SHERMAN IS CHOSEN RUNNING-MATE OF PRESIDENT—ROOSEVELT MAKES MOST SCATHING ADDRESS

CONVENTION HALL, Chicago, June 22.—With 344 of the Roosevelt delegates declining to vote, and hastening away at adjournment time to tender to Colonel Theodore Roosevelt the nomination of a new party, the fifteenth Republican National Convention at the end of a long and tumultuous session tonight renominated William H. Taft of Ohio, for President, and James Schoolcraft Sherman of New York, for Vice-President.

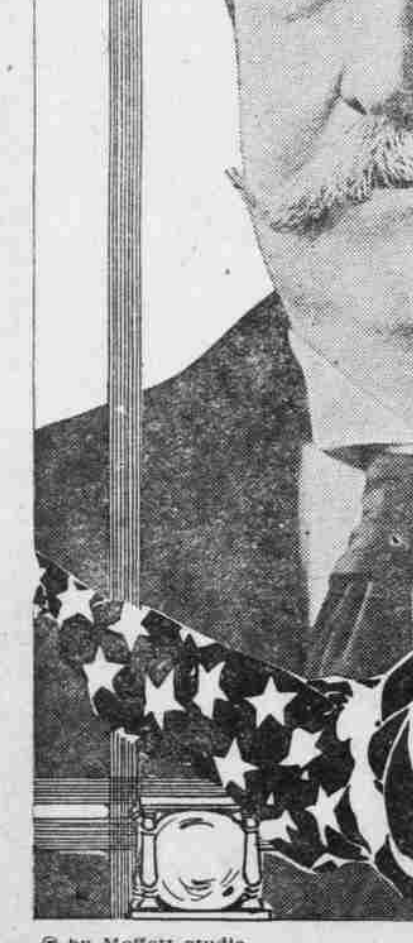

President Taft received 561 of the 1078 votes in the convention, or 21 more than a majority.

The result of the ballot was: Taft 561; Roosevelt 197; La Follette 41; Cummins 17; Hughes 2; absent 6; present but not voting 344.

The result of the ballot for Vice-President was: Sherman 597; Borah 21; Merriman 20; Hadley 14; Beveridge 2; Gillett 1; absent 71; present but not voting 352.

Roosevelt was nominated for President on an independent ticket. The nomination was made during the dying hours of the Republican National convention in which Mr. Roosevelt met defeat.

The nominating resolutions in part follow:

justice in the National convention. This result has been accomplished by the action of the now defunct National committee in placing upon the preliminary roll of the convention and thereby seating upon the floor of the convention a sufficient number of fraudulently elected delegates to control the proceedings of the convention. These fraudulent delegates, once seated, have by concerted action with one another, put themselves upon the permanent roll, where they constitute an influence sufficient to control the convention and defeat the will of the party as expressed at the primaries.

instructions in the only practical and feasible way remaining open to us.

"Therefore, be it resolved, That we representing the majority of the voters of the Republican party and of the delegates and alternates legally elected to the National Republican convention in compliance with our instructions from the party voters, hereby nominated Theodore Roosevelt as the candidate of our party for the office of President of the United States, and we call upon him to accept such nomination in compliance with the will of party voters.

"And be it further resolved, That a committee be appointed by the chair in which to forthwith notify Colonel Roosevelt of the action here taken and request him to appear before us in this hall as soon as convenient."

The followers of Colonel Roosevelt met in Orchestra Hall, less than a mile from the Coliseum, and pledged their support to the ex-President. In accepting the nomination, Colonel Roosevelt appealed to the people of all sections, regardless of party affiliations, to stand with the founders of the new party, one of whose cardinal principles he said, was to be "Thou shalt not steal."

At a later time, probably in August, a National convention will be held. Colonel Roosevelt in accepting the nomination said he did so with the understanding that he would be willing to step aside if it should be the desire of the new party when organized to select another standard-bearer.

He said in part: "Gentlemen, I thank you for your nomination, and in you I recognize the lawfully elected delegates to the Republican convention, who represent the overwhelming majority of the voters who took part in the Republican primaries prior to the convention and who represent the wish of the majority of the lawfully elected members of the convention. I accept the nomination subject to but one condition."

"I felt that the time has come when not only all men who believe in progressive principles, but all men who believe in those elementary maxims of public and private morality which underlie every form of successful government should join in one movement."

"If you wish me to make the fight I will make it, even if only one state should support me. The only condition I impose is that you shall be entirely free when you come together to substitute any other man in my place if you deem it better for the movement, and in such case I will give him my heartiest support.

PHILIP WEIDNER SUES FOR DIVORCE

Philip J. Weidner, a butcher of this city, Saturday filed suit for a divorce against Margaret Weidner, who was formerly Mrs. Margaret Henrick. They were married in this city November 26, 1893. The plaintiff, who is represented by Brownell & Stone, alleges that he has been neglected by his wife. He avers she has not mended his clothing, and otherwise has not been a dutiful wife. He says that after an illness when she was in a hospital in Portland she learned that he had obtained his meals at a neighbor's and denounced him for doing so.

