

MRS. WISNER WRITES OF COLD IN URUGUAY

Information was received Friday by Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Pratt from their daughter, Mrs. J. N. Wisner, who is at Maldonado, Uruguay, South America, where Mr. Wisner is a director of the Government Fish hatcheries...

RAY YOUNG IS HAVING FINE TIME HARVESTING

Ray Young, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Young of this city, is spending his vacation with his uncle, C. E. Young, a stockman of Prosser, Wash. C. E. Young is one of the owners of a 3000 acre ranch...

neary completed: the Daugherty paint shop is ready for the paint; Engle residence is about completed; work has begun on Mrs. E. E. Judd's dwelling in Everhart's Addition...

Miss Gertrude Merritt, of Dubuque, Iowa, arrived on Tuesday for a visit with Miss Mable Morse. J. E. Cody, who left Oregon City to try to swim to Portland was watched by a number of interested persons...

Stories from Out of Town

CARUS.

The hum of the binders are heard everywhere, and some have commenced stacking their grain. We hope the good weather continues until harvesting is over. Mrs. Driscoll was the guest of Mrs. T. H. Davies Sunday.

Dix brothers.

W. H. Wettlaufer and daughter, Pansy, were in town last week. Mrs. Haag was buried last Wednesday and the funeral services were conducted by Rev. Hepp, of Milwaukie.

Miss Lydia Buol is home from Portland where she visited her parents. There was a surprise party given at J. J. Gard's last Saturday evening, July 27. There was a large attendance and all had a good time.

W. Douglass, of Eagle Creek, was in Clarks last week. Miss Elsa Elmer came home from Portland, where she has been attending school.

Miss Esther Haag, of Portland, is visiting her cousin, Miss Ida Haag, for a few weeks. Ed Buol is cutting hay for Sam Elmer at present.

EAGLE CREEK.

This is fine weather we are enjoying. Some of the farmers have commenced cutting their grain. Mrs. E. S. Hall, of Seattle, accompanied by her daughters, Vesper and Ruth, have been the guest of Mrs. Clark for about three weeks. They left last Friday for home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Cook spent last Wednesday with Mr. Cook's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Howlett. Malcolm Woodie was over helping his brothers, Guy and Ray, with their grain last week.

Mrs. Clark and Mrs. Hall called on Mr. and Mrs. Howlett last Tuesday. Miss Ida Sweeney, who has been visiting with her sister, Mrs. Katie Douglas, for a few days, left last Wednesday for her home in Stevenson, Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Woodie were over calling on Mr. and Mrs. Howlett last Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglas and daughters, Mildred and Floris, left last Wednesday for Eastern Oregon, where Mr. Douglas will tend separately for his uncle, George Douglas, and Mrs. Douglas will visit with her sister, Mrs. Frank Innes, of Grass Valley, for a few weeks.

Mrs. Guy Woodie and Miss Myrtle Woodie spent last Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Viola Douglass and Miss Bina Douglass. Mrs. R. B. Gibson dined with Mr. and Mrs. Howlett last Saturday evening.

Mrs. Viola Douglass made a return trip to Portland on Saturday last. R. E. Gibson was a Barton visitor on Saturday afternoon. Claude Woodie shingled his grandfather Howlett's woodshed last week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Kitzmiller attended the church services at Dover Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Howlett, Malcolm and Joey Woodie were the guests at dinner of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Gibson on Sunday.

Mrs. Viola Douglass, Mrs. Kate Douglass and Miss Bina called at the home of R. B. Gibson Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Huntington, of Portland, were visiting with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Huntington, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Strahl and Mr. and Mrs. Drobot attended the big meeting and basket dinner at Dover Sunday. Ed Chapman, who has been visiting in Portland and La Center, Washington for several days, returned to this neighborhood Sunday evening.

Carl Douglass left on Monday for Eastern Oregon, where he intends helping his uncle, George Douglass, through the threshing season. Henry Udell and Charles Clester accompanied him. They went over the mountains. Bennett Elliott, of Powell Valley, with an auto, was seen in this neighborhood Sunday.

Many of our people here attended the Spiritualist camp meeting at New Era Sunday. Miss Mary Manning is home on a visit. David Moehnke is getting his threshing machine ready for the season. Harvesting is on in full blast.

The Hessian fly has affected the wheat crop. John Moehnke lost another horse last week. Herman Moehnke gave another one of his social dances last Wednesday night. This was in honor of his wife's birthday. Everybody had a good time, as usual.

