SINGLE TAX AND SOCIALISM

Socialism is in short the belief that riches should be divided and the present generation given a new start on an equal footing, everyone with the same amount of capital; a division of earthly possessions. If you have two cows and your neighbor none, give him one, that he may be on an equality. Like the Irishman who after explaining the system to a friend somewhat richer in the world's goods, but still a poor man received the answer that he had converted him; that Rockefeller should divide with him; that the plan was a fine one and should be adopted, but on being asked by his converter for one of his milk goats, then practicing his belief, he was immediately of a change of mind, and a backslider. If those chasing the venemous reptile Single Tax, were put in the shoes of those who would be struck, hurt or killed by its poisonous rattle the answer would be the same as the converted Irishman. It sounds good until we personally are hurt, then

END OF THE LORIMER CASE

The unsetting of Senator Lorimer ends in the only satisfactory way what had grown from a state into a national scandal. Any other result would have been displeasing to that great body of citizens of all parties, who challenged the result of the first investigation, and who forced a second. The vote showed that a number of senators who voted with the Illinoisan on the first test, have been forced to yield to the public opinion so strongly set against him, or to the weight of the new evidence the second investigation brought out, or to both.

The senator, at neither of these investigations, went on the stand to tell his own story under cross-examination. In the two speeches he made in the Senate, he was not only emphatic but dramatic in denunciation of what he termed a conspiracy of his enemies for his political destruction. Had he gone on the stand in his own behalf, and confounded these enemies, and destroyed their plot, with the straightforwardness of a straightforward story, he would have retained his seat. Without this, mere protest and mere declamation were in vain. Mr. Lorimer appears to have been impressed, throughout both inquiries, with a conviction that, even should bribery be established, it should not be held to touch him unless enough votes were shown to have been purchased to wipe out the majority he had on joint ballot, and perhaps not even then unless the bribery could be traced to him. In the beginning a number of senators are said to have coincided with such a view. But public opinion raged against it, and demanded that, when it can be shown that one legislative vote has been bought for the election of a United States senator, with or without his knowledge, his official title shall be held invalid. Although it is possible to say, at the end of the long inquisition, that no evidence was produced connecting Mr. Lorimer personally with any act of bribery, the proof of corruption in the purchase of votes for his election was overwhelming. The people assumed, and no doubt, rightly, that a compact between Democratic and Republican leaders for the defeat of both regular party candidates for senator and the election of another man, to be supported mainly by legislators of the minority party in the joint ballot, must have been grounded in corruption of some kind. The confessions of White, Link, Beckemeyer and Holstow, were only confirmatory of this public suspicion—this public instinct, let us say. The fate which has overtaken Lorimer, an able, energetic and public-spirited man of exemplary private life, should serve as constant warning against all such interparty cabals in future.

At the Portland Theaters

Last Car Leaves for Oregon City At Midnight.

Cathrine Countiss has come and conquered again, and her loyal admirers delight in the success of her summer season, so brilliantly begun at that most refreshing of cold air theaters, the Holbig, corner of Seventh and Taylor streets, where crowded houses testify enjoyment of fine acting and high class plays.

For her third week, beginning Sunday, July 28th, Miss Countiss appears in one of her most famous characterizations, the grimy-faced little slave of the London lodging house, in "Merry Mary Ann," a delightful blending of laughter and tears, conceived by the famous English playwright, Israel Zangwill. Mary Ann is an uncouth but sweet and lovable little country lass, whose evolutions into a fine lady involves her love affair with a romantic young composer, to be impersonated by the dashing and popular player, Sydney Ayres.

Miss Countiss is showing fine art and great versatility. She is offering high-class plays, magnificently staged, and acted by players of distinction a series of exceptional summer night treats. Society is turning out strong in her support, and the vast matinee audiences crowd the theatre to capacity limit.

In preparation is the dramatization of the enormously popular story, "The Awakening of Helena Richie," in which Miss Countiss starred after Margaret Anglin.

The Drunkard's Cloak

In the time of the commonwealth in England the magistrates of Newcastle-upon-Tyne punished drunkards by making them carry a tub called the drunkard's cloak. This tub was worn bottom upward, there being a hole at the bottom for the head and two smaller holes in the sides for the hands to pass through, and thus ridiculously attired the delinquent was made to walk through the streets of the town for as long a time as the magistrates thought proper to order, according to the grossness of the offense.

Senator Tillman Congratulates Dr. Wilson on His Nomination

THERE was one pathetic incident in the midst of the rejoicing at Sea Girt over the nomination of Dr. Woodrow Wilson. It occurred when Senator Tillman of South Carolina called at the governor's summer home to congratulate him. Broken by long illness, the veteran Democrat clasped the hand of the newly acclaimed leader of his party and assured him of his good wishes. He was most demonstrative, however, when addressing Mrs. Wilson, to whom he said several times, "I expect to see you the next lady of the White House." It is not long since Senator Tillman issued an address to the voters of South Carolina in which he asked for a renomination, expressing his desire to die in harness. He has been in the senate since 1895 and has been one of the most forceful of its members. Early in his political career he earned the name of "Pitchfork" Tillman for his violence in debate, but of late years he has expressed his views—always decided—without less vehemence. Though he has made many enemies, he is one of the most respected men in the senate.

