GAYNOR BEGS "CHEW" FROM CITY LABORER

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—Mayor Gaynor was leaving the city hall last night, and about to enter his automobile, when he spied a park laborer in the act of taking a "chew" of tobacco from a paper package. The Mayor turned to the laborer and said:

"Chewing tobacco?"
 "Yes," replied the man.
 "Let's have some?"
 "But, your honor, you wouldn't care for this kind?"
 "Wouldn't I though? Watch me," replied the Mayor, reaching for the bag.

He extracted half of its contents, placed it in his mouth, said "Thank you," and boarded his automobile.

If it happened it is in the Enterprise.

Oats contracts are beginning to be shown at Falouse points. Purchases are reported there around $29 a ton which means $24.50 here. The business is nominal.

Bids for barley are again reduced owing to the bearishness in the California situation. Dealers are not offering above $23 to $23.50 generally and are not anxious to take hold at the high figure. Ideas of brewers continue bearish and for that reason there is little if any difference between that grade and feed.

Flour market is quiet for patent with no change in the price of old stock. New patent prices are not yet named. Export inquiries are again coming.
