Taffeta Gown.

A pretty fancy in the way of taffeta gowns appears here. These always ready frocks of taffeta are so sensible and yet so pretty there is small wonder at their popularity. On the frock under consideration plain and striped taffeta have been strikingly combined. The bodice is cut from the plain while the collar effect is fashioned from the striped silk cut on the straight and this is edged with bias bandings of the stripe. These latter trim the edges of the bodice fronts, the cuffs, and the border the tunic. The tunic is of the plain taffeta, the underskirt of the striped silk.

Mount Pleasant to Have School Meeting

The voters of the Mount Pleasant School District will hold the annual meeting and election next Monday evening. The meeting will be called to order at 8 o'clock in the schoolhouse. A successor to J. M. Warnock, one of the directors, and a clerk will be elected. It is probable that Mr. Warnock will be named again, and it is believed Ward B. Lawton will be reelected clerk. The other directors are P. C. Thomas and A. C. Warner. Other matters of importance will be given attention at the meeting.

Cantillon's Eccentrics

Former Senator Leader Has a Bunch of "Bugs." The average man in charge of a ball team tries to steer clear of eccentric ball players, but there is one exception to this rule, Joe Cantillon. It is questionable if there was ever a team which numbered among its members as many individuals who, in the parlance of the game, are called "bugs," as are to be found on Cantillon's Minneapolis team this season. Waddell, Altizer and Ferris are but three of his players who are, to say the least, peculiar, but there are others, including Rossman, once a star with the Tigers. Cantillon seems to delight in gathering about him this class of players and, peculiarly enough, he seems to have made up another winning combination in this way.

Zinn a Natural Hitter

Gregg's Delivery Like Waddell's

In Manager Davis' opinion, south-paw pitcher Gregg's delivery is an exact duplicate of Waddell at his best.

Caught in Same Forest

A Venetian, being asked by a German where his countrymen got their loo with wings, replied: "We caught him in the same forest where you found your two bearded eagle."—Kansas City Star. If you saw it in the Enterprise it's so.

Dazzling Parade Awes Big Crowd

(Continued from page 1) these flowers, mused a fashionably attired woman visitor. "Why, look at these! They can't be bought for any price where I came from," and she held aloft a bunch of Druschkis that some woman had given her out of a basket that was filled with roses to be thrown away. Long before the big train reached the reviewing stand at the postoffice where the battle was to take place, several hundred women and children each laden with a basket, a package or box of roses, had taken seats in the stand and were ready for the attack. And they made lusty use of their throwing arms as the pageant approached, halted and passed on. Mr. Fritzle Kamath was a success-
