TAFFETA FROCK. Again the modish taffeta frock is seen in the accompanying design. This is made very simply, relying on its smartness of line rather than elaboration of trimming. It was developed in the perennially popular navy blue with pleated ruchings and frills of the material. The bodice which closes in the front with little buckles and blue velvet bows is drawn back at the waistline showing a vest of lace. Lace also fills the "V" shaped neck. Down the center seam of the skirt the same little bows that trim the bodice are placed. The bottom of the skirt is finished by a shaped band of lace.

DARROW CIPHER MESSAGES PUZZLE

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Aug. 1.—A controversy arose at the resumption of the Darrow bribery trial today, over the cipher telegrams which passed between those interested in the McNamara defense, copies of which had been furnished the Darrow counsel by the prosecution. The defense attorneys asserted that several of the messages could not be deciphered by them and demanded that they be furnished the key to the code. They maintained that the key furnished by Assistant District Attorney Ford yesterday was insufficient. The latter replied that he had no other code. After a half hour had been consumed by arguments, Clarence S. Darrow, the defendant, took the stand for further cross-examination. Mr. Ford resumed his inquiry into the telegrams which passed between the defendant and Attorney Leo M. Rappaport, of Indianapolis, counsel for the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers.

PARTY PLANS FISHING AND HUNTING TRIP

A good time is in store for the hunting and fishing party composed of Dr. G. L. Jenkins, Jake Smith, Frank Freeman, W. B. Stokes and H. L. Young, that will leave this city Saturday evening for the Bee Hive Ranch in the Molalla country. The work about the camp will be done in a most systematic manner, each member of the party knowing his duty before leaving the city. Dr. Jenkins will stretch the tent as he is the tallest man in the party. Dr. Jenkins also will look out for the cutting and "stirring" up of the fir boughs, which will be used for the beds. Frank Freeman, and W. N. Stokes, the muscular men of the party have been assigned the duty of gathering the fuel, and if they do not keep the cook, Harry Young, well supplied with fire wood, they will be punished by being allowed nothing but water and flapjacks. Young, the only man in the party who has had any experience in the culinary line, will be the camp cook. He made such a reputation in preparing salad for the Commercial Club entertainments that he was at once voted by the young men comprising the camping party to have charge of the kitchen. Each man before leaving this city will be weighed, and those who lose in weight will be served a banquet by Mr. Young upon their return. Those who gain in flesh, will have to give a banquet in honor of the chef. Mr. Young is gathering all of the recipe books he can find, and has lost considerable sleep during the past fortnight arranging for the menus. Jake Smith, although not fond of manipulating the dish rag, drew the "lucky" card in having the position of dishwasher handed to him. He stated that this was the worst "lemon" that he had ever been handed, but rather than stay at home he was glad to accept the honor of being dishwasher of the "Bee Hive Camp."

MOOSE DRILL TEAM DOES FINE WORK

At the regular meeting of lodge 961 of the Loyal Order of Moose of this city, for the first time the drill team, had its first chance to show what it could do, and it must be said that it acquitted itself exceedingly well. This was the first initiation which the lodge has had since the charter closed, and, although the fact was not widely known, the boys turned out in great number and an enthusiastic meeting at which almost half the members were present to greet the new member of the herd. Great praise is due to the entertainment committee, which certainly surpassed itself not only on service, but in the dainty way in which the lunch was served. Another initiation will be held at the next meeting of the lodge, and, according to the present arrangements, a week later a dance will be given by the degree team.

AMERICANS IN MEXICO APPEAL FOR HELP

EL PASO, Tex., Aug. 1.—Scores of messages have been sent to Washington from El Paso and other border towns, appealing to the United States to take some steps which will secure protection for Americans in Mexico. In many instances messages are being sent in the names of entire communities as in the case of one from Marfa addressed to Congressman W. R. Smith. The message said: "If the United States cannot handle the Mexican situation, let Presidio County handle it." The appeals, in most cases, are being sent to Congressmen and Senators, but some have been directed to the White House. The arrival last night of two trainloads of refugees from the Mormon colonies of Pachuca, Chuchupa and Garcia has brought the number here to a full 2500. O. P. Brown, one of the Mormon bishops, in a note to a local paper, declares that the "time has come for the American people to act, if the Mexican government is unable and the United States is unwilling to protect its people in a foreign land."

SUICIDE ATTEMPT ALLEGED IN GRACE TRIAL

ATLANTA, Ga., Aug. 1.—Attorney Branch in outlining the defence of his client, Mrs. Daisy Grace, accused of attempting to murder her husband charged today that Grace's wound was self inflicted following a quarrel with his wife. The quarrel, he declared, was over the power of attorney given to Grace by his wife and which Grace expected to use in Philadelphia March 8, when he disposed of his wife's property there. The defense announced that 14 witnesses, including two doctors and a nurse, who are expected to testify that Mrs. Grace is soon to become a mother, would be called by the defense. Attorney Branch bitterly denounced the prosecution. He promised to show that Grace did nothing for a livelihood and that his wife spent $20,000 in setting him up in business. Branch further asserted that Grace plotted to get his wife's money and treated her cruelly. The defendant will testify tomorrow.

AUTOMOBILE STRIKES VETERAN AT MARATHON

BELLINGHAM, Wash., Aug. 1.—Near the end of the sensational Marathon race to the summit of Mount Baker and return, which started last night and ended this morning, the only serious accident of the event occurred here, when the automobile, carrying Westerlund, the last of the racers to arrive, skidded in rounding a corner within a few feet of the finish, crashing into a crowd of spectators and crushing A. A. Rogers, a Civil War veteran and a prominent politician. Rogers suffered a broken leg and severe cuts on the head, and is hurt internally. At the hospital little hope is expressed that he will live.

OLD POTATOES ARE DRUG ON MARKET

What to do with the fairly liberal stocks of old potatoes that remain is a problem that commission men are trying to fathom. It has been found impossible to sell the stock recently, and almost every day adds to the volume of offerings. While 25c a cental was offered about a week ago for small supply, handlers did not believe that this price was sufficient, therefore refused to sell. The result is that no other offers have been received for the tubers, and they are taking up valuable room in the wholesale houses, besides being the cause of friction between shippers and receivers. The former seem to be of the opinion that the commission men are not trying to sell them, while the latter are worrying themselves because of their inability to please the shipper. Prevailing Oregon City prices are as follows: DRIED FRUITS—(Buying), Prunes on basis 6 to 8 cents. HIDES—(Buying), Green hides 6c to 7c; salters 7c; dry hides 12 c to 14c; sheep pelts 50c to 55c each. EGGS—Oregon ranch eggs, 22c case count; 23c candeled. FEED—(Selling), Shorts $25; bran $28; process barley $40 per ton. FLOUR—$4.60 to 5.50. POTATOES—New, about 1c per lb. POULTRY—(Buying), Hens 11c to 13c; spring 17c to 20c, and roosters 8c; stags 12c. HAY—(Buying), Timothy out of market; clover at $8; oat hay, best, $10; mixed $9 to $11; alfalfa $15 to $16.50. OATS—(Buying), $30.00 to $36.50, wheat 90c bu.; oil meal, selling about $48.00; Shay Brook dairy feed $1.30 per hundred pounds. Butter, Poultry, Eggs.
