June 19 in American History.

1812—Congress declared war against Great Britain. The principal grievance alleged was the impressment of United States seamen by British vessels. James Madison was president.

1864—Battle of the Kearsarge and Confederate cruiser Alabama off Cherbourg, France, resulted in the sinking of the latter.

1911—The United States recognized the republic of Portugal. The first remains were recovered from the wreck of the battleship Maine.

OREGON CITY BEAUTIFUL

A stranger in Oregon City on Saturday remarked that he never saw greater signs of prosperity anywhere than here. The stores were all full; the streets showed men, women and children in large numbers; new homes are going up in all directions; new streets being laid out and graded; automobiles on every corner. He was amazed at the spirit shown, and asked, "How do you do it?" We could only answer that our large pay roll stands behind our motto "In unity there is strength."

Very few of us consider the great value of our industrial plants. Just a week ago Salem paid a bonus of $5000 for a small factory just to get more pay roll. We don't need to pay bonuses, we have the best industrial pay rolls in the state and with a little encouragement it would probably be an easy matter to induce further investment here, all of which means "More pay roll." Shall we aid?

AUTOMOBILE CLUB

What will the automobile club do about the many good roads bills to be voted on at the next general election? There are so many propositions to be considered that it will take a Philadelphia lawyer to study out which will be the best legally, while to satisfy the majority of the people with a law understood by only a few seems an impossibility. These difficulties will always come up with the present system of law making by the people. If we all were lawyers and had the time to study out the niggers in the various proposed bills all well and good, but we are not all lawyers and very few of us would take the time if we could study the propositions presented.

LOVERS OF LABOR

A man high up in political and legal life some two years ago sold a farm to a hard working man with a large family to support; the note given in part payment became due about a month ago; the man meantime had greatly improved the place, had cleared many acres and expected this season to get large returns, more than sufficient to make the payment due. On demand he asked for time; the man's wife begged for time but money mad men cannot give time; they must have money. The poor man lost his farm; he was driven off. The original owner had a perfect right to do as he did; he had the law on his side. The records of Clackamas County show the transaction. Does this show love for labor? Does this action show the original owner trying to aid the poor laborer to better himself? But such is the work of the money mad.

ed that the charter provided when and how his reports had been made and that these reports had been made and filed in conformity with the charter.

Mr. Stipp declared that the system in use in conducting the city's finances is the same as is used by the County and State. He pointed out that the exact situation was known to members of the finance committee at the first of the year and said there are stated times when reports are due when the exact condition of the finances are set out. Mr. Stipp said it would be impossible to secure exact figures at irregular times without going to no little trouble and time.

Councilman Toozie poured oil on troubled matters by stating a financial report would be definitely asked for at the next meeting of the council.

The Live Wires will discuss the proposed amendments to the city charter at their next week's luncheon, which will probably be held Monday or Wednesday evening.

New York's Great Annual Parade of the Suffragists

Photos copyright, 1912, by American Press Association.

MORE than 8000 women suffragists and about 800 male sympathizers marched on Fifth avenue in the annual "votes for women" parade. Many features combined to make the demonstration an impressive one, among them the bright spring weather, the brilliant yellow banners and the well kept lines of the paraders. The procession was headed by Mrs. Charles T. Knobloch, wife of a former rough rider, and her detachment of women on horseback, among whom was Miss Inez Millholland, who became well known as a Socialist speaker before she left college. Another striking figure was that of Miss Nellie van Slingerland of Albany, incensed in gleaming armor and impersonating Joan of Arc. The women, for the most part, marched under the banners of their district organizations, but there were many groups which carried the insignia of their callings, like the "writers." Probably the most fervent applause of the day went to the members of the Men's League as they passed the ranks of the women marchers, but the Rev. Antoinette Brown Blackwell, eighty-seven years old and a suffragist since 1848, received the heartiest cheers from those who recognized her. The first of two photographs is of the head of the division of women writers, the second of a part of the cavalry vanguard.

CHAUTAQUA MEETING TO SET NEW RECORD

That the Willamette Valley chautauqua Assembly which convenes at Gladstone Park July 9, and continues twelve days will be the most successful ever held in the historic park, donated by H. E. Cross, is assured. The finest lecturers and entertainers on the chautauqua circuit have been engaged and the best courses of instruction will be given. Mr. Cross, manager of the chautauqua, has been untiring in his efforts to make the meeting the greatest ever held, and declared Tuesday that he was confident he would be successful. So many persons of world-wide reputation have been engaged that it is impossible to enumerate them all. Among them, however, are John Mitchell, for many years president of the United Mine Workers, and now Vice-President of the American Federation of Labor; Judge Frank P. Sadler, formerly of the municipal court of Chicago; Rev. J. M. Cleary, lecturer and man of affairs; Charles Edmund Russell, the great editor; Lou J. Beauchamp, "the man who laughs the truth into the hearts of the people"; Miss Helen Varick Boswell, noted platform lecturer; Rev. William Spurgeon, noted London clergyman, and a score of others. Mr. Cross announces that scores of persons already have engaged tent space, and the indications are that there will be a larger number of persons actually living on the grounds than ever before.

What Happened to Short.
 "I hear Short, the coal merchant, has just come into a large fortune."
 "Well, he's entitled to it."
 "Oh, he is, eh?"
 "Yes; he's been lying in wait for it a good many years."—London Tatler.

A wise man.
 "I noticed after you left the house this morning you went back again. Don't you know that's unkind?"
 "Well, it would have been a good deal more unkind for me if I hadn't gone back."—My wife called me."

