Main St.

Last Saturday night about seven dozen of Miss Ethel Tillea's friends gave her a real surprise "kitchen show" at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Fauries, on the near future event of her marriage to Mr. Perry Kayler. Being accidently present, he did nobly in assisting Miss Ethel in making things lively for the "multitude" assembled, and it is almost useless to mention that Peter Fauries himself was in evidence. To add to the gladness of the occasion, Mrs. Joy assisted Mr. and T. O. Ridings I. M. Tolliver and others with the music.

The guests wished the contracting parties success on Life's Rugged Pacific Highway and said their goodbye at a late hour.

ESTACADA.

The cases against Earl Wagner, Floyd Davis and Emmanuel Krighbaum were dismissed in the justice court.

Last Sunday morning an attempt was made to blow the safe of Snyder and North at Cazadero. The safe was wheeled outside, drilled and primed with powder and the burglars were frightened away in some manner. The postoffice till was rifled of its contents. No clew of the burglars has been found.

Petitions are being circulated asking for the creation of eastern Clackamas County. Meetings have been held at Elwood, Viola and Garfield, urging the cause of the new county. Meetings will be held at the Country Club's Hall in Porter school district Sunday morning, and in the grove at George in the afternoon. The promoters of the new county initiative have placed a man in Portland to manage their campaign for signatures for them.

Tuesday the three-year-old daughter of Theodore Harders, of George, in playing, tripped over backwards into a tub of scalding water. She died Wednesday night. She was a bright and pretty child and her loss is keenly felt in the home and community.

Friday the trial of Earl Wagner, Floyd Davis and Emanuel Krighbaum was set in justice of peace court at Estacada. They are accused by Henry Epperson of assault and battery on his stepsons.

NEW ERA.

Mrs. and Mrs. Charles Robertson were honored with reception on the eve of their return from Portland where they were married.

Miss Amelia Stauber has been visiting in Portland for a week.

Miss Ethel Rief was home from Portland to attend the silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Kiels.

May 18, a merry crowd gathered at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Reinhold Kiel, to surprise them in honor of their silver wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Kiel were married in Omaha, Neb., May 18, 1887. Nine children have blessed their wedlock, six of whom are living. The honored couple were presented with many useful and valuable pieces of table linen, glass, and silverware. The evening was spent in music, and dancing till a late hour. At midnight an elaborate lunch was served. The dining table was set under an immense wedding bell made of silver, with the date of their marriage and date of the anniversary. Masses of carnations were bunched in garlands on the walls and windows and a large wedding cake was the center piece.

MISS PARKER HOSTESS OF PATIENCE CLUB

Miss Myrtle Parker entertained the Patience Poker Club at her home on Fourteenth and Main streets Monday evening. This was the last meeting of the club. The evening was devoted to playing patience poker, the prize, a Fairfax spoon, being won by Miss Helen Daulton. Refreshments were served during the evening, and a most enjoyable time was had. Decorations were of roses.
