SENATOR JONES IS LORIMER AIDE

WASHINGTON MAN DECLARES HEARING OF EVIDENCE CHANGED MIND

COLLOQUY WITH SMITH EXCITING

Perjury On Both Sides Admitted and Lawsuit Involving Husband And Wife Is Mentioned

WASHINGTON, July 10.—When the Senate took up the Lorimer case today it was indicated that a vote would be reached tomorrow.

Senator Johnson, the first speaker, condemned as "un-Christian and un-American" Colonel Roosevelt's course in declining to sit with Senator Lorimer at the Hamilton Club's dinner at Chicago.

Senator Jones, of Washington, who opposed Lorimer at the first trial, but who supports him now, said he had changed his conviction because he had personally heard the witnesses against Lorimer. He complained of public clamor in the case and charged it of having too much influence in determining the votes of Senators.

This statement aroused William Alden Smith, of Michigan, who confessed to irritation as to what he characterized as covert and insinuating intimations in the press in support of Mr. Lorimer that those in opposition are lacking honesty and courage and are subject to influence by public clamor.

Senator Jones denied any intention of criticizing the attitude of others, but asserted there had been too much effort to control public sentiment in opposition to Lorimer. He admitted there also had been perjury on both sides.

The two Senators discussed the evidence at some length and Mr. Smith finally referred to the recent lawsuit brought in Chicago by John Henning against Clarence Funk, general manager of the International Harvester Company, in which Henning charged Funk with alienation of his wife's affections.

Henning lost his case and his wife is said to have confessed that the charge was a conspiracy to injure Funk for his testimony against Lorimer. Senator Smith said he thought the suit had been brought to affect the Lorimer case.

References to perjury brought out a vigorous statement from Senator Jones. He expressed the opinion that the money distributed by Lee O'Neil Browne had been contributed by "whiskey interests."

"There is no positive evidence, but from the record it is the most probable theory as to where the money came from," he said.

"Isn't it just as reasonable to suppose that the corruption fund was used to elect Lorimer as to influence legislation?" Senator Pomerene asked.

"I do not think so," replied Mr. Jones. "It was a legislative fund and there is nothing in the record to indicate that the money was used for any other purpose."

PLOT STARTED TO OUST GEN. OROZCO

JUAREZ, July 10.—When General Pascual Orozco, Sr., arrives here he must face dissatisfaction in the ranks of his soldiers. A new rebel junta has been organized, and secretly has been working among the troops with the idea of persuading them to abandon the leadership of General Orozco and recognize General de la Fuente as military chief, with Emelio Vasquez Gomez as civil head of the rebel cause.

The Vasquistas sympathizers, originators of the present revolt, which was appropriated by Orozco, who repudiated Vasquez Gomez, have risen again, and the mutinous spirit conspicuous among the rebels of late may be traced to Vasquistas influence. It is understood the Vasquistas leaders will meet in a few days in San Antonio, Tex., and, it is reported, will discuss plans for deposing Orozco.

The Vasquistas have been anxious ever since Emelio Vasquez Gomez was overthrown by Orozco to assume charge of the revolution, but not until recent events, when Orozco began to meet with military reverses, have they found encouraging response in the rebel ranks.

General Orozco was expected to reach here today. His stay in Juarez it was declared would be short. His next headquarters will be at Casa Grande, 140 miles southwest on the Mexican Northwestern Railroad, from which point the rebel invasion of the State of Sonora will be directed.

ROCK CONTRACT LET BY COUNCIL

3,000 CUBIC YARDS TO BE FURNISHED FOR REPAIRING STREETS

MOLALLA AVENUE BEING REPAIRED

Parts Of Madison, Jackson, Washington, Fifth and Sixth Streets Have Been Oiled

The City Council, at a meeting Wednesday afternoon, awarded a contract for furnishing 3,000 cubic yards of rock for repairing the macadam streets to the Oregon Engineering & Construction Company. The bid was $1.85 a cubic yard, which was five cents lower a cubic yard than the bid of Williams Bros. and ten cents lower than rock has been obtained by the city before.

Councilman Tooze and a representative of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company Wednesday afternoon made a tour of the streets with a view of locating circuit poles and poles for arc lamps. The council insists that the company shall live up to the provisions of the franchise in obtaining permits before setting poles. The poles also will be painted soon after they are placed in the ground, and it is expected that the sixteen new arc lamps which have been ordered will be installed within two weeks. The poles will be placed at the edge of alleys wherever practicable and only in a few instances will be placed in parkings.

