CLARK CALLED TO RALLY FORCES

TWENTY-SIX BALLOTS ARE TAKEN

BRYAN SCORES CLARK'S TAM- MANY ALLIANCE IN SPEECH EXPLAINING CHANGE OF VOTE TO GOVERNOR OF NEW JER- SEY

BALTIMORE, June 29.—With Governor Wilson gaining on each ballot and Speaker Clark constantly losing ground in the race for the Presidential nomination, the Democratic National convention at 11:05 o'clock tonight adjourned until Monday morning at 11 o'clock.

Twenty-six ballots had been taken since the first call of the states and there was no hope of a final verdict tonight. It is against all political precedent for a National convention to sit on Sunday, but tomorrow will be a day of important conferences among the party leaders and a day of hard work for the campaign managers.

When the convention adjourned tonight, Speaker Clark was hurrying to Baltimore from Washington in response to an urgent call from his campaign director, William Jennings Bryan, at the afternoon session, had attacked Clark and had said he would vote for no man willing to accept the nomination at the hands of "Murphy, of Tammany Hall."

It was the plan of Mr. Clark to appear before the convention and make answer. In this way his managers

The Harmon delegates from Ohio threw their support to Speaker Clark on several ballots, but they did not materially help him toward the necessary two-thirds vote, because of the gradual inroads made by Wilson.
They then changed back to Harmon and remained there until the last ballot of the night.

At the end of the 13th ballot W.
J. Bryan rose in his chair in the Nebraska delegation as a poll of the state was ordered. He asked to explain his vote. Bryan said:

"As long as New York's vote is cast for Clark I withhold my vote from him."

The convention was in an uproar.
Bryan remained mounted on his chair. Senator Stone of Missouri made his way to the platform to ask for time for Bryan to explain his vote.
Above the din a motion granting unanimous consent to Bryan to speak was declared carried and the Commoner proceeded to the platform amid cheers and shouts of derision.

Bryan spoke deliberately, explaining in detail his vote, amid an impressive silence. Bryan read from a prepared statement. He said Nebraska had always been a progressive state.

In this convention, he said, the progressive sentiment was overwhelming.
The resolution adopted against any candidate subservient to Morgan, Ryan and Belmont showed the desires of the convention, Bryan said.

The vote of New York represented the wishes of one man, Charles F.
Murphy declared Bryan, and he represented the same interests that sought to dominate the Chicago convention.

He and his associates in the Nebraska delegation he said, were unwilling to accept the name of any man, who was receiving the benefit of Murphy's leadership.

Shouts of approval constantly interrupted Bryan, with occasional parliamentary protests.

"I shall not be a party," he declared, "to the nomination of any man who will not be absolutely free to carry out the anti-Morgan-Ryan-Belmont resolution and make his administration reflect government of, for and by the people. I shall withhold my vote from Mr. Clark as long as New York votes for him."

Governor McCorkle of West Virginia, interrupted to ask:

"If the nomination of a Democratic candidate is made with the vote of New York, will you then support the candidate?"

As Bryan began to answer a delegate shouted:

"Are you a Democrat?"

This nettled the Commoner and he shouted: "If that man will give you his name I will record it beside that of Messrs Ryan, Belmont and Morgan."

Answering McCorkle, Bryan said it was a different thing to oppose a man in a convention and oppose him after a convention. Nothing, he said, would justify the supposition that he would not support the nominee.

"Would you support Clark, Wilson, Harmon, Underwood, Marshall, Kern, or Foss if one of them received a two-thirds vote of this convention, including the vote of New York?" asked Governor Brewer of Mississippi.

"I deny the right of the gentleman to ask such a hypothetical question unless he puts into the question every

MRS. JACKSON DIES IN WEST OREGON CITY

Mrs. Fidelia Jackson, wife of Tyler Jackson, of West Oregon City, died Saturday morning after an illness of about a year. The body was shipped to Lebanon, Or., Saturday evening, where the funeral services will be held, and the remains interred in the Lebanon cemetery. The United Brethren church will have charge of the funeral.

Mrs. Jackson was sixty-four years of age. She was born October 1, 1848, in Iowa, and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Miller. She came to Oregon about thirty-five years ago and settled at Lebanon, where she lived until about a year ago, when she came to Oregon City.

Mrs. Jackson besides being survived by her husband is survived by the following children: Mrs. William Blackburn, of Oregon City; Mrs. John Wallace, of Lebanon; Ivan Jackson, Mrs. Howard Tucker, of Lebanon; also her mother, Mrs. Miller of Lebanon, one brother, George Miller, of Black Rock, Wash., two sisters, Mrs.
Ann Luckey, of Portland; Mrs. Mc-

YOUNGEST LAYING HEN IS BANTAM

Oregon Washburn, a poultry fancier, of West Oregon City is the owner of probably the youngest laying hen in the state. The hen was hatched March 8 and laid its first egg June 24 and has been laying daily since. Its mother has hatched two broods since March 8. The chicken wonder is a white feather leg bantam, and under size even for that species. Mr. Washburn is confident the hen has established a new record for early laying.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH TO HAVE SPECIAL MUSIC will be placed some distance from the pulpit choir, each one complete in itself. The music will include several of the ancient church hymns, including the Gloria in Excelsis set to Georgian Tones. Miss Louise Walker

Champ Clark, Who Hurries to Baltimore to Take Charge of His Forces when Wilson Stampede Threatens.

hoped to bolster the falling vote.
The ballots today ran from the 13th to the 26th. Wilson began at 356 and ended at 407, a net gain during the day of 51 votes. Speaker Clark began at 554 and fell to 463, a loss of 91 votes.

The anti-Clark leaders in the convention called attention to the fact that they almost exactly offset the 90 votes given to Clark by the New York delegation.

Breaks to Governor Wilson were coming from many different delegates as the balloting closed. His managers believed that, once he had overtaken Speaker Clark, the switching of delegates would become general. The Clark forces plan to make a desperate effort tomorrow to win back some of the delegates lost today, and in this work they probably will have the personal direction of the Speaker himself. The Wilson forces, in the meantime, expect to fight, not only to hold their gains of today, but to induce more to desert the other candidates.

Senator Stone, of Missouri, made a motion to eliminate the candidate receiving the least number of votes on each successive rollcall after the 27th ballot, until only one—the winner—was left in the race. There was a storm of objection and the subject was pressed no further.
