

NATIVES SAY LOSS OF LIFE IS GREAT

TERRIFIED THOUSANDS, FLEEING VOLCANO, FLOCK TO CANNERY CENTERS

REPORT IS THOUGHT EXAGGERATED

Fate Of Residents Of Villages In Real Danger Zone Is Unknown—Lava Flows Down Mountain

NAKNEK, Bristol Bay, Alaska, June 14, via Wireless to Cordova.—Natives are flocking from the interior to the large cannery centers on the Bristol Bay side of the Alaska Peninsula, bringing reports that many of their tribesmen perished in the mountains during the eruption of Katmai volcano last week.

These reports are not given too much credence here, however, as the natives are greatly excited and are so terrified that they cannot give an intelligible account of their experiences during the eruption.

The natives, who are accompanied by their entire families and are bringing as much of their belongings as they can carry in their canoes, declare that the Bristol Bay coastline is covered with from three to six inches of volcanic ash and sand. Bristol Bay is on the windward side of the volcano and the natives said that during the eruption they could see red streams of lava flowing down the west slope of the mountain.

Three inches of ash fell in Naknek village and no attempt has been made to operate the canneries since the eruption to allow the water to free itself of the volcanic material.

No word has been received here from the villages on the Shelikof Strait side of the peninsula which was the real danger zone and the fate of the people there is still a matter of conjecture.

CONVENTION RIOTS FEARED IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, June 14.—Declaring that "disquieting rumors" of an organized attempt to disrupt the proceedings of the convention have reached them, officials of the National committee who have the arrangements at the Coliseum in charge, today appealed in person to Mayor Harrison for sufficient police protection to prevent riots.

The delegation, which was headed by Harry E. New, chairman of the committee on arrangements, told the Mayor that its members believed the rumors true and that they had information that already a "mob" was being formed to descend upon the convention, break in the doors and force an adjournment.

Members of the delegation also told the Mayor that they have information that another attempt is being made to "pack" the convention with men paid to "start something" at a given signal.

After the situation had been explained the Mayor assured the delegation that sufficient police will be on hand to prevent any sort of disorder.

COLONEL TO LEAD FIGHT IN CHICAGO

FACE FLUSHED AND EYES SPARKLING ROOSEVELT LEAVES FOR CONVENTION

FRIENDS WIRE HIM HE IS NEEDED

Candidate Declares That He Is Working For Principle And In Interest Of American Voters

NEW YORK, June 14.—Theodore Roosevelt, in person, will lead his fight for the Republican presidential nomination in Chicago.

This was made certain here today when the colonel left for Chicago at 5:30 o'clock this afternoon.

Roosevelt, coming into the corridor of the Outlook office today, after talking over the long distance telephone with his lieutenants in Chicago, announced to the newspaper men:

"Gentlemen, gentlemen, I am going to Chicago on the 5:30 o'clock train this evening, I think, over the Lake Shore line."

The colonel's face was flushed, apparently with excitement, and his eyes flashed as though he had just received exciting news from Chicago. Then he went into his office and dictated a statement for the press.

Roosevelt's statement said that many persons had urged him to go to Chicago and that he had received "countless telegrams from delegates."

"Telegrams from delegates say the action in the California, Arizona, Indiana and Kentucky contests is such as to make the issue clear cut as to whether the people have a right to make their own nomination or whether a small knot of professional politicians shall be permitted to steal that right; and they demand that I come on, not as a candidate, but because for the time being I stand as representing principles for which the rank and file of the Republican party have overwhelmingly declared in the states where they have had an opportunity to express wishes at the primaries.

"The states where the rank and file of the party declared for the principles I represent include those which cast about two thirds of the electoral vote that has been cast at the last two presidential elections for the Republican candidate, and in these primary states President Taft has only obtained between one seventh and one eighth of the delegates.

"The delegates who thus represent the people themselves feel that the people have declared themselves beyond the possibility of misrepresentation and they are not in a mood to see their victory stolen."

Roosevelt for several days has been importuned to hurry to Chicago his closest friends advising that his candidacy was being hurt by friction which prevailed among certain of his leaders. Too many different plans they pointed out, were being advanced and it was said that his hand only could straighten out affairs.

BURNS' SUIT TO BE DECIDED WEDNESDAY

Judge Eakin Friday notified J. E. Hedges, attorney for the city council in the case of Charles E. Burns, who is seeking to collect salary as chief of police that he would render a decision next Wednesday morning.