BIBLE CLASS QUESTION CLUB OFFERS RARE CHANCE

We publish today the second of a series of suggestive questions on the International Sunday School Lessons. For some time these questions have been stirring a great deal of interest. They are published in nearly a thousand newspaper towns and are studied by millions of readers. They are received warmly by the public and enthusiastically endorsed by clergymen of all the churches. Sunday school superintendents, teachers and adult Bible class scholars use them in every town where they are published, and the general public are much interested.

Contracting for this unique Bible study question service forms the Morning Enterprise and its readers into a local club of one of the classes of the International Press Bible Question Club, and gives the right for all our readers to compete for some very valuable prizes. There are four classes organized each year composed of the newspapers which take up the publication of these questions at four different periods, viz: Those that commence April-June are Class A; July-September are Class B; October-December are Class C; and January-March are Class D. Hence the Morning Enterprise local club belongs to Class B. There are fifty valuable prizes to be given to our class: Five solid gold medals, five sterling silver medals, five teachers' Bibles, price $5.50 each, and thirty-five copies of the book "The Heart of Christianity," price $1.50 each. The medals are specially designed and engraved and each will be inscribed with the name of the winner. The conditions of the contest are so simple that any person can comply with them. The contest will not commence until the questions have been published thirteen weeks, in order to give everybody a chance to become familiar with them. One condition is that the questions must be read each week and as the Morning Enterprise will be necessary for this, you had better send in your subscription at once.

If there are five or more contestants from your local club, and no one of them has won a prize as above provided, there will, in that event, be a special local prize of solid silver medal, suitably engraved with the name of the winner, awarded to the one who has the highest marks among the contestants of our club, in the written examination.

Your Questions Answered. If you would like to have answered any particular question each or any week from "The Suggestive Questions on the Sunday School Lesson" by Rev. Dr. Linscott, send in your request to this office giving the date of the lesson and the number of the question you wish answered. You may select any question except the one indicated that it may be answered in writing by members of the club. Dr. Linscott will answer the questions either in these columns or by mail through this office. Don't forget to state what benefit these "Suggestive Questions" are to you. Give your full name and address. Send your letters to the Question Editor of the Morning Enterprise.

Questions for July 28. (Copyright, 1911, by Rev. T. S. Linscott, D. D.) The Wheat and the Tares. Mt. xiii:24-30, 36-43. Golden Text—Gather ye together first the tares and bind them in bundles to burn them, but gather the wheat into my barn. Matt. xiii:30. (1) Verses 24-25—What does the kingdom of heaven here stand for? (2) Would you say, and why, that Jesus here meant that the church as a visible society on earth contains both good and bad people? (3) What is the difference in the results as between good seed and bad seed as suggested in this parable? (4) What in this parable stands for wheat and what for tares? (5) What resemblance is there between the wheat and the tares? (6) If Christ stands for the man who sowed "good seed," whom does the enemy stand for who sowed the tares? (7) What chance would Satan have to sow tares if people kept wide awake? (8) Verse 26—Can "tares," or sin, ever be regarded as another form of BITULITHIC CHOSEN AT LEBANON. Lots of Competition Among a Large Number of Bidders. At an adjourned meeting of the City Council, the bids for the paving of a mile of Lebanon streets was awarded to the Federal Construction Co. says the Oregonian. There was an unusually large number of bidders for the work here and for a large variety of paving. After thorough investigation of all the different kinds of pavement, the council adopted the Bitulithic. One of the leading inducements for the selection of this kind was the remarkable record for durability it is making elsewhere. The area to be paved is a little more than 25,000 square yards and the completed work, including curbs and drains, makes the total cost of public improvements for the city for this year exceed $112,000.

GLADSTONE HIGH SCHOOL OPPOSED

o'clock to eight o'clock p. m. an election will be held to decide the two following questions: "1. Shall District No. 115 provide four years high school instruction either in Gladstone or elsewhere?" "2. If the above question is decided in the affirmative, then shall District No. 115 provide and maintain a complete high school at home or shall all eligible high school pupils be sent to Oregon City high school, tuition and transportation being paid by the district?" The following itemized statement is an estimate of the cost for the first year of a high school at home: Furniture $340.00, Teacher 675.00, Equipment 200.00, Additional janitor work 45.00, Additional fuel 35.00, Incidentals 20.00. Total $1305.00. To raise $1305.00 would require a special tax levy of three mills in addition to the five mills for the regular eight grades. "Tuition in the Oregon City High School and car fare will cost $38.00 per year for each pupil. Should ten pupils in Gladstone School District elect to continue their studies in high school, the cost to the district would be $380; should every boy and girl in the district who is eligible for the high school choose to go, the cost to the district would be $322. Therefore by sending its high school pupils to Oregon City the district would save from $73.00 to $92.50 per year. "The Attorney General has just ruled that it is legal for a district to send its high school pupils to another district and pay their transportation and tuition.

