LABOR'S REAL FRIENDS

Labor has its best friends in the employer who looks to his interests; who guards his machinery to the foot; who employs whether times are bad, good or indifferent; who pays cash for services rendered, without miscellaneous charges. Labor has its worst enemy in the man, politically inclined who would lead men to believe that they are not being properly treated by their employers; that they are working too hard for the pay received; that if men would pin their faith in them, and vote accordingly there would be nothing to but the Socialistic million apiece and capital would change positions with labor. Labor is honest. Politicians are not always likewise. Politicians have played the part of Judas to labor more often than employers have mistreated honest labor.

If Oregon would pin its faith in commerce and industry and let law making take a back seat for the next ten years, enforcing the good laws and wiping out the bad and indifferent ones now on our statutes, labor would be far better off than by listening to the money mad politician who is only thinking of feathering his own nest at not matter what or whose expense.

THE NATIONAL CONVENTION

What a mix-up we are having at Chicago. From all accounts the various leaders would try to lead us to believe that all but their own forces are criminals. Why can men of the standing of the majority of those sent to this convention fool themselves into believing that wrong is right. If there has been fraud all good, honest Republicans should lend a hand to detect and correct the evil. If no fraud has been practised then those who have passed the lie should be made to suffer.

The National convention of the Republican party should be what its name implies and not a place for "slinging mud."

MISS STROHMEYER BECOMES BRIDE

very pretty being of wild orange blossoms, ferns and evergreens, and where the marriage ceremony was performed was a large floral bell suspended from an archway of flowers and evergreens. The Strohmeier home, where the reception was held, was beautified with clusters of roses and evergreens. The living room was in red roses, while the dining room was in pink roses and wild orange blossoms intermingled with ferns.

The bride, who has been making her home in Portland for the past three years, is well known here, and has many friends in this city. She is a most estimable young woman. The bridegroom is a young business man of Portland, where he has resided most of his life.

Launching of the Texas and Portrait of Her Sponsor

Photos by American Press Association.

CLAUDIA, the ten-year-old daughter of Colonel Cecil Lyon, Republican national committeeman from the Lone Star State, had the coveted distinction of christening the battleship Texas at the recent launching of the navy's biggest man-of-war at Newport News. The ceremonies of the launching were successfully carried out in spite of the fact that there were some heartburnings over the choice of a sponsor, and the taxen haired, blue eyed miss whose portrait is reproduced above broke the bottle of champagne across the prow as accurately as if she had been of twice her age and experience. The Texas is the superior of any other warship yet built. She cost $14,000,000, has a full load displacement of 30,000 tons, a length of 573 feet, a speed of twenty-one knots and 30,000 indicated horsepower. She carries ten fourteen-inch breechloading rifles of the latest and most improved design. Her sister ship, not yet built, will be called the New York.

VETERAN, WHO VOTED FOR LINCOLN, HERE

J. W. LeGrand, a cattle man of Monroe, Marion County, Iowa, is in this city visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George DeBok, of Willamette. Mr. LeGrand spent the winter in Los Angeles, where he purchased a beautiful home, and where he will spend the winters hereafter. This is his first visit to Oregon. He is much impressed with Oregon, and declares it is a good state for the cattle business.

Mr. LeGrand with his three sons, J. W. Jr., W. N. and H. N. LeGrand, are the owners of 6700 acres of land, and are engaged in stockraising, although much of the stock they handle at the present time is purchased from several states nearby. Mr. LeGrand has at the present time more than 500 head of cattle of the Short Horn and of the Hereford breeds, and also has 200 head of horses.

Mr. LeGrand said that when a boy he was employed by a cattle raiser. He is sixty-six years of age, but his out of door life has been beneficial to his health, and he says he is able to do as much work on his farm as his boys. Mr. LeGrand is a veteran of the Civil War, having been a member of Company D, Sixth Iowa Infantry, and was a member of the Logan Veteran Corps and with General Sherman on his march to the sea. Although only nineteen years of age he was allowed to vote for Abraham Lincoln for president, the soldiers of Iowa being given the privilege of voting although some had not gained their majority. While in California before coming to this city he met one of his old comrades, he had not seen since the war closed.

Mr. LeGrand visited the paper mills and other manufacturing establishments and was much impressed by the manufacturing plants here. He will return to California Monday visiting at Oakland, and in San Francisco, where he has a sister, and will also visit other relatives in several states on his return trip. Mr. DeBok and Mr. LeGrand were neighbors years ago in Iowa.

LADIES' AID SOCIETY HAS ENTERTAINMENT

The Baptist Ladies' Aid Society was entertained Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. W. A. Cannon and Mrs. Harry Smith at the home of the latter on Fifth street. The women took their own needlework and a silver offering. The report of the visiting committee, reading and a social time followed by delicious refreshments were enjoyed by all. It was voted not to meet in July, so the next meeting will be August 21.

Present were Mrs. A. F. Parker, Mrs. S. P. Davis, Mrs. H. Smith, Mrs. W. A. Cannon, Mrs. Olmstead, Mrs. Fred Olmstead, Mrs. Welsh, Mrs. D. C. Latourette, Mrs. N. Bowers, Mrs. N. Bowers, Mrs. Mayville, Mrs. W. W. Marr, Mrs. E. L. Pope, Mrs. M. Moulton, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Curtis, Mrs. Grazier, Mrs. Flagler, Mrs. Burris, Mrs. C. G. Miller, Mrs. Fred Humphreys, Mrs. Smith, Sr., of Portland, Mrs. C. A. Nash, Miss Amy Purcell, Mrs. Carl Smith, of Jennings Lodge, Mrs. L. O. Eaton.

DUST TAKES DOLLARS FROM WOOL

As soon as the fleece is clipped the tag locks should be removed. The fleece is placed upon the floor, with outer portion up. Stray bits of wool are gathered and fleece is then rolled into a compact bundle and tied firmly with wool twine. The excessive use of twine is unwise, as this may lead to docking by the wool buyer. Sisal, manila, or other hard fiber twines should never be used, says A. O. Choate in Farm and Home. Wool twine is cheaper and is much more satisfactory.

Never store wool in hay loft, bran bin or straw shed, unless protected by bags. Hay, straw, or any vegetable matter that gets into wool makes cleaning very difficult and as a consequence reduces the price.

Sacks or bags used for storing wool are about eight or ten feet long and about five feet in diameter when full. Such bags can be purchased from any wool dealer, or if the wool is to be shipped to a certain firm, the firm will usually furnish the bags free. When full, sacks are sewed at the top. When it is desired to ship or sell wool all that is needed is to roll the bags onto the wagon.

He Was No Settler.

"I suppose that old chap with the long white whiskers over there is one of your old settlers, isn't he?" said the grocery drummer.

"I reckon he's what yew might call a old resident," rejoined the village merchant, "but he ain't no old settler. He's been a-own' me for nigh on to thirty years."—Chicago News.
