SLAYERS ESCAPE FROM NEW YORK

POLICE DECLARE MEN WHO KILLED GAMBLER HAVE FLED FROM CITY

AUTHORITIES HAVE NAMES OF ALL

Suspects Are Well Known And Could Not Have Eluded Watch Without Being Supplied With Money

NEW YORK, July 20.—The men who rode to the Metropole Hotel early Tuesday morning in Louis Libby's gray automobile and there shot and killed Herman Rosenthal, the gambler who had so long been a thorn in the side of certain police officials, have fled from this city.

This is the explanation which the police offer for their failure to arrest a single one of the murderers.

Deputy Commissioner Dougherty, who has been in charge of the investigation of Rosenthal's death, virtually admitted today that the reason none of the men had been caught is because they cannot be found. Mr. Dougherty made no secret of the fact that the names of all of the men are in his possession. He does not hesitate to say that they are well known men who are in ordinary circumstances could be rounded up in a few hours. He refused positively to give their names or say if he had clues as to where any of them have gone. He would not predict how long it will be before he is able to run down the assassins, although he did say that the progress he had made so far is more than satisfactory and that he is confident he will ultimately get the criminals. It is known that descriptions of certain men have been sent broadcast throughout the country by the police of this city. In connection with these circulars the police of other cities have been asked to keep secret the names of the men wanted.

Mr. Dougherty said that there is no certainty that the men he is after know that they are wanted. If their names become public, he said, they will know it and the difficulty of getting them would be greatly increased. In "Jack" Rose, the gambler friend of Lieutenant Becker, and the man who hired the car in which the murderers of Rosenthal rode to and from the scene of their crime, Mr. Dougherty declares he has a prisoner more important than all of the others put together. The Deputy Commissioner says that he is confident the murderer of Rosenthal was plotted in the afternoon or early evening and that the men who rode in Libby's car were fully aware of what was to be done.

MICHIGAN TO HAVE ENTIRE T. R. TICKET

JACKSON, Mich., July 20.—Michigan progressive Republicans divorced themselves from the Republican party in their state convention here today. By a vote almost unanimous the delegation went on record as favoring the placing of an entire ticket, state and National, in the field.

Delegates to the National progressive convention in Chicago, Presidential electors, member of the state central committee and a member of the National committee were chosen today. Members of the state central committee recommended State Senator Watkins of Jackson, for Governor and Theodore M. Joslin of Adrian, for United States Senator.

Mikado Collapses While In Conversation With Empress—Royal Physicians Are Still Hopeful

TOKIO, July 20.—Official admission was made today that the health of Emperor Mutsuhito is rapidly failing, and that his death is probably only a question of a short time.

The mikado is seriously ill of both stomach and brain trouble, and all public and private audiences have been stopped. His condition is more serious than at any other time since his illness began.

Warned that the mikado is sinking steadily members of the Japanese royal family are hastening to the bedside of the dying ruler. All members of the cabinet and other important government officers are assembled at the palace. The public has been warned that death may come at any time and the streets are crowded with anxious throngs. The whole city is quiet and sad.

According to a bulletin the mikado's temperature is 105, pulse 104 and respiration 38.

Prince Katsura has been advised of the mikado's condition and is expected to reach Tokio quickly. It is believed if the emperor dies Katsura will become premier again.

The sudden change for the worse occurred Friday night, when the mikado abruptly collapsed while conversing with the empress. Court physicians were summoned, and the empress remained all night at her husband's bedside.

Today religious services were held throughout the country for the emperor's recovery, the special services in the Buddhist temples here and at Kyoto being especially impressive.

The wife of the heir to the throne, Prince Yoshihito, is representing him at the palace in his absence, and keeps acquainted with his father's condition by telephone.

Mutsu-Hito-Tenwo is the 121st emperor of his time, which dates back 2555 years—the oldest dynasty in the world. The emperor is of pleasing address, nearly six feet tall, broad and muscular, of courtly bearing and intellectual appearance.

