ASTRONOMICAL EVENTS.

(From noon today to noon tomorrow.) Sun sets 7:35, rises 4:32. Evening stars: Mars, Jupiter, Mercury. Morning stars: Venus, Saturn.

An old epithet runs in this fashion:

"I was well, wanted to be better, took medicines, and here I am." A considerable part of the 15,000,000 voters of the United States, though hardly a majority, are apparently ready to censure the party that controlled all departments of the government from 1897 until the present House was elected. That was a period of sixteen years, and the executive branch is still Republican. What will Republicans have to say for themselves if called on to deliver the keys to another party on March 4 next? It will be something better than was ever said before under such circumstances. How stands the treasury at this moment? By the end of the month, which is also the end of the fiscal year, the surplus will be considerable. During the sixteen years all American dollars were made as good as gold. The war with Spain was fought and paid for. It is needless to go into the details of the resulting territorial expansion. Nor is it required to give a long table, expressed in billions, of the general progress of the country. Tested at any point the answer is the same. Business is active all along the line, and the masses are steadily employed at good wages. What a contrast with 1897. In that year the Republicans took hold, with promises to improve the situation, in all respects. They have fulfilled the pledge more amply than was expected. Good times were restored and so thoroughly that the building and completion of the Panama Canal became possible. This link between the oceans looked in 1896 like a dream of the distant future. If there must be a temporary Republican valedictory—which is improbable—it will be a thrilling review of great achievements.

LIME SHOWER IS SURE CURE

When the first chick shows symptoms of the gapes, stretching the neck and gasping for breath, place the entire brood in a small box, cover it with a piece of burlap and sprinkle dry, air-slacked lime over the burlap cover. Gently shake the cloth, so the lime will sift through and thoroughly fill the air inside the box. The aim is to have the chicks breathe this lime laden air, which is sure death to the worms lodged in the chick's windpipe. After two or three minutes, the cover may be removed, and the chicks returned to the hen or brooder. T. Z. Richey, in Farm and Home, says repeat every evening, until all symptoms of the trouble have disappeared. Where chicks have been yarded on the same ground for two or three years in succession, one may expect an outbreak of the gapes, unless efforts are made to thoroughly renovate the soil and kill the worms in the ground. The safest plan is to move the runs to new ground each season. Where this is not possible, the ground should be spaded frequently and thoroughly limed.

Church Doesn't Need a Press Agent. By the Right Rev. DAVID H. GREER, P. E. Bishop of New York.

I DO not feel much sympathy with the idea of applying to religion those methods of PUBLICITY which have no doubt served a very useful purpose in the fields of commerce and politics. The message which religion bears to mankind is of a closely INTIMATE AND PERSONAL CHARACTER. Its appeal is to the spiritual element in man, and for my part I cannot associate the teachings of Christ with the kind of public advertisement which is the business of the PRESS AGENT.

PEOPLE CANNOT BE MADE RELIGIOUS, EXCEPT IN A VERY SUPERFICIAL WAY, BY PUBLICITY METHODS. THEY MUST HAVE DEFINITE AND POSITIVE CONVICTIONS AS THE BASIS OF CHARACTER AND CONDUCT, RESULTING IN THE WILL TO LEAD CLEAN, PURE AND UNSELFISH LIVES.

Nor do I believe that religion is in such a case today that it needs the QUESTIONABLE AID OF EXPLOITATION BY WAY OF ADVERTISEMENT. There has never been a time, in my opinion, when men as well as women have shown themselves more interested in questions of religion, which must necessarily appeal to all thoughtful people and which cannot be dismissed from their consideration, than they are today. They may not have definite and fixed religious opinions, but they would like to have them.

CHURCH ATTENDANCE, IN MY JUDGMENT, IS GREATER TODAY THAN EVER BEFORE IN THIS COUNTRY. There is also an increasing volume of gifts for charitable works, and above all there is more personal service than ever being given daily by the laity to mission and philanthropic work.

