OUR LEGISLATURE

Since the initiative and referendum passed and our people are rated as capable law makers the majority to rule, our Legislature is a sort of second handed affair or an organization under the rule of thumb methods. If after forty days and forty nights of reign and a flood of laws are handed down for the public to obey, some of us think that we don't like the way the Legislature treated us we sit down and draw up a referendum petition, secure the necessary number of signatures and then pass it up to the voter to say "I don't like it either."

What is the use of the Legislature if we are to undo their work? If we cannot do away with one method of law making in its entirety, why tie its hands and feet and allow it to die in agony? The Legislature is a necessity, and the best men in the various communities should be encouraged to give their time and minds to the important work demanded of that body. But, as long as we hinder them in their work, it will be a difficult matter to get the best men into the game. Meantime, we continue to bring up and pass matters through two sources to the detriment of the state at large.

THE ELKS ARE COMING. Rose Shows are now past history. Booster and Bargain Days are paying investments and now we look forward to the big time during the Elks' convention. If Oregon City gets 10,000 visitors during that week, what will we do with them? We are generally good providers—help the committee in its work.

JOYOUS JOY RIDING. A thought for consideration at the next meeting of the Automobile Club. There is an Orphanage at Oswego—100 or more girls, who have never had an automobile ride. Why not, go with 40 machines and take them all for a "joy ride" for such it most certainly would be—then why not repeat the performance by taking the babies from the baby home at Parkplace? What better work could be done?

Japanese Pottery. Everybody who knows anything at all about Japanese pottery knows that there is such a thing as Satsuma ware. Beyond the fact that it is yellowish in tone and always cracked, knowledge in most cases does not go, however. The name of the pottery is taken from the clay which comes from the province of Satsuma and is the only clay in Japan, possibly in the world, which will stand the number of firings necessary in the elaborate decorations of which it is the subject.

Heart to Heart Talks.

By EDWIN A. NYE.

OUT OF THE WAY.

It is 8:30 a. m. The street cars are lined up for a block. The clerks had come down earlier. These cars are filled with the bosses, heads of departments, professional men. Restless and fuming, a broker cries out: "What's the matter ahead?" "Coal wagon down." "A coal wagon! Can't the company keep these people off the track? Must a man miss an important engagement because of these drivers?" The coal hauler, in order to relieve his rather weak team, had turned into the car tracks. Warned by the clanging bell he started off. The strain broke an axle and the wheel smashed down. Traffic was delayed ten minutes.

That was all, except that the driver would lose two days' work and $5. A bagatelle? Let's see. The loss to the company, incorporated at $5,000,000, is a few nickels. But the driver's loss? Capitalize his entire outfit at $150. Wagon, horses and harness are old. How much has he lost? One thirtieth of his capital.

A railroad company capitalized at $150,000,000 has a disastrous wreck—loss $100,000. The insurers make much of it. Well, the company loses one fifteen hundredth of its capital. The railroad company may cut a small fraction of the dividends at the end of the year or make up the loss in some other way, but the coal hauler must make up for the loss of the one thirtieth part of his capital stock by pinching economy.

The wreck of the wagon is to the family a real calamity. It means dinners without meat. It may mean a failure to pay the rent. And in the end some bloodsucker may get a mortgage on team and wagon. Little John's coat is getting too worn and patched for school. His sister must needs a pair of new shoes. Her old shawl is good enough for "her," but father suffers in the bleak winds because his underclothing has grown thin.

Aye, drag the old trap off the track! We must get down to business. And, alas for Christian charity under the sun, no one of those prosperous people who passed the sooty faced driver as he stood by the side of his battered wreck had perhaps a glimmer of thought or pity for his tremulous loss.

We must get down to business. Out of the way!

Annual Reports of Directors and Clerk of School District No. 62, Clackamas County, Oregon. Oregon City, Or., June 17, 1912. To the Taxpayers and Patrons of School District No. 62, Clackamas County, Oregon:

We respectfully submit for your consideration the following report of matters in connection with the business of the district transacted during the fiscal year just ended. We are closing the year without a floating debt, with cash balance on hand of $1,777, exclusive of our sinking fund of $7800.00, which we are required by law to maintain for the purpose of repayment of bonds as they become due.