Respectfully, "H. O. PADDOCK, "E. P. CARTER, "HUGH HALL, "Members of the Board."

Embarrassing.

NOTICES

Notice to Creditors Notice is hereby given that the undersigned has been duly appointed by the County Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Clackamas, Executor of the estate of John C. Jaeger, deceased. All persons having claims against said estate are requested to present them to me at my residence near Sherwood, Oregon, properly verified as by law required, within six months from the date hereof. Date of first publication July 14, 1912. MARIE JAEGER, Executor of the estate of John C. Jaeger, deceased. RALPH R. DUTWAY, Attorney for Executor.

Summons

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Clackamas County. Daniel Arthur Brown, Plaintiff, vs. Emma Dell Brown, Defendant. To Emma Dell Brown, Defendant: In the name of the State of Oregon: You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed in the above entitled court and cause on or before the 29th day of July, 1912, the same being six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons as required by law, and if you do not so appear and answer the complaint, the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief prayed for in the complaint, to-wit: for a decree forever dissolving the bonds of matrimony and the marriage contract now existing between plaintiff and defendant and such other and further relief as to this court may seem meet and proper in the premises.

This summons is served upon you by publication by authority of an order made and entered in the above entitled court and cause by the Hon. J. U. Campbell, Judge of the above named court on the 15th day of June, 1912. W. C. CAMPBELL, Attorney for Plaintiff. Attorney's address, 514 Buchanan Bldg., Portland, Oregon. Date of first publication June 16, 1912. Date of last publication July 28, 1912.

Summons

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Clackamas County. Mabel M. Boulton, Plaintiff, vs. Edward A. Boulton, Defendant. To Edward A. Boulton, Defendant: In the name of the State of Oregon: you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled court and cause on or before the 29th day of July, 1912, and if you fail so to appear and answer, judgment and decree will be taken against you for want thereof as specified in the said complaint to-wit: For a decree dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff and defendant and for such other and further relief as to the Court may seem meet and equitable.

This summons is served by publication thereof in the Morning Enterprise, a newspaper printed and published at Oregon City, Oregon, by order of Circuit Judge, J. U. Campbell, made, dated and filed therein on the 15th day of June, 1912, which said order requires that summons in this suit be published once a week for six consecutive weeks. W. J. MAKELIM, Attorney for Plaintiff. Date of first publication hereof, June 16th, 1912. Date of last publication hereof, July 28th, 1912.

Summons

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Clackamas. Carrie French, plaintiff, vs. Ray C. French, defendant. To Ray C. French, the above named defendant: In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled court and cause, on or before the 29th day of August, 1912, said date being after the expiration of six weeks from the first publication of this summons. If you fail to appear and answer, the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded in the complaint, to-wit, for a decree of divorce forever dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant on the ground of cruel and inhuman treatment and desertion.

This summons is published once a week, for six consecutive weeks by order of J. U. Campbell, Judge of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the fifth judicial district. Dated the 13th day of July, 1912. Date of first publication July 14, 1912. Date of last publication August 28, 1912. E. T. REHFELD, Attorney for plaintiff, 411 Sweetland building, Portland, Oregon.

All Americans Should Reciprocate the Great Love China Bears This Country

By the Right Rev. J. W. BASHFORD, M. E. Bishop of China

EVERY citizen of the United States must TAKE SOME OF THE RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE REPUBLIC IN CHINA.

You Americans who must have been startled at the appearance of the Chinese republic, you Americans who never set foot in China or taught a Chinese boy in America—even you CANNOT ESCAPE SOME RESPONSIBILITY.

YOU HAVE SENT FORWARD MISSIONARIES AND HAVE Poured OUT MONEY FOR SCHOOLS AND CHURCHES AND HOSPITALS AND HAVE Nourished THE FAMINE VICTIMS UNTIL YOU HAVE COMPELLED THE CHINESE TO LOVE THE VERY NAME OF AMERICA ABOVE THE NAME OF EVERY OTHER LAND ON EARTH.

You have built up such homes and schools and churches as have made the young Chinese entering them and sharing their blessings return to China tenfold MORE AMERICAN THAN YOU ARE YOURSELVES.

Are not our hearts drawn to China by the fact that in the formation of their constitution they have not drawn a single line from any political document in European history, but have taken our bill of rights and our AMERICAN CONSTITUTION and have made them the constitution of the Chinese republic?

You Can Save Money only while you have money. When old age comes along don't let it be fettered by the folly of your younger days. It is pitiable to be old and poor.