Councilman Tooze announced Wednesday evening that the work of repairing Molalla Avenue was progressing rapidly. The street will be put in fine condition in a short time, which will not only be a boon to persons who have homes on it, but to farmers living along the Molalla road.

The work of oiling the streets will be finished probably this week. Parts of Madison, Jackson, Washington, Fifth and Sixth streets have been oiled. Washington street, which was recently made, will be given a thorough rolling and it will be made one of the finest thoroughfares in the city.

PAIR COMES TO CITY IN HOUSE WAGON

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Deisel, of Monterey, Cal., were in this city Wednesday on their way to Portland, where they will spend today. Mr. and Mrs. Deisel have been visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stuber in Washington, and are at present guests of Mr. and Mrs. Keil, of New Era, where they will remain until the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Deisel are making the trip overland, having a fine house wagon, which is neatly furnished, and has all conveniences with built-in wardrobes and built-in cupboards. During the rainy season the owners partake of their meals inside of the house. They expect to reach their home in November. They are the owners of two mules, "Becky," and "Jack," and a white horse "Dick," which is the leader. The mules follow close behind the horse's heels even when not attached to the wagon. Old "Becky" is a most intelligent animal.

Mr. and Mrs. Deisel have lost two fox terriers since they have been at New Era. One was lost in Oregon City Saturday and the other they lost near New Era. The one which disappeared in Oregon City is a yellow and white dog, slightly streaked with black, and has a bob tail; while "Del" the other fox terrier is of black, white and yellow, and also has a bob tail.

ROYALIST REBELS CAPTURE BIG TOWN

LISBON, Portugal, July 10.—The Royalist rebels in North Portugal again outmaneuvered the Republican government troops today. After the sanguinary encounter at Cabo de Raso de Basto, where the Royalists defeated the Fifth Regiment of Infantry reinforcements of government troops were rushed to the scene.

A strong cordon of infantry this morning advanced slowly on the insurrectionary town, pouring in a heavy fire. A few scattered shots were the only response, and when the final assault was made with fixed bayonets the besiegers found the streets deserted and all the houses empty. The inhabitants had withdrawn to the mountains and hidden in the passes.