The Shubel nine played the Mullno team at Mullno Sunday. The score was 20 to 7 in favor of Shubel. This makes fifteen straight games for the Shubel team this year. They play the Molalla Grays next Sunday, at Molalla. The barn dance at Mr. Berg's last Saturday night was well attended, and everybody had a good time.

Are you watching Molalla grow? The Powell field is up and covered; the Toben building is ready for the nearby completed: the Daugherty paint shop is ready for the paint; Engle residence is about completed; work has begun on Mrs. E. E. Judd's dwelling in Everhart's Addition; the bank building will be commenced this week. Banking, introductory, will be established and carried on for three months in the old Adams' wood shed, by which time the new building will be completed.

The S. P. R. R. Survey has again come and gone and no one seems unduly excited, yet the Clackamas Southern is steadily grading along just as if the Southern Pacific never intended to build a railroad Molalla-ward.

Teasel harvest is now on, as well as clover seed and winter sown grain. Everybody is now more than occupied. C. Bonaker and J. W. Thomas are recovering from their auto injuries, which happened to their right hands some two months ago.

George Daugherty has rebuilt his dwelling, adding considerable to its rooming capacity. His brother, Otis Ray, was the boss carpenter. Dr. Hatton, of Illinois, and cousin, Mrs. Eliza Watts, of Stone, were visiting relatives about Molalla last week.

G. Starkweather and family, of Arista, and Miss Weeks, of Portland, made a visit at Oak Point Farm Saturday and Sunday, taking in the Wilboit Springs also. Mr. Starkweather had nine people in his Winton machine and "towed" another car with five people, all riding, into the Springs from the Fox place.

Mrs. Nancy Engle, Mrs. Margaret Engle, Miss Clara Engle and Mrs. Elizabeth Thomas will visit Mrs. Starkweather, of Oak Grove, this week. Mrs. Starkweather once lived on the Molalla in Pioneer days and is 80 years old.

Mrs. Isabel Hilton is quite ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. H. McArthur, on Railroad Ave. Mrs. L. E. Bentley and two daughters returned home Monday, after a trip of ten days' visiting relatives at Woodburn and other Oregon towns.

Mrs. M. M. Hall, of Portland, spent the day Friday with Mrs. Mary Warren and family on the Outfield road. H. E. Werner and family expect to move back to their home in Willamette in a few days. Mr. Werner has decided not to go into business here again.

Carl Nehren's new house is nearing completion, and the carpenters will put on the finishing this next month. Carl and his mother will occupy the house when completed. A new well has been dug on the school grounds to supply water for the new system the school board is putting in this summer.

The drug store will probably be reopened in a few days by a competent druggist with a full line of drugs and stationery. James Bunnell met with a painful accident in Washington a few days ago and is in the hospital in a critical condition. His father, C. B. Bunnell received the news Tuesday morning.

JENNINGS LODGE.

The annual camp meeting and conventions of the Evangelical Association at the River View Grove at this place on July 30th. Already people are beginning to arrive and this place puts on a very busy appearance. The dates of the conventions and camp meeting are July 30th to August 8th.

A special program for the conventions is as follows: 8 P. M. on July 30, opening of the camp meeting, by the Presiding Elder Rev. Hornschuh. Wednesday, July 31—10 A. M. "Mormanism in the Light of God's Word," W. E. Simpson; 2:30, Sermon, H. C. Roloff; 7:30 P. M., Sermon, S. Conklin.

Thursday, August 1—10 A. M. "Spiritism in the Light of God's Word," S. A. Stewart; 2:30 P. M., sermon, C. S. Bergstesser; 7:30 P. M., sermon, M. Heverling.

Friday, August 2—10 A. M., "Eddysim in the Light of God's Word," E. Radebaugh; 1:45 P. M., "Woman's Missionary Society's program, Devotions," Mrs. H. Albright; "The Children's Work," Mrs. C. S. Bradford; Chorus, Ladies of W. M. S.; Tithing, Mrs. Nettie Myers; Reading, "Dorothy's Nero," Kathryn Voegelien; "Glimpses of Our Missionaries," Mrs. N. Shupp; Duet, Mrs. Clark and Mrs. Bradford; Address, Mrs. Banks, returned missionary from Africa; 7:30 P. M., sermon, H. R. Gell.

Saturday, August 3—10 A. M., Round Table, Opening of Question Box; 2:30 P. M., sermon, H. Schroenicht; 7:30 P. M., sermon, E. Murer.

