ROOSEVELT READY TO BE NEW PARTY LEADER

The credentials committee had no sooner met than the Roosevelt minority started a bitter parliamentary squabble over the order in which the cases should for alphabetical consideration; the Roosevelt men demanded a start with Texas. Chairman Devine ruled for the alphabetical order and the ninth Alabama was called up.

It was noted that Committeemen Heney, California; Harris, Kansas; Carrington, Maryland; Cowler, North Carolina; Morton, Oklahoma; Way, South Dakota; and Cady, Wisconsin—all Roosevelt supporters—were not in attendance at the meeting.

R. R. McCormick, Illinois representative, obtained a proxy, on his showing that his voice had failed. Massachusetts, still being deadlocked over their choice for the committee, was unrepresented.

The minority's first move was made through Committeeman Halbert of Minnesota for a recess in order that the Rooseveltites might further confer. The motion was voted down, and in the squabble that ensued, Chairman Devine ordered Halbert to sit down.

The Minnesotan kept his feet but finally sat down when Devine directed the sergeant-at-arms to enforce his order.

Consideration of the ninth Alabama contest was then begun over vigorous protest of the Roosevelt supporters. They objected to Committeeman Burch of Alabama sitting in judgment on that particular case, and Burch finally declared he would not vote on the question.

Judge Hundley, of Alabama, who appeared before the national committee in the same case, argued in behalf of the Roosevelt forces, in behalf of the regularity of the contesting delegation.

The two contested Taft delegates from the ninth Alabama district were seated, 34 o 14.

F. W. Estabrook of New Hampshire made the motion to seat the Alabamians. Chairman Devine ruled that "facts were only to be answered, and no new evidence introduced." This ruling will expedite the other contests.

Chairman Devine cased up his alleged "rag rule" so far as to permit committeemen to explain their votes upon roll call.

WOOL CROP BEING SOLD AT RAPID RATE

At the rate wool is now moving in this state the indications are for a clean-up of the state's clip earlier than for many years past. In all the wool-growing sections east of the mountains buyers have been busy since the opening of the season, and the more or less general willingness of the producers to sell at the prices offered, which have averaged 2 to 3 cents above last year's range, has made it possible to move a very considerable portion of the states' output at private sale. It is believed now that very nearly three-quarters of the clip has passed out of first hands.

The latest events of interest were the sales at Shaniko Tuesday and Wednesday when a total of approximately 1,600,000 pounds of the product was taken over by buyers at prices running from 13 1/2 to 18 1/2 cents a pound. On the whole the prices paid there, while not the best paid in the state this season, were fairly satisfactory to the sheepmen. One large clip, that of the Prineville Land & Livestock Company, aggregating 120,000 pounds, which it was expected would be disposed of at the Shaniko sale, is reported to have been held over for the sale at that place July 6. Nearly all the other clips in the Shaniko warehouses were sold.

WILLAMETTE CLUB GIVES FINE DANCE

While the attendance was not as large as was expected the dance of the Willamette Club at Busch's hall Thursday evening was a decided success. More than twenty couples attended, and the festivities were continued until midnight. Music was furnished by Parson's Orchestra, of Portland, and the hall and veranda were beautifully decorated. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Moody, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Latourette, Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Meldrum, L. J. Caulfield and Miss Marjorie Caulfield, Dr. and Mrs. H. S. Mount, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cole, Mr. and Mrs. William Straight and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Chapman.

A Ray of Light.

The straightest thing in nature or art is a ray of light when passing through a medium of uniform density. Hence the eye is enabled to test the straightness of an edge or tube by holding it as nearly as possible coincident with a ray of light, such parts as depart from straightness then intercepting a ray and causing a shade to be cast upon other parts. It is not known at what early period in the history of mankind the discovery was made that straightness could be thus determined. It is certain that thousands of mechanics use the method without being able to give a rational explanation of it.—Exchange.

PIONEERS TALK OF OLD TIMES AT REUNION

Among the pioneers attending the annual reunion in Portland are Mr. and Mrs. Burr Johnson, of Pendleton, parents of G. F. Johnson, Deputy County Assessor. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson will visit their son several days. Mr. Johnson came to Oregon in 1844 and Mrs. Johnson in 1847.

Rev. T. L. Jones, '52, a pioneer pastor and chaplain of the pioneer association gave the invocation at the opening meeting of the reunion and after Mrs. Clyde B. Aitchison had sung "Annie Laurie," Councilman George L. Baker delivered an address of welcome in behalf of Mayor Rushlight, to which President Miller responded.

The annual address was made by Robert G. Smith, mayor of Grants Pass and son of pioneer of '53. The annual dinner was served at 4:30 o'clock. This dinner is one of the great events of the year.

Though the reunion is smaller in numbers than it was last year, the spirit of pioneer days is strong as ever in the band of early settlers who gathered to talk again over the early days and clasp the hands of the friends of years. Many journeyed from afar to be present.

Boiled Alive.

In English statutes of the sixteenth century the punishment set down for the crime of murdering by poison was boiling alive, and a girl was actually executed in that ghastly fashion in 1538. Father Stone of Canterbury suffered the same death. A curious account is in existence which gives the amount paid "for two men who set the kettle and parboiled him" and "to the women that scoured the kettle." The sentence was not always carried out with so much ferocity, for culprits were sometimes hanged before being boiled. In one case it is recorded that a man was first hanged, then boiled, and then quartered.

MORE BITULITHIC AT ALBANY
ALBANY, June 20, (Special).—The contract for paving First street with bitulithic has been awarded to the Warren Construction Company.
This award was made after the committee appointed for that purpose and a number of interested property owners of the various kinds of paving in use throughout the Northwest. They found bitulithic in more general use than any other paving, and found it eminently satisfactory wherever used; perfectly surviving every test of wear and of climatic conditions and proving the most economical of all pavings because of the fact that it will support the heaviest traffic for years without repairs.