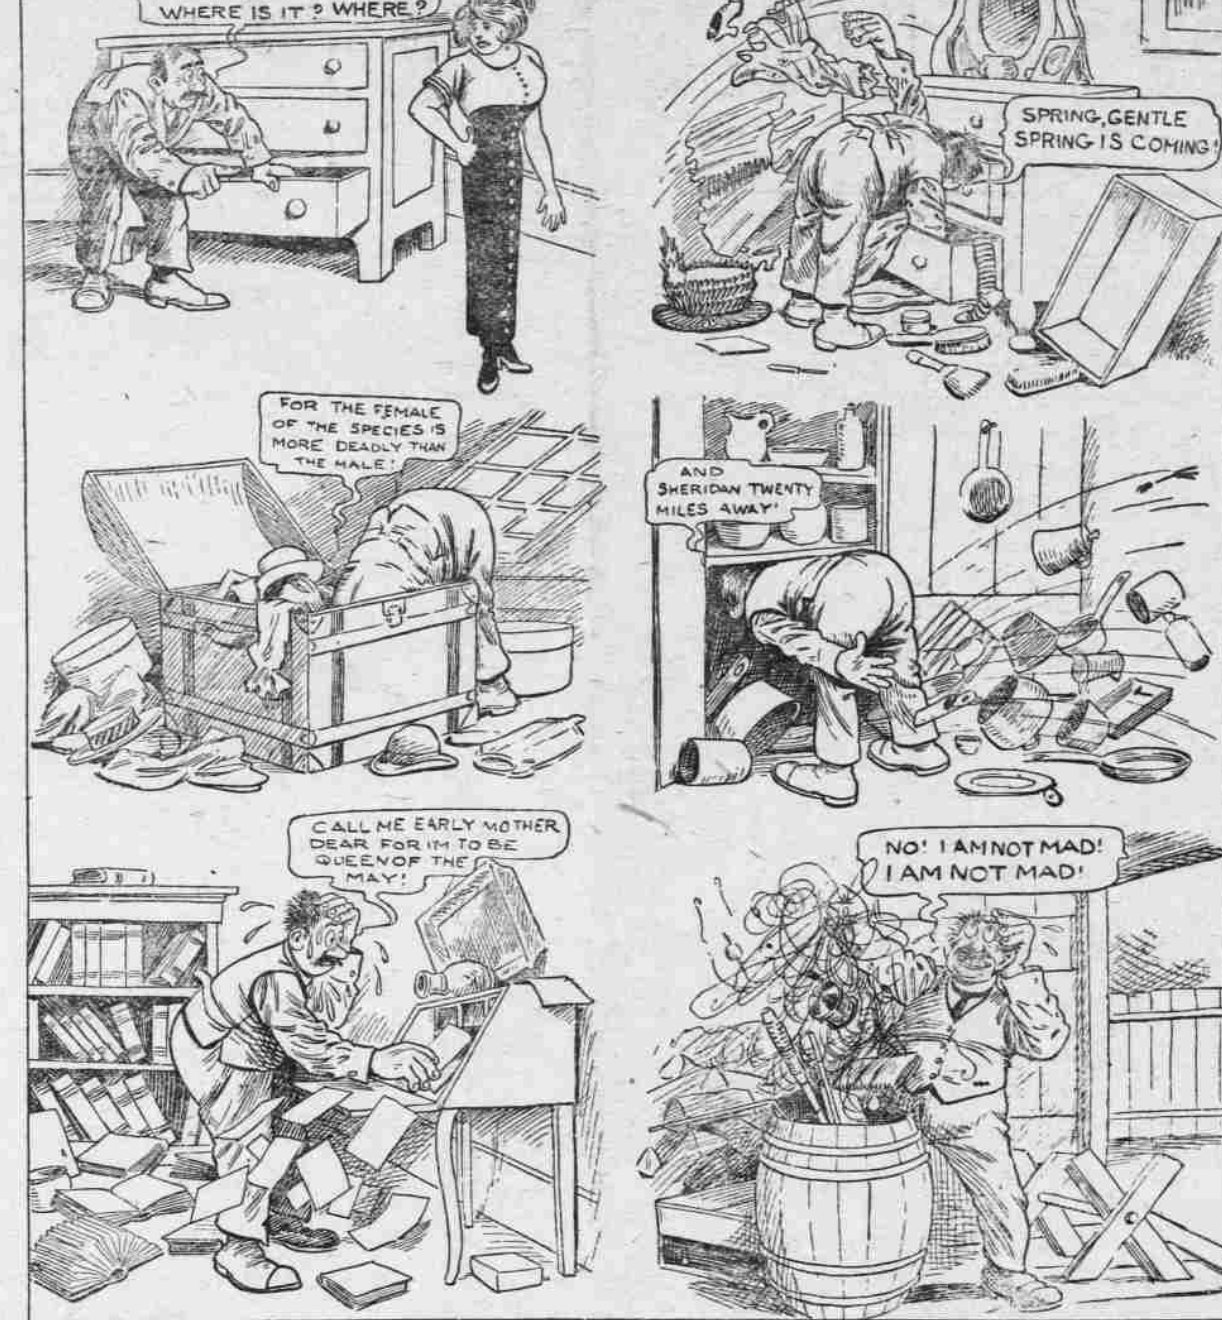

Unless the government decides to weaken the garrisons of Lisbon and Oporto, which would be a dangerous measure to take in view of the possibility of revolutionary outbreaks in the big cities, it seems likely the Royalist warfare in the Northern Provinces will continue for some time.

If it happened it is in the Enterprise.

Elks Place Ban On Goat Riding In Initiations—Old Custom Abused By Lodges In Small Cities

TODAY'S PROGRAM

- 10 a. m.—The annual grand lodge parade starts over downtown route.
- 10 a. m.—Sweet pea show at court house.
- 2:30 p. m.—Grand lodge business session at Armory.
- 3 p. m.—Competitive drill contest on Multnomah Field.
- 4 p. m.—Baseball, Pacific Coast league—Portland vs. San Francisco—at Recreation Park.
- 4:30 p. m.—Free entertainment at Council Crest, an amusement park lying 1200 feet above and overlooking the city.
- 8 p. m.—Final band contest on Multnomah Field—one of the big feature events of the week. Admission to field, capable of seating 20,000, free.

PORTLAND, July 10, (Special).

Elks who are members of lodges having a low initiation fee still will be required to pay the differential if they affiliate with another lodge having a high initiation fee, as a result of the action at the grand lodge session this afternoon.

Upon the request of many smaller lodges the judiciary committee, which considers all proposed changes in the constitution, investigated the proposed change in the law allowing any Elk to transfer to another without paying the differential in the event that the lodge to which he transfers has a higher rate of initiation than the one with which he originally was affiliated.