Last September, for the first time in the history of Oregon City, a High School building was thrown open, and the attendance during the first year has been extremely gratifying, taxing the capacity of the building. The High School course maintained in Oregon City is as good as anywhere in the entire state and the Board joins with the people of the community in a pardonable pride in their fine high school building and equipment.

There was also established last September courses in Manual Training and in Domestic Science and Art, under competent instructors. These courses immediately became very popular and have been well attended, and all patrons of the schools of this city should visit the High School and note the work done there.

It is the intention of the Board of Directors to place the grounds surrounding the various school buildings in better condition during the ensuing year. The income of the District has kept pace with the increased expenditures, so that the taxpayers were not required to increase the special tax levy last December. This has been due to the increased valuation of property in the District and the increased number of children of school age, upon which our receipts from the county and state funds are based. Last November, when the annual enumeration of pupils was made, there were 1500 children of school age in the District.

The financial condition of the District and the receipts and disbursements for the fiscal year are shown by the annual report of the district clerk, which is hereto appended.

Respectfully submitted, GEO. A. HARDING, W. A. HUNTLEY, O. D. EBY, A. L. BEATTIE, J. E. HEDGES, Board of Directors of School District No. 62, Clackamas County, Ore. To the Honorable, the Board of Directors and the legal taxpayers of School District No. 62, Clackamas County, Oregon.

Bland Acres

IDEAL ORCHARD, GARDEN AND POULTRY TRACTS. Bland Acres is situated just west from Oregon City, near the Willamette River and on Electric Car Line. The soil is of the Red Shot Free nature, loose enough to work easy, yet containing enough percentage of clay to give it a good moisture retaining capacity. The property has a good elevation, overlooking the Tualatin and Willamette Valleys and slopes well making tiling unnecessary. We have had this soil examined by an expert and he reports it IDEAL for apples, Prunes, Cherries, Grape, Berries and Vegetables. We are offering this land at $140 per acre and up, in tracts of 5 or more acres and practically your own terms. Here is your opportunity to get a beautiful, slightly Country home and land that will raise anything. Write or come in and see us about it. THE OREGON IRON & STEEL CO. One of the First Duties of School In Training of Children

Teach Them to Be Kind, Regular and to Have a Regard For Others

By Dr. MARTIN G. BRUMBAUGH, Superintendent of Schools of Philadelphia

TO FIT THE CHILD FOR EFFICIENT CITIZENSHIP BY TRAINING HIM IN THE COMMON VIRTUES IS THE FIRST DUTY OF EVERY SCHOOL, WHETHER SECULAR OR RELIGIOUS AND WHETHER PUBLICLY SUPPORTED OR PRIVATELY ENDOWED. A child may reach a high degree of technical perfection, yet if he has been allowed to acquire habits that are offensive to society he is a FRAUD, and education has for him failed of its fundamental purpose. When a child's conduct shows that he is acquiring the principles of KINDNESS, DECENCY, REGULARITY, A REGARD FOR THE RIGHTS AND INTERESTS OF OTHERS and the other qualities that are the very FOUNDATION OF DEMOCRACY you need have no fear about his classroom studies. They will follow logically and naturally. The thing of most importance is the development of moral fiber, a willingness for each to do his share and a determination to do the task before him thoroughly and conscientiously. For next to a grounding in the common virtues the boy and girl should be taught that whatever the lesson may be it must be tackled CONSCIENTIOUSLY and without the slightest hint of SHIRKING. The secret of a child's success lies in the fact that the habit has been established to do the given task to the BEST OF HIS ABILITY. When the child enters school he is trained to surrender his own idiosyncrasies and conform to the common law which is built upon the rights of the many. Unless we train the child at the beginning in the broad laws of co-operation he will carry business competition into the conduct of government. He will GRAB FOR WHAT HE CAN GET, and you have the political leech and sucker.
