

UNIVERSITY PROGRAM WILL BEGIN TODAY

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Or., June 15.—With the thirty-seventh Annual Commencement program of the University of Oregon, headed by the baccalaureate sermon by Rev. Adolph A. DOG CATCHER TO BE BUSY THIS WEEK

DOG CATCHER TO BE BUSY THIS WEEK. E. L. Shaw announced Saturday that the dog catcher would be busier this week than last. There are six dogs in the pound and before the week is over there will be at least twenty. One of the animals is a fine hound, which would be of service on a farm. The license is $1 for male dogs and $3 for female dogs. Persons desiring good dogs may obtain them by applying at the pound and paying $1 if they desire to take the dogs to the country and $2 for male dogs if they desire to keep them in the city. The charge for female dogs obtained at the pound and kept in the city will be $4. It is economy to obtain a license for there is an additional charge of $1 to recover a dog that has been impounded.

Heart to Heart Talks.

By EDWIN A. NYE.

IN OUR IGNORANCE.

Said a woman of my acquaintance: "Last year my husband was ill, and now my daughter is threatened with tuberculosis. Living expenses are high, and my husband's salary is only $1,000 a year. Why should we be put into the world to suffer like this? Life is really not worth the living sometimes."

This woman lived in her own house and had never lacked for the necessities of life.

Now—The problem of suffering, like that of sin, is an old one, but to think one is luckless beyond others is wrong. One has only to look about him to find many of his fellows worse off.

Privation? Suffering? Why, this woman had never lived in a ramshackle tenement up rickety stairs. Her husband never had come home from the corner saloon with empty pocketbook and loaded with liquor to drive her with curses to the street.

Deprivation? This complaining woman did not live in a two room and closet apartment, where you buy coal by the scuttiful, bread by the half loaf and ice by the pound delivery.

Poverty? She had never haunted the butcher shops late on Saturday night, when the very poor do their pitiful shopping, to buy for almost nothing the remnant that will not keep until Monday—to purchase for a penny or two a soup bone or a neck of mutton.

No. She did not know. She did not know that to find a quarter of a dollar for the slot of the gas meter may become a financial problem and that the monthly rent day may become a real tragedy.

No. She never had heard her children cry of cold in the winter nor moan of thirst in the summer time. She never had partly to starve a living child to pay the funeral expenses of a dead one.

Now— I make no doubt my complainant scarcely would believe that thousands live the life I have hinted at, because "one half the world does not know how the other half lives."

That's the point—we complain out of ignorance. We, all of us, are like the woman. We have our troubles and visitations, but it is only necessary that we should go along the street with wide open eyes to find dozens of people whose condition is infinitely worse than ours.

PITCHERS' BATTLE WON BY OAKLAND

PORTLAND, June 15, (Special).—Oakland, with Durbin in the box, won a close game from the Beavers today. Koestner allowed only 5 hits and pitched in fine form throughout. Oakland made one in the fifth, one in the sixth and one in the ninth. The Beavers scored in the fourth and sixth.

The results Saturday follow: Yesterday's Results At Portland—Oakland 3, Portland 2. At San Francisco—Los Angeles 6, San Francisco 4. At Los Angeles—Sacramento 2, Vernon 0.

National League Pittsburg 5, New York 4. Brooklyn 5, St. Louis 4. Cincinnati 6, Boston 3.

American League Washington 6, Cleveland 5. Boston 4, Chicago 3. St. Louis 2, New York 1. Philadelphia 6, Detroit 1.

DIMICK ESTATE IS VALUED AT $15,000

The estate of John R. Dimick, brother of Grant B. Dimick, who was burned to death recently on his ranch near Meridian, was admitted to probate Saturday. W. A. Dimick was named administrator. The estate is valued at $15,000. Other estates filed for probate were, Sarah Matthews, Clarence William Matthews administrator, value $900; Louis Lee, William A. Morand administrator, value $280; Joseph J. Lammers, George Lammers administrator, value $2,000 and Bert Jonsrud, A. C. Thomas administrator, value $3,500.

The Derrick. A Derrick is an innocent mechanical apparatus for lifting heavy weights, but it gets its name from an English hangman called Derrick, who flourished many years ago. The people of that time thought that the device used only in the hangman's trade resembled the more common mechanism which now bears his surname.

A marked feature. Andrew Carnegie, praising thrift at a dinner in Washington, described with contempt that type of youth who on a small salary rides in taxicabs, sends young women American Beauty roses and wears London clothes. "There is only one redeeming feature about such a youth," said the ironmaster, "and that is his pawn tickets."

