CHICAGO, June 21 .- As a further indication that the regular Republicans have decided to draw the line sharply between radicalism and consubcommittee on resolutions today wrote into the temporary draft of the Roosevelt progressives.

It is expected that the progressives who do not subscribe to the Roosevelt bolt and who intend to remain "regular" will oppose the plank in the full committe and even on the floor of the convention, but in view of the majority held by the conservatives and their apparent desire to put an unequivocal stamp of that sort on the 'regular" platform, it is expected that the plank will stand. Whatever its fate, the La Follette men will present a platform as a minority report. No developed today and it is an entirely new plank that is being drafted.
