WICKERSHAM AIDS HOPE OF OLESON

ATTORNEY-GENERAL ASSERTS THAT JUDGE HANFORD IS WRONG

BERGER SAYS HE'LL PRESS CHARGES

Congressman Declares Impeachment Proceedings Will Be Started—Socialists Encouraged

WASHINGTON, June 5.—Encouraged by a letter from Attorney-General Wickersham recommending reopening the case depriving Leonard Oleson, of Seattle, of citizenship because he was a Socialist, Representative Berger, of Wisconsin, announced today his intention of urging impeachment proceedings against United States District Judge Hanford, who decided the issue.

Representative Berger said he would exercise his prerogative as a member of the House and would call up, as a matter of special privilege, a resolution for the impeachment of Judge Hanford. Berger laid before the President and the Attorney-General a copy of the record in the Oleson case, and today he received a letter from Mr. Wickersham saying that "gross injustice had been done Mr. Oleson."

Oleson's certificate of naturalization was cancelled by Judge Hanford on the testimony that Oleson subscribed to the principles of the Socialist party.

The form of impeachment will be unusual to the House. Under the Constitution a member can rise to his place and impeach a judge. It is a question of the highest privilege and under the rules, must be taken up. If the resolution is adopted the judiciary committee is charged with preparing the case for presentation to the Senate.

McNAMARAS LOSE CREDITS

SAN FRANCISCO, June 5.—James B. and John J. McNamara, the former serving life and the latter 14 years at San Quentin in connection with the Los Angeles dynamiting cases, are both under the ban at San Quentin prison for failure to do the work assigned them.

The two ex-union labor leaders have had their credits taken from them, and must remain without privileges until they show a disposition to conform to the rules of the prison and perform the daily tasks allotted to them in common with the other prisoners.

Warden Hoyle admitted today that the McNamara brothers had fallen foul of the prison laws of discipline.

ALASKA TOPIC OF DEVELOPMENT CONGRESS

SEATTLE, Wash., June 5.—Alaska occupied the center of the stage at the first day's session of the first Northwest Development Congress, which convened here today.

Three speakers pleaded Alaska's cause. W. T. Perkins, advocating immediate home rule; Falcon Joblyn urging the construction of railroads by the Government if private capital is not to be permitted to develop transportation lines, and Maurice D. Leehey speaking in favor of all liberal public land policy in the North.

The Congress sent a telegram to Senator William Alden Smith, chairman of the Senate committee on territory, urging immediate action on House Bill No. 38, providing for an elective Legislature for Alaska.

DOZEN PETITIONS FOR ROADS DENIED

At least a dozen applications for new roads were denied by the County Court Wednesday. The petitioners asked that the money be provided from the general fund. Judge Beattie explained that the court had announced in January that no money would be expended from the general fund for building new roads, the court having decided that such appropriations would be equivalent to taking money from one district for use in another.

AUTO CLUB TO BE IN ROSE PARADE

NEW ORGANIZATION, AT BANQUET PLANS IMPROVEMENT OF ROADS

COMMITTEES ARE APPOINTED

Starkweather Explains Bill Providing License Of $1 For Each Horsepower—Riley Amuses Crowd

Matters of importance to automobile owners and others were discussed at the first banquet of the Clackamas County Automobile Club held Wednesday evening at the Commercial Club. The attendance was large and the members were enthusiastic over the prospects of the club, which was organized about two weeks ago. It was decided that the organization should work for the improvement of the roads of the county. A trip of the members to Mount Hood in the near future was planned.

W. J. Clemens, President of the Portland Automobile Club, called attention to the necessity that the members be thoroughly acquainted with their rights as well as the rights of others using the roads. He declared that the pedestrians and occupants of vehicles other than automobiles, had rights which must be respected by motorists. He asked for the cooperation of the club in the improvement of the Mount Hood road, and invited the members to attend the opening of the Portland Automobile Club House on the Sandy River June 15.

H. G. Starkweather discussed the proposed bill providing a license annually of $1 for each horsepower. He said the money derived from this source would be a factor in improving the roads and the automobilists would have the satisfaction of knowing they were aiding materially in this good work. Frank B. Riley, Vice-President of the Pacific Highway Association for Oregon, said the work on the thoroughfare was progressing rapidly. Mr. Riley made one of the best addresses of the evening, and his humorous sallies were warmly applauded.

Frank C. Riggs announced that the Rex Sigerville road in Washington County had been improved and would be ready for use Saturday.

Mrs. John R. Risley invited the members of the club to attend an entertainment to be given by the Concord Women's Club at Concord tomorrow evening. The entertainment is to be to the husbands and other members of the families of the members. Addresses also were made by Captain John T. Apperson, C. Schuebel and T. W. Sullivan.