TEXAS DELEGATES ARE GIVEN TO PRESIDENT

CHICAGO, June 15.—"Don't do that for God's sake. Remember next November."

This was the plea of Committeeman Capers, of South Carolina, to the Republican national committee, when, after refusing a roll call, they seated Taft delegates in the Fourth Texas district in a contest where both the Roosevelt and Taft delegates claimed regularity.

On a viva voce vote the committee seated Taft delegates from the Fifth and Seventh Texas districts.

The committee also seated the Taft delegates from the Eighth Texas district.

The Taft delegates in the Tenth Texas district also were seated by the committee.

Previous to this the national committee today had seated the eight Taft delegates-at-large from Texas, Taft delegates from the First and Second districts, from Roosevelt men from the Third district only.

During the hearing of the contest over the Texas delegates at large, Bryan, who argued the case for the Taft men, admitted that the Roosevelt organization in Texas was regular and legal. The evidence showed that the Roosevelt faction overwhelmingly controlled that convention.

The Taft committeemen, however, argued that the Texas laws were wrong in permitting counties with only a few Republicans to have equal representation with the large Republican counties. Committeeman Lyon speaking for the Roosevelt men, said:

"If you reject the Roosevelt delegates at large there will be no Republican electors from Texas this year. The Texas secretary of state recognized the legality of our electors and they are all Roosevelt men."

The Taft members of the committee conferred last night and decided to give Taft 20 of the contested seats from Virginia; 14 from Washington and two each from the District of Columbia and North Carolina.

The Taft committeemen overrode the Roosevelt members early today and postponed the hearing of the Texas contests, taking up instead the contests from Virginia. The Roosevelt claimants of both Virginia and Washington failed to appear, however and the committee then voted to consider Texas immediately.

F. C. Bryan, representing the Taftites, asked the committee to go behind the state convention and seat the Taft delegates, declaring that the convention did not represent the rank and file of Texas Republicans.

The Roosevelt attorneys denounced the Taft Texas convention as illegal. Committeeman Lyon called McDonald a renegade and a bolter.

Delegate McDowell, a Taft delegate at large, admitted that he was a candidate at the Democratic primary two years ago.

Congressman William B. McKinley, director of the national Taft bureau, issued this afternoon the following statement:

"The coming of Roosevelt is a gala event in the rank and file of the Roosevelt men, but it does not change a single vote in the convention. The body already is fireproof. It cannot be stampeded and nothing which will occur within the next few days will disturb the situation. The outcome of the convention, so far as the nomination and platform are concerned, is certain."

Most of the members of the New York delegation arrived today, the Taft members conferring with William H. Barnes Jr., chairman of the New York state Republican state committee.

A Missouri editor recently paralyzed the community in which he lives with the following funeral notice of a prominent citizen: "The pall-bearers lowered the body into the grave, and as it was consigned to flames, there were few if any regrets, for the old wreck had been an eyesore of the town for many years. Of course, there were individual losses, but this was fully covered by good insurance." —Engraver and Printer.

AUTO DRIVER BLAMED FOR ROSE BLUNDER

A few days ago roses were solicited in this city by some of the members of Battery A of Portland for the purpose of decorating the horses and cannon for the floral parade in that city Thursday afternoon. Flowers plucked for the soldier boys were not called for but this was not the fault of the soldiers, and they feel as though an apology is necessary. An automobile was to have been sent to this city Wednesday afternoon to take the blossoms to Portland. Machines were in great demand, but finally one was obtained. The driver, however, upon reaching Milwaukee decided he could do better business by remaining in Portland, and returned to the rose city. The men who ordered the roses did not know the roses had not been obtained until the work of decorating was started. So they carried what roses they could in boxes to Portland. There was a scarcity of roses, and the Rose Society of Portland came to the young men's rescue and donated blossoms.

CAMPMEETING BEGINS AT DIX BROS. GROVE

The annual conference and camp-meeting of the Willamette Wesleyan Methodist Church was convened at Dix Bros. Grove Friday and will continue ten days. Many tents have been pitched, and others who wish them should apply to J. S. Mowry. Services are held at 10 o'clock in the morning, 2 o'clock in the afternoon and 8 o'clock in the evening. The committee on arrangements, composed of G. C. Wicker, W. E. Carrington and J. S. Mowry, invites all to attend. The bulletin announcing the object of the meeting is as follows: "Salvation of Sinners, sanctifying of believers and to spread the scriptural holiness."