After a short sharp fight on the convention floor this afternoon the Elks grand lodge definitely decided to banish "goat riding" from the pale of the order. Heretofore "rough-house work" has been permissible at special sessions of the subordinate lodges. The majority of smaller lodges took advantage of this liberty to put candidates through a series of stunts, before the serious work of initiation was undertaken.

NO PAPER TOMORROW

The plant of the Morning Enterprise will be closed today in deference to the Elks, and, consequently no paper will be issued tomorrow. As all the business houses in the city decided to close in order to give their employees an opportunity to see the big parade, the management of this paper, at the request of members of the local lodge of Elks, decided to do likewise.

AMERICAN RACERS EASILY BEATEN

JACKSON, BRITISH CRACK, CARRIES OFF HONORS IN CHIEF EVENT

FINN IS VICTOR IN OTHER CONTEST

New York Representatives Lead At End of Second Lap and Crowd Thinks One Will Win

STOCKHOLM, July 10.—Unexpected defeat was the portion of the Americans in the Olympic games here today. With five men qualified for the final of the 1500 meter race, including the best performers seen here, it was believed the Americans would fill all the point places. Instead, the race was won by Jackson, the British crack, who made his run after the field had straightened away in the home stretch.

To win, Jackson had to hang up a new world's record for the distance, his time being 3:56 4-5, as against the old record of 3:59 4-5.

Arnaud, the French sprinter, took the lead at the start and held it for two laps, closely pressed by John Paul Jones and Abel Kiviat, the New York representatives. At the end of the second lap the two Americans sprinted into the lead, and then the spectators believed it was all over. Instead, Jackson, who had been constantly improving his position from the start, began his great sprint in the stretch, and soon passed both leaders. The effort told on Jones, who dropped back, absolutely "all in." Kiviat tried to go one, but he was staggering and in the last lap Norman Taber, of Brown University managed to get up alongside, making the finish so close that the judges could not decide who was entitled to the honor.

The judges, after inspecting the photographic plates, placed Kiviat second and Taber third, making three additional points for the American team.

The result of the 5000 meter race was, as expected, a triumph for Finland. The race was won by H. Kolehainen of Finland, with the French crack J. Bouin, in the place position and E. W. Hutzon of England, third.

The 5000 meter race was so bitterly contested that Louis Scott, the Patterson youth who essayed to set the pace early, was forced to quit before it was half over. Porter, the English champion, from whom great things were also looked for, dropped out in the eleventh lap. Bonhag, the veteran American runner, finished fourth, beaten only 10 feet for third honors. The time for the race was 14:06 3-5, a new world's record for the distance.

Kolehainen, the winner, and Bouin, the Frenchman who finished second, alternated in the lead in the last lap. Ten feet from the finish the Finn forged to the front and managed to get home winner by a narrow margin.

OREGON CITY ELKS TO BE IN PARADE

UNIFORMED DELEGATION TO LEAVE ON SPECIAL CARS AT 8 O'CLOCK

ALL BUSINESS HOUSES TO CLOSE

Big Rush Of Visitors To City Is Expected Tomorrow—Special Car Service Is Arranged

Oregon City will be deserted today. There is a reason. The Elks are going to give a big parade in Portland, and the inhabitants of this city are going to see the pageant. The post-office, courthouse, and virtually all the business houses and factories will be closed. And although the city will be depopulated today it will be a busy, bustling one tomorrow for then is when the visiting Elks are expected to begin coming this way.

Thousands, it is thought, will come here tomorrow and there will be entertainment for all. The Elks home and Commercial Club will keep open house, and an entertainment committee, of which B. T. McBain will be the head will see that all have a good time. Plenty automobiles will be supplied for showing the visitors about the city and through the county.

The Elks uniformed delegation will leave the city on special cars at 8 o'clock this morning to participate in the great parade. More than 100 men who have been drilling for months will participate and, while the men are not boasting, it is confidently believed that they will bring home a prize. The suits are just as nifty as the most fastidious could wish. And after the parade is over, if nothing happens, the coats may be used for smoking jackets.

While there were not as many visitors Wednesday as had been expected, O. D. Eby and the other members of the entertainment committee for the day were kept busy showing the strangers the sights. Automobiles were furnished gratis and the merry Elks and their families were shown through the city, and taken on trips through the county. Mr. Eby was chairman of the committee.

The Portland Railway, Light & Power Company, anticipating a big crowd, will run special cars all day and far into the night.

