ROOSEVELT SAYS HE'LL NOT QUIT

(Continued from page 1) which sprang into being last Saturday night. Senator Joseph M. Dixon, field general of the Roosevelt forces in the anti-convention fight, talked with his chief. Governor Johnson, of California, on whom rests a part of the responsibility for the appointment of the committee of seven which will map out the new party, was the next to confer with the Colonel. James R. Garfield, and Gifford Pinchot followed. No declaration was made by Roosevelt. He said he did not expect to make any until "some definite program of progress" was formulated. The Illinois Roosevelt men expected to confer with their leader before his departure. Governor Johnson, who has been selected as chairman of the new organization prepared to leave for his home. Johnson was authorized to appoint a committee of seven to draw up a plan for permanent organization, but he announced his appointments would not be made public for several days. It is not believed any member of this committee has been definitely decided on as it was the opinion of Colonel Roosevelt that, owing to the multitude of complexities entering into the formation of the new party, several days of close study would be required, it being desired to give Democrats and Republicans, if they are true progressives, representation on the committee. Judge B. B. Lindsey, of Denver, announced that he probably would go to Baltimore during the Democratic convention to study the situation there and to sound Democratic leaders regarding the new party. It was said today that the city in which the convention of the new party will be held might be definitely announced before the departure of Roosevelt.