TAMMANY HALL AIDED W. J. BRYAN IN 1908

WASHINGTON, July 20.—Herman Ridder, treasurer of the Democratic National committee in 1908, produced today for the inspection of the Senate committee investigating campaign expenditures, official reports of the National committee's receipts and expenditures he had filed with the Secretary of State of New York in 1908.

J. J. Martin, private secretary to the Secretary of State, produced the reports, as official custodian of them. These showed the total receipts were $620,644.77 and the total expenditures $619,410.06.

Ridder told the committee how he raised the money for William J. Bryan's last Presidential fight.

"No, he did not," said Mr. Ridder. "Mr. Belmont had told the committee recently that he contributed about $250,000 to the Democratic National committee in 1904."

"Did Mr. Thomas F. Ryan contribute in 1908?" continued Senator Clapp.

"No, he did not."

"No, he did not," said Mr. Clapp. "He has contributed to some one else?"

"No, unless Mr. Sheehan—no I am sure they did not through Mr. Sheehan because the amount he contributed was too small."

Tammany Hall contributed $10,000 to the Bryan campaign. Robert E. Ewing, of New Orleans, collected $37,000, mostly in five and ten cent pieces.

Witness recalled, with the aid of the official record, that 25,000 names were enrolled on the list of contributors. He picked the largest ones, putting into the record contributions by W. F. Sheehan, Edward Goltra, John W. Cox and David R. Francis, of $3000 each; John T. McGraw, $2000; Edward M. Sheppard, H. H. Lehman, De-lancey Nicoll, D. E. Conway, Norman E. Mack and J. Sergeant Cram, $1000 each. Morgan J. O'Brien, $500; Nathan Strauss, $1250, and Samuel Untermyer, $2500. No money was received from corporations for the campaign, Ridder assured.

COMMERCIAL CLUB TO FIGHT R. R. CHANGE

H. T. McBain, President of the Commercial Club, urges the members to attend the meeting Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock when three questions of paramount importance to the residents of this city will be discussed. The first question will be the division of the county which is urged by residents of the Estacada section. They want a new county, to be known as Cascade county, created out of the Eastern section of Clackamas county. The free locks on the west side will be discussed, a rumor being current that the government is hesitating because of a report as to certain titles being clouded. Plans to combat the reported proposition of the Southern Pacific Railway to change the main line of its road so as to eliminate Oregon City will be made.

F. T. BARLOW HOME, MUCH IMPROVED

F. T. Barlow, who suffered a serious illness while spending his vacation at Otter Rock, near Newport, was brought to this city Saturday night. Mr. Barlow's condition was much improved, and he was able to walk with assistance to his home on Water Street. Soon after Mr. Barlow was stricken his son, Barton, and Rev. C. W. Robinson, Rector of St. Paul's Church, were summoned to Otter Rock. They remained there one day and returned to Oregon City with the information that Mr. Barlow was in no immediate danger. Mrs. Barlow and Mrs. Charles Dierke returned home with Mr. Barlow.

OREGON IS PRAISED BY THOMAS W. LAWSON

After careful study of the problem set forth in your telegram, were I graduating today from college, East, West or South, I would head straight for the great, undeveloped Northwest, writes Thomas W. Lawson in the Financier of Boston.

"I would buy my ticket for Portland, Or. I would spend my first week in that splendid prototype of our old, conservative and intellectual but withal courageous and hustling New England capital of a half century ago. While in Portland I would haunt the reportorial departments of the daily newspapers the ever-welcoming rooms of the numerous business clubs and the booming departments of the great railroads and navigation lines centering that superb Pacific metropolis."

"Then I would light out and into the modern paradise of happiness and dollars, the virgin interior of that wonderful state, a world in itself, containing to spare and then lots more of everything that makes for health, beauty, prosperity and contentment for man, woman and child. If I were possessed of $20,000 to $50,000 capital, in a twelvemonth I would telegraph back to Bradstreet and Dun to mark my rating $125,000, and then three twelvemonths later I would wire them to make it from half to three quarters of a million."

