COMMERCIAL CLUB ALIVE

Although the summer weather makes people think more of shady nooks, peace and quietude than business, the Commercial Club of Oregon City is very much alive to the possibilities which the various railroad activities mean not alone to the West Side but to Oregon City itself.

SUFFRAGETTES TRY TO KILL PREMIER

DUBLIN, July 19.—Eight suffragettes were arrested today charged with complicity in the plot last night to burn the Theatre Royal, where Premier Asquith spoke tonight. Gunpowder, petroleum and other inflammables were found in their lodgings.

CLACKAMAS SOUTHERN

Work on the Clackamas Southern is being rapidly carried to completion. Contractors have large crews on the grade work and the bridges will soon be ready for the steel. Teams and men are arriving daily and before winter trains will be in operation to Molalla, tapping a new but rich district without robbing any present road of its revenue.

STEFFENS TELLS DRAMATIC STORY

Steffens declared that after working for days along Darrow's demand that no one be "killed," he received information through O. F. Brant, the man selected to put the plea-revision plan to District Attorney Fredericks, that Fredericks would be satisfied with pleas of guilty by both men, and would not demand the death of James B.

DAIRY STOCK SALE TO BE SHOW FEATURE

PORTLAND, Or., July 19, (Special)—Public sales of dairy stock will be a big feature of the Pacific International Dairy Show to be held at the Portland Union Stockyards November 18-23. The directors have decided to hold two and one-half days of public sales, allowing dairy cattle from all parts of the world to be sold.

PORTLAND IS EASY PREY FOR VERNON

PORTLAND, July 19, (Special)—Vernon trounced Portland again today the score being 9 to 5. Vernon hit Klawitter hard, making 2 scores in the second, 2 in the fourth, 3 in the seventh and 2 in the ninth. Castleton also was hit hard.

MRS. A. F. PARKER IS GIVEN SURPRISE

A pleasant surprise was tendered Mrs. A. F. Parker at her camp at the chauntanqua in Gladstone Park Wednesday afternoon, in honor of her birthday. While Mrs. Parker was attending the ball game about forty of her friends took possession of her camp, and upon her return she found a long table beautifully decorated and laden with good things.

KEEP BEAUTIFUL

III Health, the Great Destroyer of Beauty. A Talk to Women. To keep beautiful, keep well. Don't neglect any symptom of ill health. Hot weather brings extra fatigue, throwing extra work on the blood and kidneys—on all organs.

SPIRITUALISTS HAVE FINE CAMPMEETING

The attendance at the campmeeting of the Spiritualists this year is the largest in the history of the association. Mr. and Mrs. Bledsoe are in charge, and their work is attracting much attention not only from the campers but from persons in the neighborhood. The program for tomorrow is as follows:

HOP MARKET STRONG IN THIS SECTION

The strength of the hop market in Oregon is increasing, and it is amusing to see the divers methods the shorts are applying in their mad rush to cover. Twenty-one cents a pound is being freely offered for contracts, and some business has been done at this figure with a nominal amount of ordinary stuff at 20c. The price holds readily between these figures.