$22,000 PRIZE FOR WORLD'S FASTEST MOTOR BOAT

The Wm. Wrigley Jr. Trophy for the power boat championship of the world represents over $22,000. It is a perpetual trophy to be won each year by the club whose motor speed boat entry makes the best three out of five races in competition open to the world, free for all boats under 40 feet in length. It is a reproduction in silver of a "Flying Mercury" presenting to Neptune a hydroplane motor speed boat. Neptune with his trident, dolphins and water surrounding are in bronze. The round pedestal is of green marble. The figure of Mercury and the model speed boat contain 1,000 ounces of sterling silver. The trophy stands 5 feet 5 inches high. The base is 47 inches in diameter. Mr. Wrigley will provide annually a replica of this big $5,000 trophy, which becomes the personal property of the winner of each year's races. To provide this trophy annually will require an endowment of about $17,500, thus giving Mr. Wrigley's trophy a value of about $22,000. In addition to these prizes are a $1,500 cash prize for the winner and a $500 cash prize for the second boat. The first races will be held at Chicago during the Water Carnival and Naval Review, Aug. 10 to 17 inclusive, 1912. It is expected that there will be boats from all over the world. Water Carnival week at Chicago will include the other races in the Fourth Annual Regatta of the Western Power Boat Association, the International Yacht Race between the Royal Canadian Yacht Club of Toronto and the Chicago Yacht Club, the Lipiton Cup Races of Columbia Yacht Club, fireworks displays, naval parades, swimming and diving contests and exhibitions by sailors, marines and naval reserves. In all the competitions there will be handsome trophies or liberal cash prizes. William Hale Thompson, Commodore, Associated Yacht and Power Boat Clubs, Chicago, will be glad to supply information.

PETRIFIED BODY FOUND IN BARN (Exchange.) The petrified body of a young negro was found in a long coffin-shaped chest that has lain three months in the barn at the rear of the Andre house, this week. About three months ago Mr. Andre received a letter with one dollar inclosed, asking him to care for a chest until the owner called. Mr. Andre hauled the long box, which was marked "glass, do not stand on end," to his barn, where it lay half forgotten. This week it was noticed that the screws had been drawn from the hinges. Mrs. Andre and son examined the contents, and removing a large canvas cover were shocked to find the gruesome but petrified remains of a nude negro. Further investigation revealed a hand printed letter that told the following story: "Count and Countess De la Jeune were camping on an expedition along the old Pembina trail by the Snake River in Marshall County, Minn., in 1865, with a retinue of servants. One, a man, became suddenly insane, shot and killed the countess, and the negro maid attempted to escape, fired a fatal bullet through her jugular. The murderous maniac was caught, and the remains of his two victims buried in the swamps. In 1894 as the county ditch diggers of Marshall County were excavating to drain the district, they came upon the two petrified bodies, one of a white woman, evidently very beautiful, and the other of a negro, buried together. Both bodies were in a state of complete petrification. The authorities took charge of the remains and that of the Countess De la Jeune is now in a Chicago museum." "The body of the negro disappeared for some time and is supposed to have come into the possession of a traveling show company and exhibited in its museum. The body, when found in Andre's barn, was wrapped in a canvas sign which stated that within was a "Human Petrified Body Found Along the Old Pembina Trail on the Snake River in Marshall County, Minnesota." The owner of the County, Minnesota." The owner of the curiosity has not claimed the body and it is expected that it will be placed on exhibition at the Jamestown County fair in July. The body is that of a well formed negro, apparently about 20 years old. The features are clear and the white teeth stand out strikingly between the black lips. Her two arms lay crossed upon her breast. Although the negroes weighed about 120 pounds in life, the petrified body weighed over 200 pounds.

Very sinister, indeed. "This bill was innocent on its face but beneath there lurked a most sinister significance." The speaker was discussing a measure one of which he disapproved. "The bill reminded me, in fact," he said, "of an orphans' question. His question innocent enough in appearance, dear knows—was this: "Would you mind making a noise like a frog, uncle?" "And why," said the uncle, with an amused smile, "why, Tommy, do you desire me to make a noise like a frog?" "Because," replied the archin, "when ever I ask daddy to buy me anything he always says, 'Wait till your uncle croaks.'"—Exchange. Ambitious. "Why, Lizzie," says the mistress, "it is nonsense for you and Henry to elope! You can be married sensibly and quietly and go to housekeeping. Your parents do not object to him, do they?" "No, mum. But we want the papers to write up our wedding, and, him being a deliveryman and me being a cook, they won't unless we elope. Then the Evening Wildeye will print my picture and a headline saying, 'Prominent Society Girl Elopes With Grocer's Clerk.'"—Judge's Library. Bully. Post—Your rich uncle was set upon by a bull. Parker—Where? Post—At his country place. Parker—Good. I was afraid it was in Wall street.—Judge.