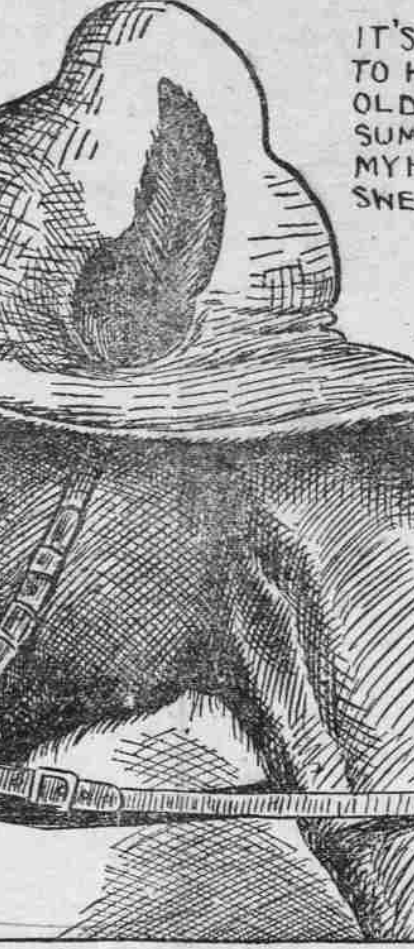

"If I had only my carfare, Bible, dictionary and fountain pen, I would send word to the old folks to watch out for the Christmas coming of the old home mortgage lifter, and I would bet my along, against a pouch of tobacco that when Christmas came I wouldn't be making excuses for not coming East. Details? Bosh!"

"Who you wake up in Golconda you should not waste time looking for a business guide. All you need is a rake and a bag."

COUNCIL WANTS CARS STOPPED AT CROSSINGS

A resolution was adopted at a meeting of the city council Saturday night regarding the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company be compelled to stop its cars at street crossings as stipulated in the franchise. It was announced that the cars were not being stopped at all the crossings and as a result several persons had narrowly escaped being injured. Councilman Meyer announced that he had seen a young man who had tried to board a car which was not stopped at the corner of Sixth and Main streets dragged half a block. A contract for building a sewer was let to Earl Alpin.

MILL WORKER ASKS $5,000 DAMAGES

Suit for $5,000 damages was filed Saturday by Albert E. Goetz, of Oak Grove, through his attorney O. D. Eby against the Hawley Pulp & Paper Company. The plaintiff alleges that he was seriously injured February 16, 1912, while he was employed by the defendant company. He declares that he fell into a hole six feet deep, of which he was in ignorance, in a passageway through which it was necessary for him to pass. As a result of the fall he avers he sustained a dislocation of his left collar bone and other injuries which have incapacitated him for work.

MRS. DRIGGS GUEST OF HONOR AT PICNIC

A picnic was given at the Chautauqua grounds at Gladstone Park Friday evening in honor of Mrs. E. F. Driggs, who recently arrived with her husband and two little children from New York and will make their home in Portland for the summer. The affair was a most delightful one, and one of the pleasant features of the evening was the supper served in the large dining room on the grounds.

MRS. W. B. LAWTON IS LUNCHEON HOSTESS

Mrs. W. B. Lawton entertained at luncheon at her home, Locust Farm, Friday afternoon in honor of Mr. Lawton's aunt, Mrs. J. Henry Baldwin, of Fairhaven, Minn., who has been visiting for the past fortnight in Oregon City. The women of Mount Pleasant, who have called upon Mrs. Baldwin have enjoyed meeting her. Mrs. Carl Joehne, of this city, beautifully arranged the decorations, the color scheme of the dining room being in pink and green while the living room was in red.