Burns was appointed chief by Mayor Dimick, but eight members of the council refused to confirm the appointment, declaring that they favored the retention of E. L. Shaw as chief. If the decision is favorable to Burns it will be equivalent to one declaring him chief. After working four months without receiving salary he decided to discontinue work until the decision was rendered.

CLARK MEN OPPOSE TWO-THIRDS RULE

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 14.—Senator Stone declared today that friends of Speaker Clark will support a resolution before the Democratic National convention abolishing the two-thirds rule and providing that whenever any candidate receives a majority of the votes cast he shall be declared the party nominee.

Senator Stone said the two-thirds rule is not looked upon with favor by Democracy and that an effort will be made to get other Democratic Presidential possibilities to ask its abolition in the convention.

"The consensus of Democratic opinion is, and has been for years," he said, "that the two-thirds rule, so called, is absolutely without reason or justification on any basis that ought to underlie the procedure of Americans in dealing with great public questions. I do not hesitate to say that nine-tenths and more of the country do not believe in this so-called two-thirds rule."

DAZZLING PARADE AWES BIG CROWD

MORE THAN 300,000 SEE PORTLAND'S MOST ELABORATE ELECTRICAL PAGEANT

GREAT ROSE BATTLE IS THRILLING

Women And Children Furnish Ammunition And Take Leading Part In Flower Encounter

Portland, June 14, (Special).—The electrical parade tonight was the most gorgeous ever given in this city. Words are not adequate to describe the brilliant pageant which for hours transformed what are usually busy bustling streets into fairy-like lanes. There were more floats than ever before and the wizardry of electrical magnificence probably was never more apparent. Fully 300,000 persons thronged the streets to witness the dazzling procession.

Again the Peninsula district maintained its enviable record of furnishing Rose Festival visitors the most thrilling and inspiring picture of the week's program to date. The annual "show" of roses throughout miles of the business streets and the petal blizzard in front of the postoffice grandstand this morning was by universal assent the most fascinating spectacle of the carnival season.

"Simply amazing" shouted gleeful participants in the novel battle.

"Never saw anything like it in my life," exclaimed a jovial old chap as he heaved a big handful of rose blossoms at the Ockley Green girls in their flower-laden car.

"Where did you get all the roses?" "And the girls," yelled a couple of other battlers as the six-car train halted to give hand-to-hand conflict on Washington street.

From every window and fire escape platform and from the roof, besides laughing girls directed their well-aimed fire at the passing army of celestials. The air was completely filled with shimmering ammunition of red and pink and white and the exquisite rose perfume was wafted abroad as the "blizzard" fell. It was in fact more of an avalanche or catarrh, for the program had been so timed and arranged that the rose streams from the roof and upper floors were added to those from the lower strata, until the whole side of the street was one mass of gorgeous beauty.

The sidewalks were ankle deep in flowers and petals, the street from curb to curb was a velvety carpet of many hues.

And what a pathetic touch it was to see hundreds of grown men and women visitors in the city who had never witnessed a demonstration of this kind and who didn't know what roses were till they came to Portland, rush out into the skirling crowds and gather up the fallen blooms into huge bouquets and hug the pretty flowers to their bosoms in triumph.

"It seems a shame to waste all

Eugene N. Foss, Governor of Massachusetts.

John Lindsay was born in England forty-two years ago and came to the Pacific Coast in 1877. He is survived by his parents. The funeral will be held at the Crematorium at Sellwood at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

ANGRY OWNERS FREE HORSES FROM POUND

The authorities of Gladstone are having a difficult time enforcing the stock ordinance recently passed by the city council. The ordinance provides that only milk cows shall be allowed to run loose on the streets, and that they must be taken up at night. Horses, chickens, ducks, goats, etc., are excluded running loose. Several citizens who assert that they have a right to turn their horses out to graze despite the ordinance were indignant Sunday when they found that their animals had been placed in the pound. Two of them learning that the poundmaster, J. W. Bell, was out of the city, tore down a part of the fence to the enclosure and released the horses. It is said that the names of the men are known and they probably will be prosecuted.

