EVIDENCE AGAINST ROBERTS IS STRONG

PORTLAND, June 12. (Special.)—That H. E. Roberts has admitted to certain persons he killed Donald Stewart on the Whitehouse road on the evening of March 29 was the statement this morning of Deputy District Attorney Fitzgerald in his opening statement to the jury.

Another bit of strong circumstantial evidence brought to light by Fitzgerald in his statement was the recital of how Sheriff Stevens and his deputies found a piece of leather from the back of a pair of suspenders. The piece exactly fits the suspenders found on Roberts when he was arrested, it is contended. This leather was found in the abandoned house near the scene of the crime, known as the "Old Jonathan Tice" house. Link after link of circumstantial evidence was related. The attorney closely connected Roberts with the crime also by the peculiar pump gun, gun wads and buckshot. He said that gun wads found on the ground at the scene of the crime compare exactly with wads found on Roberts when arrested. Buckshot taken from the bodies of the victims also correspond to buckshot found on Roberts, it is said.

The state also will show, said the district attorney, that the crime was committed on a bright moonlight night, that the auto lights added further light thereby, allowing the men in the machine to get a good impression of the man who did the shooting. H. L. Taft, one of the students in the auto remaining to tell the story, will testify that he positively recognizes Roberts as the man who did the shooting. He testified to this before the coroner's inquest, saying that the moonlight and auto lights made it sufficiently light to easily discern the face of the man and that man is Roberts.

Evidence shows the students saw a man standing in the road fully 100 feet before they passed him. As they passed the gun was leveled upon them, and they were commanded to stop. One of the students said: "Is this a joke?" meaning the holdup. The man replied: "This is no joke, it's a holdup." Following this statement, the three shots were fired, two of which took effect in the heads of Donald Stewart and George Hastings.

The defense stated positively this morning that it will rely upon the plea of insanity. This question came up when Attorney Fred Whitfield asked the court to be allowed to make the opening statement for Roberts after the state rests its case. To this request the state objected. It was finally agreed that the defense should state its theory, and make known the details of the insanity plea later.

The mother, Mrs. Mary E. Pfeifer, and stepfather of Roberts arrived this morning. Judge Morrow stated he would send to jail anyone found tampering with the jury. It will not be locked up.

OREGON GIRLS CALL NEW YORK "UGLY"

NEW YORK, June 13.—Nine Oregon girls who reached New York yesterday from Portland, Or., after having motored about the city a few hours, declared that, so far as they could see, New York is devoid of beauty. They are farmer's daughters who earned the trip by getting subscriptions for a newspaper.

After two days in New York they go to Washington to meet the President, and finally to Chicago for the Republican convention. "Eastern women," said Mrs. E. A. Hartsborn, a newspaper woman, who is chaperone of the party, "are made up too much to look pretty. Even the young girls look blasé."