C. E. SPENCE, GRANGE HEAD, RECOVERING

Spence, Master of the State Grange, who has been seriously ill at his home at Beaver Creek was improved Wednesday. Mr. Spence is suffering from a severe cold and it was thought for a time that it would develop into pneumonia. His physician however, said Wednesday that his patient was doing well, and that he would soon be able to attend to his duties. Many inquiries regarding the condition of Mr. Spence were received by his relatives Wednesday.

WILLIAMS' FUNERAL TO BE HELD TODAY

The funeral of L. P. Williams, who was drowned at South Bend, Wash., will be held this morning at 9 o'clock at Mountain View cemetery. Mr. Williams, who had been in ill health for several months, left home about two weeks ago. The following day Mrs. Williams received a note from him saying that he intended ending his life. James Myers, of Portland, a brother-in-law of Mr. Williams, arrived here Wednesday with the body. Mr. Williams had been a dairyman for several years, and before that was a railroad engineer.

FRANK KOENIG BUYS OLD RANDALL HOME

Frank Koenig, Sr., who is proprietor of a grocery and notion store on Twelfth and Madison streets has purchased a home on the corner of Twelfth and Madison streets. The interior of the building has been painted and papered, and the outside painted, which has added much to its appearance. A new roof has also been added. The building years ago was owned by Bonny Randall, one of the prominent residents of Oregon City and brother of Postmaster T. P. Randall. The carpenters in making the necessary repairs found that the structure was unusually well built.

JAIL PRISONERS ARE CLEANING STREETS

Leo McGinniss, arrested for being intoxicated was given a sentence of ten days in jail by Recorder Stipp Wednesday. Chief of Police Shaw immediately put McGinniss to work cleaning streets. Several other prisoners are cleaning streets.

LOVE FEAST HELD AT CHAUTAUQUA

ELABORATE PLANS FOR IMPROVEMENT OF GROUNDS ARE OUTLINED

ASSEMBLY TO PUBLISH PAPER

McCormick And His Dog With "Logical Understanding" Are Feature of Second Day's Program

McCormick and his beautiful Scotch Collie, "Bronie," captivated the large audience Wednesday, as the "Children's Day" feature for the second day of the chautauqua assembly. More than 2,000 boys and girls ranging in age from babies in arms to "Dad" Burgess, Gladstone's ninety-five year old "kid" gathered in the main auditorium from every corner of old Clackamas County and were most royally entertained. "Bronie" is a beautiful Scotch Collie with a logical understanding and is perhaps the most famous dog in the United States. She's not a circus dog in any way; neither does she covet about like a "houn" dog at a national convention. Instead she gives a most pleasing exhibition of animal mentality, and yesterday easily convinced the most skeptical that her work was entirely different than that of the ordinary trick dog. Mental suggestion is the real secret of the dog's wonderful work, according to her master, Mr. McCormick. The pair proved a great feature for the chautauqua; the man, an imitator of the speech of animals; the animal an imitator of the minds of men.

In the evening program Professor Bassett gave a most interesting address on the "Appreciation of Poetry" S. Platt Jones gave some splendid rapid fire character work.

"Chautauqua's Own Hour" occupied the 11 o'clock session Wednesday morning. The annual love feast of patrons and directors and stockholders was replete with optimism and elaborate plans for next year's work, in matters of park improvement, etc. were outlined by the management. Most important was the plan for the publication of a Willamette Valley Chautauqua paper, to be issued quarterly and to be known as the "Chautauqua." The idea as suggested by the "Father of Gladstone," Hon. H. E. Cross, met with popular favor and at the conclusion of the meeting subscriptions poured in. Another idea, necessitated by the growing movement, was the plan for a year-round manager for the Gladstone time-tried institution, and in all probability this personage will be chosen soon. Arrangements for the sale of $500 additional stock will be completed soon as a result of today's enthusiastic forum hour.

Class work began in earnest Wednesday. In keeping with the Shakespeare year, Professor Leo Emerson Bassett of Stanford University made his opening address to 250 enthusiastic Shakespeare students at 9:00 a. m. He gave a most interesting history of the great poet's life, pointing him out as belonging not only to one age but to all ages in his wonderful intuition, his delineation of character, and his human sympathy. According to Professor Bassett, the great genius lived at a time when the world was breaking away from dogmatic fatalism, and in that way brought out human sympathy for mankind, making the whole world love him.

The chautauqua chorus with 50 voices under the able direction of Miss Thompson began daily work on "Unfold Ye Portals" from the Redemption and auxiliary choruses from Hatton and Mendelssohn. Domestic