Sunday, August 4—9:45, Children's service, superintended by the League President; 10:45 A. M., sermon, by N. Shupp; 2 P. M., German sermon, Otto Schultz; 7:30, sermon, F. W. Lauener.

Mrs. Simones, of Texas, will visit with her sister, Mrs. Ross, and also her mother at Beaverton. Mrs. Simones expects to spend a year in Oregon.

Wednesday evening a social will be given at the Jennings Lodge school house. A literary program has been arranged and cake and ice cream will be served, the proceeds to be given to Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Card, whose home was recently destroyed by fire.

Mr. and Mrs. Cooper, of Chittam, Oregon, have visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Isiah Shenefeld for a week. Rev. Heverling, of Everett, Washington, and Rev. F. W. Culver, of Portland, were callers at the Hugh Roberts home on Friday.

Mrs. Morgan, of Forest Grove, who camped at the Chautauqua, visited at the home of Mrs. Tabor on Saturday last. The Morgans' and Tabors' were Iowa friends.

Mrs. Anna Stover, wife of our Lodge groceryman, won a prize in the potato race at the grocers picnic at Bonneville on Wednesday last. The prize was a case of canned fruits.

The H. C. Palnton home and the general store at this place are having new coats of paint. Mr. and Mrs. Lawnsdowne have returned home, after a two weeks' stay in Portland, where they were entertaining Seattle friends.

Charles Truscott has returned home after an enjoyable trip to the Potlatch in Seattle. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Webb were overnight visitors at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. Chas. Redmond, on Tuesday last.

Mrs. Hurley, a former resident of Risley, but now of San Diego, will leave by steamer on Tuesday of this week to make an indefinite visit with her daughter, Mrs. Labonwich, of Risley. Mrs. Hurley is an Oregon pioneer, and is well known both at Oregon City and this place.

The many friends of Mrs. Minnie Terry were sorry to hear of her continued illness, having been laid up for some time with wrenched shoulders. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Terry are trying ranch life a few miles from San Diego, California.

H. C. Palnton has completed a drilled well for Mr. Tabor near Meldrum. Elmer Boardman, of Aurora, a former resident of this place, was in this vicinity on Monday to hire hop pickers. Mr. Boardman reports he has the best crop of hops he has ever raised at his yards near Aurora.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McGovern, of Milwaukie, and Miss Leah McGovern of Waiteburg, Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Merritt and children, of Portland have been recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Redmond. Rev. Noah Sharp and wife, of Tacoma, will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Roberts this week.

Mrs. Stover, of Burlington, entertained with a dinner party on Sunday in honor of her daughter's birthday, and her son's wedding anniversary. The guests number fourteen and Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Stover, of this place, attended.

A petition for a county bridge to cross the Clackamas near its mouth is being circulated at this place with OAK GROVE.

Mrs. Isabel Hilton is quite ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. H. McArthur, on Railroad Ave. Mrs. L. E. Bentley and two daughters returned home Monday, after a trip of ten days' visiting relatives at Woodburn and other Oregon towns.

Mrs. M. M. Hall, of Portland, spent the day Friday with Mrs. Mary Warren and family on the Outfield road. H. E. Werner and family expect to move back to their home in Willamette in a few days. Mr. Werner has decided not to go into business here again.

Carl Nehren's new house is nearing completion, and the carpenters will put on the finishing this next month. Carl and his mother will occupy the house when completed. A new well has been dug on the school grounds to supply water for the new system the school board is putting in this summer.

The drug store will probably be reopened in a few days by a competent druggist with a full line of drugs and stationery. James Bunnell met with a painful accident in Washington a few days ago and is in the hospital in a critical condition. His father, C. B. Bunnell received the news Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Gladall are building a pretty bungalow on their lots in the Bunnell tract.

BEAVER CREEK.

Everybody is busy harvesting in our little burg. Otto Moehneke was baling hay for H. Hallman Tuesday. This is the first time that they have baled this year.

Mrs. D. W. Thomas and daughter, Blodden, have gone for a month's vacation to Auburn, Washington, to visit with relatives. Miss Leora Bennett, of Orenco, was calling on some of the Beaver Creek people last week.

A number from here attended the camp meeting at New Era. We are glad to learn that Miss Lena Studerman is improving from her illness.

Mrs. Daud Heart is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Daniels. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Steiner, who have been in the country for some time, have returned to their home in Portland.