TRACK MEET SOCIAL DELIGHTS BIG CROWD

The track meet social at the Presbyterian church Tuesday evening was largely attended. The first part of the program was devoted to six acts, in charge of young men, while the remainder of the program was in charge of young women and was as follows: Solo, "Sing Me to Sleep," Miss Ely; violin obligato by Harless Ely; vocal solo, Mrs. Angus Matheson; reading, "Jimmy Brown's Dog," Miss Ruth Peckover; instrumental solo, "Swan," Oscar Lawrence Woodfin; solo, "March of the Dwarfs," Oscar Woodfin; violin solo, "Good-Bye," Mrs. W. Carlton Smith, of Portland. The grounds were prettily decorated with Chinese lanterns and ice cream and cake were served. The athletic events were interesting and closely contested.

Ran the Hole Out of Town.

A lecturer once told of a Russian he saw some years ago in Manchuria whose methods of achieving results were not according to the usual code. The Russian had a well in his front yard which he concluded to fill up. He began digging a hole by the side of the well, throwing the dirt from the new excavation into the well. "In the course of time," said the speaker, "the old well was filled, but there was a hole alongside as big as the first. The Russian went farther away and dug another hole to fill the second. He continued this process of digging one hole to fill the other until he literally ran the hole out of town."

Expressive.
 Two Georgia darkeys were quarreling on a railroad platform "You better go way from me, nigger," said the larger of the two, "cause ef I starts in on you about this time day after tomorrow the sexton of the colored cemetery is gwine to be pattin' you in the face with a spade."—Saturday Evening Post.

GRADING FOR RAILWAY TO START AT ONCE

Thirty-eight teams with scrapers and grading outfit passed through this city on their way to Canby, where grading will commence at once for the Portland, Eugene & Eastern Railway Company. The outfit is the property of the North Coast Contract Company, and will be in charge of G. L. Harding, of this city, who is connected with the company. This company has been awarded the contract of grading.

In an interview with M. J. Lee, of Canby, Tuesday afternoon, Mr. Lee stated that the City Council of Canby at first refused to grant him a right of way for the railroad company from Molalla to Canby, for the Canby-Molalla Railroad Company, and at the last meeting he says a petition was circulated with 133 names of taxpayers and citizens of Canby to the city council, 128 of these being in favor of granting Mr. Lee the franchise, and which was granted to the Portland, Eugene Railroad, and the Canby-Molalla Railroad.

Mr. Lee stated the company would operate its cars by electricity, and that it has purchased 70 acres of the rights of way which goes through some of the richest land in Clackamas county. It is the intention of the company to run its line on the West side, crossing the Willamette river at Canby, and extending on to Molalla, and later on to extend to Eugene. He also says "there is good backing, and the work will be pushed rapidly along to completion."

The grading camp will be established about three miles from Canby on the Molalla river, the working crew reaching its destination and pitching camp Tuesday afternoon.

The Sibylline Books.
 It is recorded of Tarquin the Proud, seventh emperor of Rome, that an old woman came to him with nine books, which contained, she said, sacred oracles. She asked an enormous price for them, and when the emperor refused she flew into a rage, threw three of the books into the fire and still asked the same price for the remainder. The emperor again refused, and she thereupon threw three more into the fire and still asked the same price for the three remaining. This so astounded the emperor that he bought the three at the price for which in the first instance he might have had the nine. These were the Sibylline books, long looked upon by the Romans as divine oracles.

Bland Acres

IDEAL ORCHARD, GARDEN AND POULTRY TRACTS
 Bland Acres is situated just west from Oregon City, near the Willamette River and on Electric Car line.
 The soil is of the Red Shot Free nature, loose enough to work easy, yet containing enough percentage of clay to give it a good moisture retaining capacity.
 The property has a good elevation, overlooking the Tualatin and Willamette Valleys and slopes well making tiling unnecessary.
 We have had this soil examined by an expert and he reports it IDEAL for apples, Prunes, Cherries, Grape, Berries and Vegetables.
 We are offering this land at $140 per acre and up, in tracts of 5 or more acres and practically your own terms.
 Here is your opportunity to get a Beautiful, Slightly Country home and land that will raise anything.
 Write or come in and see us about it.

South American Trade Will Never Come to the United States if Efforts Are Not Made to Get It

By MANUEL GONZALES, Consul General
 Of Costa Rica at New York

IHAVE read the geography in United States schools, and I find not more than half a page devoted to Central America. How can you expect to deal with A COUNTRY OF WHICH YOU KNOW NOTHING!

In my country it is compulsory for every student in the high schools to learn English. How many in this country learn Spanish? You know manana and chili con carne, and these you use to make fun of us. When you have a knowledge of Spanish in your baggage then go to South and Central America. DON'T EXPECT TRADE TO COME TO YOU HERE, for you must remember you are selling and we are buying.

THE AVERAGE DRUMMER WHEN HE VISITS OUR COUNTRY EXPECTS TO FIND YELLOW FEVER IN THE STREETS, MALARIA UNDER THE TABLE AND TO AWAKE IN THE MORNING AND FIND A REVOLUTION UNDER WAY. SUCH A MAN GOES TO THE BANK, MAKES HIS CREDIT GOOD, ASKS SOME LEADING MERCHANTS TO COME TO HIS HOTEL AND LOOK OVER HIS SAMPLES AND THEN DEPARTS.

You must ADOPT THE METHODS OF YOUR COMPETITORS AND DO A LITTLE MORE.

Acquire the Habit

and force yourself to save a little of your salary every week. A few dollars on the right hand side of the ledger will be a source of satisfaction to you. You can start an account with as little as ONE DOLLAR.