'LL WIN ON FIRST BALLOT', SAYS TAFT

ELKS PAY HOMAGE TO COUNTRY'S FLAG

MORE THAN 100 MEMBERS OF OREGON CITY LODGE ATTEND EXERCISES

HEDGES AND STONE ARE SPEAKERS

Impressive Ceremony Held On Veranda Of New Home Which Will Soon Be Ready For Use

More than 100 members of Oregon City Lodge No. 1189, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, stood with uncovered heads before their new home Friday night and watched the Stars and Stripes rise above the building. The occasion was a solemn one, and at the same time a joyous one, paradoxical as it may seem.

Flag Day was observed by hundreds of thousands of Elks in the United States Friday, but nowhere was more interest taken than in Oregon City, where the Antlered Herd paid tribute to the emblem of their country in a manner befitting it. With every head bowed during the prayer, there was a secret exultation over the fact that the fine building soon to be occupied as an Elks home is near completion and for the first time the members were facing a place that they could truly call "home."

Members of the Lodge marched from the lodge room to the new home and the exercises were conducted by William R. Logus, Esquire of No. 1189. Rev. C. W. Robinson, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church, delivered a patriotic invocation and Exalted Ruler Henry O'Malley delivered a brief address that was full of noble thoughts. He was followed by William M. Stone, whose address was "The Elks Tribute to the Flag." Mr. Stone made a fine address, reviewing the symbols of nations from ancient days to the present time. Patriotism was his keynote and he was warmly applauded.

Two patriotic songs by Mr. Long were well received and then Gilbert L. Hedges made an address on "History of Our Flag." Mr. Hedges was in fine voice and his oration was a masterpiece. He was frequently interrupted by applause, and he aroused the patriotic fervor in the hearts of his brother Elks who cheered him to the echo.

G. R. H. Miller recited a poem that was cordially received and then the staff, Mrs. Leon Des Larzes, Oregon City's sweet singer, rendered "Star Spangled Banner," and three cheers were given by the Lodge members for the flag of the nation.

The occasion was unique in Oregon City Elksdom, and at its close the members returned to the lodge room where the regular session took place. Emory J. Noble was elected secretary of Oregon City Lodge at Friday night's meeting.

SHASTA LIMITED KILLS AGED WOMAN

MRS. MARY SHEPHERD IS HURLED TO DEATH NEAR PULP SIDING

BEAM OF LOCOMOTIVE STRIKES HER

Husband, Seventy-four Years Of Age, Almost Prostrated By Shock—Coroner To Hold Inquest Today

Mrs. Mary Shepherd, wife of John Shepherd employed by the Willamette Pulp & Paper Company, was instantly killed by the Shasta Limited Friday afternoon about 100 yards this side of Pulp Siding where she lived. Mrs. Shepherd was coming to this city to see a friend depart for Canada. She was walking just outside of the track on the ties, having an umbrella over her, when she was struck by the train. A beam on the front of the locomotive struck her in the back of the head and she was hurled forty-six feet.

F. L. Kenny, engineer, brought the train to a stop as soon as possible and he and the fireman went to the woman's assistance. She was dead, however, her skull having been crushed. The body was taken to her home and her husband was summoned. He is seventy-four years of age, and is almost prostrated over the accident. Coroner Wilson brought the body to this city and will hold an inquest at the Holman Undertaking Establishment at 10 o'clock this morning. The funeral probably will be held Sunday.

Engineer Kenny and M. A. Richardson, fireman of the train, told Coroner Wilson that they saw Mrs. Shepherd walking at the side of the track when the train was within several hundred yards of her. She was then far enough from the track to be out of danger. Suddenly as the train reached her she swerved into the rail. It is thought that the rain and the umbrella kept her from hearing the noise made by the flyer.

Mr. and Mrs. Shepherd moved to Pulp Siding from Canby about a year ago. The Willamette Pulp & Paper Company has a crew of men working there and the aged man was employed as water carrier. They have a son who lives in Willamette.

The train which killed the aged woman was due in Portland at 2:30 o'clock. The engineer and fireman will attend the inquest.

It being Fraternal Brotherhood Day in Portland at the Rose Show there was a large attendance. The early part of the evening was devoted to drills by the teams, which were followed by dancing until a late hour. It was through the efforts of Mrs. Clara Wheeler of Seattle, who is assistant deputy of the Fraternal Brotherhood that the Oregon City lodge was awarded the second prize. Twenty applicants were inflated. The membership of the order has been growing rapidly in Oregon City, and the members are highly elated over winning the prize.

A small classified ad will rent that vacant room.