Ostrich Eggs. Contrary to general belief, ostrich eggs are palatable. Usually they are served as an omelet.

BIG TREE IN CITY IS STRUCK BY LIGHTNING

During the thunder storm in this city Friday afternoon a large tree in a small grove near the head of Fifth street was struck by lightning. Several of the residents of that section were momentarily blinded by the flash, which was unusually bright. The bolt struck the top of the tree, taking part of the bark off almost to the roots the trunk being splintered.

WORK TO BE RESUMED ON CLACKAMAS R. R.

Archie Mason, a Portland contractor who has the contract to build the grade and bridges on the unfinished part of the line between Oregon City and Molalla for the Clackamas Southern Railway has camps established in several places along the line and will start work Monday morning with a large crew of men. Several cordwood dealers were in Oregon City the latter part of the week getting information as to the probable time the road will be able to begin hauling wood from the Beaver Creek and neighboring territory.

The wood question in Portland during the winter is an important factor as the principal supply near Portland has been exhausted by the denuding of the forest, and wood dealers are compelled to look to new fields for supply. The proposed road from Canby has put new spirit in the stockholders of the Oregon City line, and they must complete the line in order to protect their own interests and that of Oregon City.

Engineer Abbott of Portland, who surveyed the Tillamook line said a few days ago "I consider the Clackamas Southern safe railroad project, and it can be put into operation by Clackamas County people themselves."

Good work was accomplished last year in construction work and this year promises the completion of a large part of the line, and that alone should be encouraging to every public spirited citizen who wants to see Oregon City and the country tributary to the line grow and prosper.

and his vocation surely does not keep him very busy since he finds so much time to roam over the whole county telling others how very, very good he himself is, and how despicable his opponents are. This I could not do. I have neither time nor money nor "brass" enough to attack and slander those who have always been friendly and kind to me. Neither can I understand how a person can afford to spend hundreds of dollars for the small recompensation he can honestly get if elected to the legislature.

Mr. Schuebel tries to make his audience believe that the "interests" or certain parties have "bought" me. Be not deceived! Not I but he has been bought, if signs fall not, and because he is used to being bought and being sold, as everybody knows, he made an effort to buy me in my own house. This happened March 31, 1912.

If I am elected, I shall be pleased, and I shall always remember my friends in thankfulness. If I am not elected I shall harbor no bitter thoughts against anyone in my heart. I never was a politician, desire to be none, and never shall be one. If elected, I shall seek to promote the general welfare, as have promised in a business way and without aspect of person.

The legal voters must decide whether they want honorable, experienced and successful men chosen from their ranks, as their representatives, or whether they want politicians and demagogues who seek only their own honor and welfare, who trample on the rights and honor of their fellowmen and who are the cause that our political life is as corrupt as it is.

I declare and prove by my daily life that all attacks, which Mr. Schuebel is making on me, are malicious lies, manufactured by himself and sown broadcast, contrary to his own better knowledge.

and fight valiantly for the just rights and interests of the laborer. Look up his past record and if elected watch his work and look for results in the legislature.

GUST. SCHOENRR. (Paid Adv.)

That certain parts of said article so written, signed and published, to-wit:

"Neither can I understand how a person (meaning plaintiff) can afford to spend hundreds of dollars for the small recompensation he can honestly get if elected to the legislature."

"Mr. Schuebel (meaning plaintiff) tries to make his audience believe that the 'interests' of certain parties have 'bought' me. Be not deceived! Not I but he has been bought, if signs fall not, and because he is used to being bought and being sold, as everybody knows, he made an effort to buy me in my own house. This happened March 31, 1912."

"Whether they want politicians and demagogues (meaning plaintiff) who seek only their own honor and welfare, who trample on the rights and honor of their fellowmen and who are the cause that our political life is as corrupt as it is," were false and defamatory in that the same imputed to this plaintiff dishonest motives and charged this plaintiff with being guilty of dishonest and corrupt practices as an attorney at law and also as an aspirant for political honors and election to the office which he is seeking, and directly charged plaintiff with being guilty of the commission of crime.

That said accusations, imputations, and charges were by the defendant unlawfully and maliciously intended and calculated to injure and defame, and the said publication thereof did injure and defame the good name and reputation of the plaintiff in the city of Oregon City and throughout the County of Clackamas and generally throughout the State of Oregon, to the plaintiff's damage in the sum of $10,000.

Wherefore, plaintiff demands judgment against the said defendant for the sum of $10,000 and for his costs and disbursements herein.