MITCHELL LAUDS EQUAL SUFFRAGE

UNIONS HAVE ALWAYS FAVORED VOTES FOR WOMEN, SAYS LABOR LEADER

ORGANIZATION WARMLY DEFENDED

Mount Angel Wins Last Chautauqua Game Easily And Is Awarded Pennant—Fine Program Today

John Mitchell, America's peerless labor leader and probably the most modest "big man" in the United States Saturday thrilled a great sympathetic audience of 3,500 Chautauqua people with his great logical lecture, "The Philosophy, Purposes and Ideals of the Trades Union Movement." The great labor champion created a wave of sympathy that was remarkable for an audience consisting of comparatively few union men. Whether it was forceful delivery, his masterly argument in favor of trade unionism, or his extreme modesty in excluding entirely from his talk, any reference of his own great achievements for the cause, that inspired and enabled his spellbound hearers to see the labor movement from a new viewpoint, it is difficult to say. Only once did Mr. Mitchell mention his own career and that was after the flowery introductory speech of Secretary Young of the Oregon Federation. "Experience has taught me one thing," said Mr. Mitchell. "Keep your eyes on the star—but your feet on the ground." With this little introduction he plunged at once into his subject-matter of his logical heart-to-heart analysis of union labor and in an hour and thirty minutes had won the genuine admiration of his audience for himself and for his work.

SCHUEBEL KEEPS AFTER ENTERPRISE

LAWYER AGGRIEVED BECAUSE HIS COMPLAINT WAS PUBLISHED IN FULL

IT CONTAINED SCHOENRER "AD"

Attorney For Plaintiff Intimates Supplemental Paper Will Be Filed—Motion to Strike Out Overruled

Chris Schuebel, who is suing the Morning Enterprise for $10,000 damages for alleged libel for publishing an advertisement of Gustav Schoenrer, President of the Deutsche Verein of Clackamas County, and Vice-President of the German Societies of Oregon, has more fault to find with the only daily newspaper published between Portland and Salem. Through his attorney, C. D. Latourette, Mr. Schuebel Saturday asked for five days in which to file a supplemental complaint, alleging as additional grounds for damages that the Morning Enterprise erred in publishing in full the original complaint—a public document—filed by Mr. Schuebel. This complaint, written by Mr. Schuebel's lawyers, Messrs. Latourette and U'Ren, gave as the cause of action the advertisement of Mr. Schoenrer, and incorporated the advertisement. The Morning Enterprise published the whole thing, advertisement and all, as did at least one of the Portland papers. It had to do it to give the news.

When Mr. Schuebel after his original complaint was thrown out of court a demurrer to it having been sustained, filed his amended complaint, the advertisement was included in that, and the Morning Enterprise, in order to furnish the news to its readers, again published the whole thing. Now Mr. Schuebel, through his lawyer, in asking for five days in which to file a supplemental complaint, intimates that the paper had no right to republish the advertisement—it quoted his own complaint, which contained the advertisement, verbatim.

In calling attention to the advertisement in arguing against a motion to strike out parts of the amended petition in Judge Campbell's Court Saturday morning, Mr. Latourette read the advertisement which Mr. Schoenrer inserted in the Morning Enterprise.

Judge Campbell overruled the motion to strike out certain parts of the amended complaint and gave the plaintiff five days in which to file a supplemental complaint. George C. Brownell and J. E. Hedges are attorneys for the defendant.

In his amended petition Mr. Schuebel says:

"That certain parts of said article so written, signed and published to-wit: (quoting the advertisement.)

"Neither can I understand how a person (meaning plaintiff) can afford to spend hundreds of dollars for the small recompensation he can honestly get if elected to the legislature."

"Mr. Schuebel (Meaning plaintiff) tries to make his audience believe that the 'interests' or certain parties 'have bought me.' Be not deceived! Not I, but he has been bought, if signs fall not, and because he is used to being bought and sold, as everybody knows, he made an effort to buy me in my own house. This happened March 31, 1912."

"Whether they want politicians and demagogues (meaning plaintiff) who seek only their own honor and welfare who trample on the rights and honor of their fellowmen and who