ROBERT GREEN TAKEN FROM HOSPITAL HOME

Robert Green, son of S. R. Green, who was accidentally shot by E. T. Fields several weeks ago, was removed from the Oregon City Hospital Saturday to his home. The young man's condition is much improved and Dr. H. S. Mount, his physician, says there is no question as to his recovery. Young Green, who was graduated a few weeks ago from the Eastham School, had just got out of a boat on the eastern bank of the river near Busch's store when he was felled by a bullet which entered just under his heart. Mr. Fields, who was on the other side of the river, had fired at a snag and the bullet glanced on the water. The lad is one of the best athletes in the county and his superb physical condition saved his life.

GRADUATES BECOME ALUMNI MEMBERS

Ten members of the graduating class of the Oregon City High School became members of the alumni association at a meeting held at the high school Saturday night. Miss Hazel Tooze, president of the association, welcomed the new class. A vocal duet was rendered by Miss Cis Barclay Pratt and Joseph Sheahan. Professor A. O. Freil delivered an address and Miss Evidna Harrison gave

GOVERNOR BALDWIN TAKES ISSUE WITH FORMER PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE

"Let Republicans Enjoy Monopoly of Pre-Convention Personalities," Says State Executive

BALTIMORE, June 22.—Judge Alton B. Parker, named as temporary chairman of the Democratic national convention of the sub-committee of the national convention, will refuse to step aside in order to placate Bryan. A statement to this effect came today from Norman E. Mack, chairman of the national committee, through one of his secretaries.

"Mr. Mack says that Judge Parker is in the fight to stay, and will not withdraw," said the secretary.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., June 22.—Governor Simeon E. Baldwin, today sent the following telegram to William J. Bryan at Chicago in answer to Bryan's message concerning the selection of Alton B. Parker as temporary chairman of the Democratic national convention at Baltimore:

"Replying to your telegram, it does not seem to me that the course you suggest would promote harmony at Baltimore.

"The Republican party has been visibly destroying itself at Chicago. The storm center has been the action of its national committee in planning for the organization of its convention. I should regard it as unwise to agitate a similar cause of difference, respecting the action of the Democratic national committee.

"The Democratic party of Connecticut stand for three things:

"First—Opposition to grants of special privilege to special interests.

"Second—Opposition to centralization of power at Washington by encroachments on the rightful spheres of the states.

"Third—Economy in public expenditures.

WILLAMETTE PULP & PAPER COMPANY BUYS 56 ACRES FOR LITTLE CITY

EMPLOYEES MAKE MONTHLY PAYMENTS

Management Believes That At Least 200 Families Will Take Advantage of Offer Within Year

Employees of the Willamette Pulp & Paper Company will soon be living in their own homes to be provided by the company under a plan of co-operation unheard of in the history of Oregon industrial movements.

This company, which has already started so many new plans for the aid of their employees, and which will give a Fourth of July celebration this year has purchased 55.57 acres of land adjoining the school house on the West side, which land will be cleared immediately and platted this summer. It is the company's plan as outlined by B. T. McBain, mill manager, to artificially divide the land into one-fourth acre lots 100x100 or 50x200 as best suited to the topography of the tract and to reserve one block for park and playground purposes. Houses will be built for employees of the company at prices, to be agreed upon, and to be paid for at a rate a month the same as rent, with no taxes or interest on the selling price, the property to be deeded to the purchaser without incumbrance when all payments have been made.

This method of home building and buying should put within the reach of every man a way of obtaining his own home, even though a few years may pass between date of purchase and date of transfer of title. There will be sufficient to provide home for 200 families now forced to rent, making possible for 200 families to own their home on a rent paying basis.

The work of clearing and plating will probably be completed by August 15 and it is thought that some homes can be completed before winter.

The houses will have five, six or seven rooms and be of the latest design bungalows, plaster finish inside and the lots to be on a road connecting with suspension bridge. The lots will be fenced.

ELECTRIC THEATER

The people of Oregon City have been enjoying a treat during the past few days in the shape of illustrated lectures and recitations at the Electric Theater. Mr. Samuel C. Benson a graduate of Yale, and a lecturer and reciter of the first water has been performing there. Last night he recited "The Raven" to a large and enthusiastic audience. Mr. Benson will be at the ELECTRIC for a few days this week. Today, Sunday, he will recite "Curfew Must Not Ring Tonight" and "Osier Joe" both with beautiful illustrations. Monday there will be a lecture on "The White Slave Traffic" exposing the methods by which innocent girls are deceived and degraded. This lecture is EDUCATIONAL as well as interesting and should be heard by every man, woman and child. It is a strong moral lesson and is approved by Minister and Churches universally. There is absolutely nothing indelicate or offensive. The regular moving pictures will also be shown.