The club by a unanimous vote decided to participate in the Portland Automobile parade during the Rose Festival and in the automobile parade in this city next Saturday.

Committees were appointed as follows: Social runs—W. R. Logus, M. D. Latourette, William Sheahan, Charles Risley and T. W. Sullivan. Good Roads—B. T. McBain, John F. Risley, LeRoy D. Walker, L. W. Robbins, J. W. Roots, H. G. Starkweather and John T. Apperson. Finance—T. W. Sullivan, W. A. Huntley, C. Schuebel and E. J. Daulton. Rose Show—William Sheahan, C. W. Risley, H. S. Moody and W. J. Wilson.

4 BATTLESHIPS ARE RUSHED TO CUBA

WASHINGTON, June 5.—Following a conference between President Taft and Secretary of State Knox, it was decided today to rush four battleships from Key West to Guantanamo. Knox said that the decision was reached first for the purpose of being in better communication with Guantanamo by wireless and second, to have the additional marines near in case they were needed.

Knox said that he did not believe the marines were required as yet. He emphasized the statement that the sending of these battleships did not mean a new step toward intervention in Cuba, but was merely a precautionary measure.

The burden of dispatches from Cuba received by the state department here today is that 450 marines have been landed from the United States transport Prairia at Guantanamo and

OREGON CITY MAN LENT PENDER GUN

JOHN H. RILEY, OF THIS CITY, IS WITNESS AT MURDER TRIAL

BROKEN HAMMER ALSO IN EVIDENCE

State Tries To Show That Defendant Borrowed Revolver To Kill—Lock Pried From Trunk

ST. HELENS, Or., June 5.—Indicating a new and important phase in the state's case against John Arthur Pender, District Attorney Tongue E. B. Tongue today committed the state to show that Pender borrowed, without known reason, the revolver with which he is alleged to have slain Mrs. Daisy Wehrman and her baby boy. Witnesses John Riley and Joe Hasson testified today that Pender asked to use their revolver to shoot a bobcat that was bothering his chickens. He kept the weapon for two or three weeks and then returned it. The prosecutor indicated that the state would try to show that Pender had no need for the revolver, as he himself owned a shotgun.

John H. Riley was the first witness called today. He lives in Oregon City and with Joe Hasson, owns a farm across the road from the Pender tent, in Apple Valley. He and his partner make a practice of spending their week ends at the "ranch."

Riley asserted that he, Hasson and two others went from Portland to Apple valley Saturday, September 2, and returned to Portland Monday, Labor day.

Here a 38 calibre revolver owned by Riley and Hasson was introduced. Riley testified that he had put the revolver in his trunk at about 5 o'clock on Labor day. It was loaded. He could not swear positively to the number of cartridges left in the weapon; however, he thought there were four.

Witness testified that on Labor day he put the revolver in the second tray of the trunk. The trunk was brought into the courtroom and exhibited to the jury. Riley examined the lock when he closed the trunk, after first depositing the weapon therein. He had cleaned the gun, but had not oiled it.

When Riley returned several days later—after the discovery of the murder—he found that the lock had been pried off with a thin instrument and that in the place of the nails that formerly held the lock in place on the trunk, it had been replaced with two screws and one brass head. He immediately notified the sheriff.

"Pender," said Riley, on examination, "knew that I owned the revolver. He had borrowed it and two or three weeks before the murder returned it to me at my request."

Pender, Riley testified, at one time had in his possession a key to the Riley-Hasson cabin. On Labor day Pender visited Riley's cabin. District Attorney Tongue handed the witness a hammer. One claw was broken off.

"Sheriff Thompson and L. L. Levings, investigator for the state," explained the witness, "asked me if I had a hammer in our cabin. I brought him our hammers. 'That is not the one,' they said. 'Go over to Pender's cabin and get one of his hammers—the one with a claw broken off.'"

Riley did so and brought back the hammer now in evidence. The officers fitted it under the trunk lock. He denied he had informed the officers that Pender had such a hammer.

On cross-examination Riley told of Pender's having borrowed his revolver to protect his chickens against a preying bobcat. Pender kept the revolver for two or three weeks, returning it with an extra box of cartridges. Returning from Portland Saturday, September 9, Riley said he and Hasson found that their cabin had been entered since their departure on Labor day. Nothing apparently but the trunk had been disturbed. He found the pistol in the same place, so far as he could remember, that he had put it on Labor day.

Riley noted no clawless hammer lying on the table when he entered. He believed that if the hammer in question had been lying on the stand he would have remembered the circumstance.

Sheriff Thompson, of Columbus county, Sheriff Robert L. Stevens of Multnomah county and Investigator Levings were present when Riley and Hasson returned again to their cabin Saturday, September 17, when Riley was sent to Pender's cabin for the clawless hammer.