Mr. Ab Thomas is working at the Harris' old mill, which is known as the Detrich Brothers mill. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Spang called on the Spence family Sunday.

Mrs. T. H. Davies made a trip to Beaver Creek Monday. Ted Hughes who is working at Chinook spent Sunday with his family. Mrs. Fred Steiner called on Mrs. Henry Hollman Tuesday.

Miss Hazel Mills, who has been visiting at Echo, was also visiting with Miss Ceco Spence and Miss Mary Parry, of Beaver Creek. Herman Schmit, a hop grower of

Why Not Keep Cool? Electric Irons Electric Toaster Electric Table Lamps And Electric Appliances Of Every Description Will Help Solve the Problem Let Us Show You. The Portland Railway Light & Power Co. Carry a full line at their local office on MAIN STREET in the BEAVER BLDG.

Needy, who passed through this burg one day this week looking for hop pickers, says the hops are in good condition this year. Miss Bertha Bullard has returned home after an extended visit with relatives in Portland. Miss McNaughton, of Seattle in enjoying her vacation with her friend, Miss Marie Harvey. Fred J. Meindl, of Sellwood, visited at Mountain Ash Farm Sunday. He was accompanied here by his son, Lazelle, who has been making his grandparents a visit, Mr. and Mrs. George Lazelle. Mr. and Mrs. George Lazelle, W. A. Dodds and Miss Leslie McDonald attended the Grange at New Era Saturday. The meeting was very interesting. On account of the busy season there was not a very large attendance, but those attending felt well paid.

Mrs. Scheer has returned to her home in Portland, after an extended visit with her son, Henry Scheer. Mrs. Koler and daughter, of Canby, were Sunday guests of Mrs. Mier, they are old time friends and had not met in 14 years so it was a joyful meeting. E. A. Kinkle, of Portland, was a dinner guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Harvey. Twilight school will commence the first Monday in October, with Miss

Loose Leaf Systems and Devices for every kind of business and profession. A 'phone call will bring us, or, better still, come in and view our modern plant. OREGON CITY ENTERPRISE

CLACKAMAS

After three weeks' pleasant outing at Alpine Farm, near Carus, Mr. and Mrs. Hayward are at home again. The new building south of the Rifle Range, owned by J. H. Johnson, though not fully completed, was opened to the public last Sunday as an ice cream and confectionary parlor.

The new light suspended in front of A. Mather's store is a pleasure and convenience to our citizens, especially when alighting from or boarding a late train on a dark night.

J. L. Ashton, principal of the Clackamas school for the ensuing year, and family have taken up their residence in the cottage Mr. Ashton recently bought of H. T. Latham.

J. Pitman has sold his strawberry ranch to W. B. Reynolds and son. Mr. Pitman and family are making arrangements to return to their former home in Texas. We are sorry to lose such pleasant neighbors and good citizens.

Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Hayward, Mrs. J. Pitman and little daughters, Mrs. Frye and two children, Mrs. Stanley Rayner and son, Virchard, of Clackamas, Mrs. Hubbard and friend, from Sunnyside, all went up to New Era Sunday to attend the Spiritualist camp meeting. Some fine instrumental music, two addresses by Mr. and Mrs. Dledsoe, and messages from the spirit world through the latter medium, made an interesting program for the day.

W. W. Smith Tuesday closed a two years' contract with Broughton and Wiggins, of Portland, for piling. Mr. Smith has sent out about 32 carloads of piling under said contract.

A. Mather and W. W. Smith recently purchased 80 acres of timber 8 miles up the Clackamas river, across from Barton. They will go up this week to look over the situation and make arrangements to start a piling camp, etc.

After the Chautauqua vacation, Rev. J. L. Jones resumed preaching services here last Sunday evening. He will preach again next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Other services will be as usual.

A petition for a saloon in this town is in circulation. At least thirty names have been secured.

CLARKS

David Haag, from Washington came home last week to attend his mother's funeral. Adolph Haag, of Idaho also came home last week to attend his mother's funeral.

Mrs. Bergman, who was in this place last week, returned, taking her sister with her to Portland. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bottemiller and daughter, Ida, were in town last Thursday on business.

Lewis Maxson is helping Mr. Bottemiller haul hay. W. G. Kleinsmith and family were picking red huckleberries last week in the hills.

Miss Mary Sullivan went to Seaside with her aunt. Gustave Schiewe is working for