CREAM LINEN FOR A GIRL OF 10.

The French, always particularly happy in the designing of children's frocks, have produced one of the prettiest in the garment shown above. This is of cream linen with blue and white plaid linen effectively introduced as trimmings. The blouse and tunic are of cream linen, while the plaid is used for the circular yolk underskirt, the bib effect on the waist and as a band across the bottom of the tiny apron portion. A narrow band of the stitched linen belts the waist and pearl buttons are used as trimming. Hat of white neapolitan straw trimmed with a garland of cream roses and foliage.

gamblers and the "police system."

Neither Mr. Whitman nor Assemblyman Levy, counsel for the two men, would discuss what Libbey and Shapiro had revealed. Mr. Levy said he and Mr. Whitman had agreed to give out no further information. Not long before, however, the lawyer had had a two-hour conference with his clients and made a brief statement regarding it.

"They have told me things that I did not know of before," he said. "If Mr. Whitman desires to hear my clients he will learn of disclosures which will make the public gasp when they are published."

THOUSANDS WILL HEAR MITCHELL

who had never read Shakespeare's masterpiece go to real enjoyment out of Professor Bassett's reading.

Dr. William House gave an interesting talk in the afternoon to the adults on the subject, "Social Hygiene." His interesting address was attended by an unusually large audience for the chautauqua five-o'clock hour. In the auditorium at this hour, Rev. Mr. Clapp spoke on Women Suffrage and Mrs. Hidden took occasion to answer the arguments of Dr. True Wilson of Portland, delivered before the women at their suffrage session last Tuesday afternoon.

"John Mitchell" is the name that is on everyone's lips today, for the famous labor leader will address a monster crowd in the auditorium this afternoon at 2 o'clock, and the announcement of Mr. Mitchell's coming has created a widespread interest in his message, not only with the campers on the grounds but with hundreds of Portland workmen, who will take advantage of their half holiday today to hear their champion at the park. His subject is to be "The Philosophy, Purposes and Ideals of the Trades Union Movement," Mr. Mitchell using in the main, his subject matter from his book of the same title.

This will be the banner day of the 1912 session. Besides the big attraction—Mr. Mitchell—the evening will be given over to the grand chautauqua concert, by Professor Chapman's orchestra, assisted by Pauline Miller Chapman, mezzo-soprano; Ross Fargo, tenor; Mr. Francis Waker, baritone; Mr. Aue, cellist. Preceding the concert, a grand pyrotechnic display an annual feature for the chautauqua patrons, will be given down on the baseball field below the auditorium. Professor Keilling will have personal direction of the display, using his own "made-in-Oregon" fireworks. Eighteen magnificent pieces will be set off, in addition to hundreds of rockets, Roman candles, etc.

The forum hour today is to be of unusual interest, being in charge of the Consumers' League of Oregon, of which Mrs. Henry Russel Talbot is president. The principal speaker of this session is to be Dr. C. H. Chapman, editor of the Oregonian, who will address the morning audience on the subject, "Can Women Live on the Wages They Earn." This is the final forum session of the present assembly. Miss Agnes Johnson is to be soloist for the hour. Today's complete program follows:

8:11—Chautauqua Summer school.
11:00—Chautauqua Forum. Consumers' League of Oregon. Address by Dr. C. H. Chapman, editor of the Oregonian. Soloist, Miss Agnes Johnson.
1:15—Concert. Chapman's orchestra. Soloist, Mr. Aue, cellist.

of 1000. The batteries were; Sherback and White for Mount Angel; Telford, Harrison and Mulkey for Gladstone. Gladstone landed seven hits but failed to score, while Mount Angel with nine hits put six men across the rubber. Sherback struck out nine of the Gladstone players; Telford struck out six and Harrison fanned four of the Mount Angel batsmen. The visitors showed better team work. Only one pass was issued during the game and that by Gladstone.
