THOUSANDS GOING TO CHAUTAUQUA

Improvements are planned. Hundreds of letters were received last week by H. E. Cross, secretary, from persons desiring to know when the chautauqua starts and reserving tent space. "I have been connected with the chautauqua for a long time," said Mr. Cross, "but never before has there been so much interest taken in advance in a meeting as the coming one. It seems that about everybody in the county and thousands from Portland and other places will attend. There is no question in my mind that we shall establish a new record for attendance, and the program is unquestionably one of the very best. That the assemblies are growing in popularity yearly there is no question."

John Mitchell, ex-president of the United Mine Workers, now vice-president of the American Federation of Labor, will speak July 20 on "The Philosophy, Purposes and Ideals of the Trades Union Movement." Judge Frank P. Sadler, formerly of the Municipal Court of Chicago, will speak July 20 on "The Criminal in the Making" and July 11 on "The Criminal in the Making." Rev. J. M. Cleary, Orator, Lecturer and man of affairs, will deliver an address July 18 on "American Citizenship." Charles Edward Russell, the great editor of the Middle West, will be the big attraction July 14, his lecture being entitled "Soldiers of the Common Good." Lou J. Beauchamp, "The man who laughs the truth into the hearts of the people," will lecture July 14 on "The age of the young man" and July 15 on "Take the Sunny Side." Mr. Beauchamp has traveled 1,000,000 miles in the old world and the new investigating the underworld. William A. McCormick, nature student with his trained dog has been engaged for children's day, July 10. Boys and girls under fifteen years of age will be admitted that day for 10 cents.

Miss Helen Varick Boswell of New York, one of the most popular and attractive speakers in chautauqua work, will speak July 16 on "Social and Political Progress of American Women." The lecture will describe the progress of women in this country, with special attention to the movement of today. Byron's Troubadours, Vocalists and Instrumentalists, have been engaged for the opening day, July 9, when one of the largest crowds in the history of the association is expected to be in attendance. A daily feature of the meeting, beginning July 10 will be the readings from Shakespeare by Lee Emerson Bassett. Rev. William Spurgeon, the noted London clergyman, will conduct a bible class each week morning during the session and will deliver two lectures, July 19 "The Englishman's Impressions of America" and July 21, "Moses, The Hero of the Desert." About 100 ministers have notified Secretary Cross that they will attend the chautauqua in order to become members of the bible class. Fred Emerson Brooks, rector and orator has been engaged for July 15 and July 18. The speaker for the Women's Christian Temperance Union will be Mrs. Florence Atkins, of Nashville, Tenn., a popular chautauqua speaker.

One of the most interesting features of the assembly will be the classes in Oregon History conducted by Mrs. Eva Emery Dye, author of "McLaughlin and Old Oregon," "McDonald of Oregon" and "The Conquest." Professor F. T. Chapman, of Portland, will be musical director and Mrs. Pauline Miller Chapman will be one of the soloists. Other soloists will be Miss Goldie Peterson and Miss Leah Slusser. The forum will be in charge of the Oregon State Equal Suffrage Association Women's Day, July 16, when Mrs. Abigail Scott Duniway will deliver an address. The Chicago Operatic Company, composed of five of the best known American musicians, has been engaged for July 12 and July 13. There is no other musical company filling Chautauqua engagements with as notable personnel of artists as this one. Many other lecturers and artists have been engaged, and in addition there will be fireworks, baseball games, other athletic tournaments, and more classes in various lines of study than ever before.

SOLA CIRCLE GIVES DELIGHTFUL BANQUET

The banquet given by the Sola Circle, Women of Woodcraft Friday evening at the Woodman hall was a big success, and the committee in charge is deserving of much credit. The banquet which was served in courses, was given in honor of the members who have been received during the past year, and were given a most cordial welcome into the secrets of the order. The hall was beautifully decorated with colors of the order, red and white roses and wild orange blossoms intermingled with ferns, being used in profusion. The long tables were correspondingly decorated, and were presided over by the following: Miss Clara Miller, Miss Clara Tate, Miss Reta Carothers, Miss Myers, Mrs. C. Simmons, Mrs. Ritenhouse, Miss Eleanor Williams, Miss Edith Dawson. The toastmaster of the evening was J. D. Taylor, and the new members responding to toasts were Mrs. E. S. Follansbee and Mrs. Bessie Osborn.

The early part of the evening was devoted to business of the order, and several candidates' names were balloted upon. A program consisting of the following numbers was given: piano solo, F. Betzel; vocal solo, Mrs. Angus Matheson; reading, Miss Kathleen Harrison. There were about 100 in attendance, who enjoyed a social time. The committee in charge of the banquet was composed of Mrs. Viola Tate chairman; Mrs. Jennie Betzel, Mrs. Hattie Farr, Mrs. Luella May, Mrs. Lucinda Freese, Mrs. Barbur, Mrs. Swanson, Mrs. M. E. Dunn.

Miss Mary Roos entertained in a most delightful manner Friday evening at her home on Eighth and Main streets the members of the Younger Set Club, the evening being devoted to playing five hundred. The prize was won by Miss Edna Holman. During the evening the hostess assisted by her sister, Miss Elizabeth Ross, served delicious refreshments. The members of this club are planning to give a picnic in the near future, and it is probable that The Dalles or a Columbia river resort will be the destination.

Mrs. Thomas Keith, formerly Miss Edith Cheney, of this city, entertaining "The Gypsies" at her home in Portland Saturday evening. Miss Helen Daulton won first prize. Those who attended from this city were Mrs. M. D. Latourette, Mrs. Walter Wells, Mrs. L. A. Norris, and Misses Helen Daulton, Bess Daulton, and Dolly Pratt. The guests from Portland were Mrs. Charles Griffith, Mrs. R. Holmes, Miss Ethel Cheney, Miss Kate Fetter. Mrs. Keith of Indiana was in attendance. The Oregon City party went to Portland in an automobile.

America Foremost Champion of Universal Brotherhood of Man

Peace Is Life War Is Death By ABDUL BAHÁ of Persia Prophet and Advocate of Peace

THERE is no greater glory for man than the service of international peace. PEACE IS LIGHT; WAR IS DARKNESS. PEACE IS LIFE; WAR IS DEATH. PEACE IS GUIDANCE; WAR IS MISGUIDANCE. PEACE IS FOUNDED ON GOOD; WAR IS A SATANIC INSTITUTE. PEACE IS CONDUCTIVE TO ILLUMINATION; WAR IS DESTRUCTIVE OF LIGHT. PEACE AND AMITY ARE FACTORS OF EXISTENCE; WAR IS DECOMPOSITION, OR LACK OF EXISTENCE. Wherever the banner of peace is raised it is conducive to the welfare of the world. No doubt this revered democracy, the United States, will be the FOREMOST AMONG NATIONS TO CHAMPION THE CAUSE OF PEACE. The banner of international peace will be unfurled here. Thus will the sun shine on the east and the west. The CLOUDS WILL PASS AWAY. Your thoughts shall take an upward flight.
