WHY NOT DECORATE

Have you seen what St. John's figures on doing during the Elks' convention, week of July 8? It would be a wise idea to have some extra inducements on during that week to entertain the visitors who come here. The Elks Lodge and the publicity department are working hand in hand on this matter, but the business men of the city should enter into the spirit of the work, decorate their places of business with Elks colors and in the end show their loyalty to the American flag.

BOASTING, NOT BOOSTING

Camas, Washington, claims in its publicity literature to have one of the largest paper mills of the world and to have a 200 ton plant. Their standing in the paper trade is 120 tons in 24 hours, and while some day there will be a new machine producing 60 tons, the total will then be only 180 tons while one of the three mills in Oregon City is now producing 210 to 215 tons in 24 hours, and there are 2 others a total of 270 to 275 tons. When advertising the west correct data only should be used. If the truth is told we have sufficient to induce others to come and be one of us.

but boasting of something we cannot prove does more harm than good. Honesty is the best policy in advertising as in other business.

FARES ON THE INTERURBAN

The Committees of the four Clackamas County Commercial clubs are becoming anxious about the matter put up to the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company about a month ago. Arrangements have been made for the final meeting with the company's officers on Tuesday evening, June 25, in Portland and it is hoped that the matter will be satisfactorily settled out of court.

Whether the Republican National convention selects our Colonel Teddy for the standard bearer, or someone else, he will no doubt be delighted to run on a ticket of his own, selected at his own convention. Considering the way our political game is being played this season, it might not make any difference whether we have two Republican tickets or even more, for it is foolishness of this type which will give the Democrats their inning and many good Republicans are now expressing their dissatisfaction at the turn of affairs.

Some mid-December weather got lost and just returned home Wednesday evening, saluting our good folks on arrival. With a continuance of rain and cold weather those using water power will surely have a fine year. Another evidence "that it is an ill wind that blows no good."

So Tacoma is to copy after Portland in its coming festival. We hope they would hand out the same kind of weather to the unsuspecting visiting public, although in every other part of the game Portland showed good form, especially when the rose is taken into consideration.

M'LOUGHLIN OFFICERS ARE TO BE ELECTED

Officers will be elected at the annual meeting of the McLoughlin Memorial Association to be held at the McLoughlin home at 7:30 o'clock next Saturday evening. All members are urged to be in attendance, as matters of vital importance to the association will be considered. It is probable that members of the Woman's Club, who aided in preserving the historic home and in beautifying the grounds will have many suggestions to offer. E. G. Cawfield is president of the association and J. E. Hedges Secretary and Treasurer.

ROSE SOCIETY WILL NAME OFFICERS TODAY

The Clackamas County Rose Society will elect officers this afternoon at a meeting to be convened in the parlors of the Commercial Club at 3:30 o'clock. Mrs. A. C. Warner, president of the society, announced Friday evening that she would not be a candidate for reelection. Mrs. Warner has been untiring in her efforts in behalf of the society, and it was largely through her work that the recent rose show was such a big success. The other officers are Mrs. J. W. Norris, Vice-President; Mrs. George A. Harding, Secretary and Mrs. J. L. Waldron, Treasurer. Mrs. Warner urges all members to be present. Business relating to the recent rose show and other matters of importance will be given attention.

ONE WIFE AND ONE HUSBAND ASK DIVORCE

Declaring that her husband remained at home for days at a time and often treated her cruelly, Elsinia Hart Friday filed suit for a divorce against Patrick Hart. They were married in Stevenson, Wis., November 10, 1908. The plaintiff asks that her maiden name, Elsinia E. Matthews be restored. Charles C. McCoy sued Laura E. McCoy for a divorce, alleging cruelty. They were married in Noble County, Ind., November 30, 1903. The plaintiff says his wife left him and their children October 20, 1911 and did not return until March, 1912. Alfred Johnson was awarded a decree from Emma S. Johnson, desertion having been alleged.

REV. KRAXBERGER BACK FROM SYNOD CONVENTION

William Kraxberger, pastor of the German Lutheran church of this city, and William Krueger, who have been at Chehalis, Wash., where they attended at the Annual Convention of the Pacific Synod, which was in session in that city from Wednesday of last week until Monday of this week, have returned to Oregon City. It Is Essential That the United States Always Keep Prepared For War. By Major General JOHN F. O'RYAN, Head of the New York National Guard.

THE charge of militarism usually made against the regular who preaches preparedness for war will not lie against the national guardsman. Realization of the country's unpreparedness for war accounts for these men's devotion to military service. National guardsmen know wars are not brought about by the hasty anger of potentates or by the overt acts that signal their open declaration, but largely by ECONOMIC OR RACIAL CAUSES OR COMMERCIAL AMBITIONS. The history of the past twelve years shows that war never was more easily resorted to, never more inevitable, despite the widespread talk of peace. ARBITRATION OF DIFFERENCES WILL PREVENT USE OF THE MAILED FIST UP TO A CERTAIN POINT, BOTH WITH NATIONS AND INDIVIDUALS, BUT IN SUPPORTING A SACRED RIGHT A LIMIT IS INVARIABLY REACHED WHERE ANY MAN OR NATION WILL STRIP FOR FIGHT AND RESORT TO ANY FORCE, EVEN TO MURDER.