NEWSPAPER MAN TO BE BURIED HERE

John T. Abbott, father of Charles M. Abbott, the young newspaper man who died in this city Tuesday, after a short illness wired R. L. Holman Wednesday night to have the body buried in this city. The elder Abbott is Tax Attorney for the Western Union Telegraph Company in New York City. Mr. Abbott wired that he would pay the funeral expenses, and asked that the Master of the Masonic Lodge here be notified of his son's death. "The young man, it was said, had been a Mason but was not in good standing at the time of his death. The elder Abbott is evidently a Mason. Mr. Holman and his partner, T. J. Myers said that the funeral would be held at 10 o'clock Friday morning. The interment will be in Mountain View cemetery."

Charles M. Abbott came to this city about six months ago and has been employed as editor of the Western Stock Journal. He was a graduate of a university and a well equipped newspaper man.

GLADSTONE IGNORES RAILWAY ELECTION

The management of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company announced Wednesday night that the vote of patrons of the line as to whether there should be another stop in Gladstone had not been counted, but would be today. Each passenger between Canemah and the Golf Links was asked to vote upon the proposition Wednesday and hundreds of ballots were cast. The residents of Gladstone, alleging that the system adopted would be unfair to that city, refrained from voting.

TWO ARRESTED FOR SHOOTING IN CITY

Policemen Green and Frost Wednesday night arrested two men, who declined to give their names, for shooting a rifle in the city limits. The men were firing at a target on the Southern Pacific Railway tracks near the station. They declared that they did not know it was against the law to shoot within the city limits. The policemen said that stray bullets might have struck persons on the Seventh Street steps or on the railway tracks.

SUICIDE IS BURIED IN MOUNTAIN VIEW

The funeral services of Louis Lee, who shot himself in the head on Sunday in his cabin near Boring, and who died in the Oregon City Hospital, where he was brought soon after the tragedy, was conducted by Rev. J. R. Landsborough, pastor of the Presbyterian church, Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, and the interment was in the Mountain View cemetery. O. Lee, of White Salmon, Wash., brother of the dead man, arrived in Oregon City Wednesday morning, and arranged for the funeral services.

MISS M'CORD IS WINNER OF AUTO

JOSEPH SHEAHAN, FAR BEHIND, AWARDED SECOND PRIZE, $100 IN GOLD

WILSON THIRD AND BROWN FOURTH

Four Hundred Subscriptions Added To Morning Enterprise Which Enhances Advertising Value

STANDING OF THE LEADERS
Miss Ruby McCord 287,000
Joseph Sheahan 88,200
Kent Wilson 29,800
John Brown 10,000

Miss Ruby McCord wins the automobile. Joseph Sheahan wins the cash prize of $100.

The big automobile contest of the Morning Enterprise came to a close at 7 o'clock Wednesday night, and the judges, E. H. Cooper and C. S. Schram, finished the count in record time. Soon after the count commenced it was apparent that Miss McCord had obtained a lead that could not be overcome. Her hard and faithful work throughout the period covered by the contest won the $785 passenger Ford automobile for her.

This contest has been a notable one in newspaper history. In the start Sheahan jumped into the game and took a lead that startled all of his competitors but Miss McCord was not to be daunted and she worked persistently, covering miles of territory in her effort to secure subscriptions to the Morning and Weekly editions of the Enterprise that meant votes for her. She has always been keen to take advantage of special offers and double-vote days and has left no stone unturned to win.

The Enterprise congratulates Miss McCord. She deserved to win, and is entitled to all the pleasure she can possibly get from her new car.

Four hundred new subscribers have been added to the Morning Enterprise list as the result of this contest. The weekly edition has also benefited to the extent of several hundred, giving both editions a wider circulation in every section of Clackamas County and making this newspaper of enhanced value to the advertising field.

HARRY WILLIAMSON HONORED BY RED MEN

The Improved Order of the Red Men met in Knapp's hall Tuesday evening and elected officers to serve for the ensuing year, as follows: Harry Williamson, Sachem; William Ball, senior sagamore; Jesse Tidd, junior sagamore; Joseph Munch, prophet; J. CHILDREN'S PARADE TO BE SHOW FEATURE

One of the prettiest and most unique features of the Rose Festival next Saturday will be the Children's Parade, which will start at 11 o'clock in the morning. The pageant, which will start at the Hawley Mill, will be headed by the Girls' Oak Grove band, and will be reviewed at the judges' stand, Seventh and Main streets. Manager Freytag of the Promotion Department, said Wednesday that the parade of the children this year would be at superior to that of last. Decorated go-carts, baby buggies, tricycles, toys, etc., will be among the little floats in the parade. Many children in various parts of the county, as well as scores in this city, have been entered, and it is believed that the "little parade" will be the biggest thing in a way of the big festival.
