SOLONS CENSURE PRESIDENT FOR ACTION IN LORIMER CASE

ROTHCHILD'S REPRESENTATIVE

DEMOCRATS LEAD IN BIG FIGHT MILLIONAIRE FRANK IN REPLYING

Resolution, Introduced By Bailey, Is Witness Unable To Tell Exact Amount Supported By Only Six Republicans-Amendment Is Carried

WASHINGTON, July 16 .- The Senally was adopted 35 to 23, denouncing "any attempt on the part of a President exercise the power of his office to influence a vote on a question with-

The resolution originally was framed by Senator Bailey, who had arraigned President Taft, asserting he had "officious and meddlesome" in endeavoring to line up regular Republican Senators in the Lorimer case, and as adopted read:

"Resolved, That any attempt on the part of a President of the United States to exercise the powers and influence of his great office for the purpose of controlling the vote of any Senator upon a question involving a right to a seat in the Senate, or upon any other matter within the exclusive jurisdiction of the Senate, would violate the spirit if not the letter of the Constitution and invade the rights of the Senate.

Not a Democrat voted against the resolution, but six Republicans voted for it. Republicans who voted for it were Senators Bourne, Clapp, Fell, Gallinger, McCumber and Works. Democrats who voted for the resolution were Ashurst, Bacon, Bailey, Bryan, Chamberlain, Culberson, Fletcher, Gardner, Hitchcock, Johnson, Johnston, Martin, Martine, Newlands, O'-Gorman, Overman, Percy, Pomerene, Reed, Smith, of Georgia, Smith of Maryland, Smith of South Carolina. Stone, Swanson, Thornton and Tillman.

Those Republicans who voted against the resolution were Borah, Brandegee, Bristow, Burnhom, Burton, Catron, Crawford, Cummins, Dupont, Gronna, Jones, Kenyon, Massey, McLean, Nelson, Oliver, Page, Perkins, Root, Smith of Michigan, Smoot, $250,000?" asked Senator Jones. Sutherland and Townsend.

PROGRAM

The Old Stage Coach Frank Richards, driver for the Continental Stage Line in the early '70's gets a new coach to drive. June Adams is a passenger and becomes Frank's sweetheart. June, in bad health, goes away to save her life, but in vain. Her death endears the coach to Frank, as it is a part of his life romance. The railroad renders the stage line useless, and the coaches are sold at auction. Frank tries to buy the coach he drove, but is outbid by a stranger. Broken hearted, Richards leaves and, years later, dressed in his old garb, is known as Dad Richards and loved by all. One day he meets his old superintendent, now a railroad president, at a "Wild West" show. They see a mock hold-up of an old stage coach and Frank recognizes it as the one he drove. The president received a telegram stating that his wife is dying, and a wreck on the road eauses him to get the old coach to each her side. Frank again drives the coach. He races with a train and, upon reaching the station, it is found he has driven his last trip. Frank has gone to his last reward with a peaceful smile on his face.
