LAST CAR LEAVES FOR OREGON CITY AT MIDNIGHT

THE MUSICAL COMEDY, "LOUISIANA LOU" AT HEILIG THEATRE, August 8, 9, 10. The big musical comedy success, "Louisiana Lou," with Barney Bernard, Sophie Tucker and the La Salle Opera House Company of Chicago, will be the attraction at the Heilig Theatre, Seventh and Taylor streets, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, August 8, 9, 10. Matinee Saturday.

Cathrine Countiss is having a brilliant summer season, attracting big and enthusiastic audiences at the Heilig, Corner of Seventh and Taylor streets, the theatre with the cold-storage ventilating plant, which makes playing a delight, no matter how warm it is outside. She has combined a high class company, headed by Sydney Ayres. The plays are capital and they are staged and gowned magnificently, quite up to the standard of visiting road attractions, and better than some of them that bear the New York stamp.

"The Awakening of Helena Richie" in which Miss Countiss starred season before last, succeeding Margaret Anglin, is to be given for four nights commencing today, and at two bargain matinees on Tuesday and Wednesday. The special matinee on Tuesday has been added because of the enormous popularity among women gained by Margaret Deland's famous story, and because Miss Countiss has generously given up the last half of her week to the touring musical comedy, "Louisiana Lou."

There is a romantic blend of comedy and sentiment in "The Awakening of Helena Richie," depicting life in a quaint Pennsylvania village in the picturesque period of the early 60's. Helena Richie is a young woman who has suffered great injustice and has grown frivolous and careless. It is her overwhelming love for a little adopted boy that awakens her. Miss Countiss has gained her greatest artistic success in this fascinating play.

Miss Countiss, for her fifth week, commencing Sunday, August 11th, will give a revival of Clyde Fitch's brilliant and vivacious comedy, "The Girl With the Green Eyes."

San Francisco received with marked favor the La Salle Opera House production of "Louisiana Lou" which is announced for the Heilig Theatre, August 8, 9, 10, with a matinee Saturday. It is one of the most captivating performances from a musical standpoint, and one of the most enjoyable by reason of its comedy element, offered here in a long time. The principal role has been entrusted in a great measure to San Francisco's old favorite, Barney Bernard, who as Lidoffski offers a strikingly good bit of character work, as well as musical comedy diversion. He has a couple of big song hits and his stories are immensely funny. Sophie Tucker has come back to the Coast even a greater favorite than when she left here. She is now one of the most artistic musical comedy comedienne of the day, and much of the success of "Louisiana Lou" is due to her efforts. She has a great song number in each act, and encore after encore greet her rendition of "The Puritan Prince" in the last act. Bessie De Vois, Helena Sallinger, Harry Halon, Robert O'Conner, Mortimer Weldon, Eleanor Henry, Lester Crawford and the others, are all capable people who have been well cast in this lively musical comedy. The stage effects, costumes and orchestral work could not be improved upon.

MRS. OSMUND'S MOTHER IS DEAD

Mrs. J. W. Hartman, mother of Mrs. Theodore Osmond, of this city, died Friday night at the Good Samaritan Hospital in Portland, after an illness of several weeks of typhoid fever. Mrs. Hartman was well known in Oregon City, having been a frequent visitor to the home of her daughter. The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at the Holman Undertaking Establishment in Portland, and the interment will be in Greenwood Cemetery. Rev. T. F. Bowen will officiate. Mrs. Hartman is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Osmond and a son, George Hartman, of Portland. Her husband died several years ago. She was beloved by all her acquaintances and was a woman of fine accomplishments.

CHARITY.

Charity is a universal duty which it is in every man's power sometimes to practice, since every degree of assistance given to another upon proper motives is an act of charity, and there is scarcely any man in such a state of imbecility as that he may not, on some occasions, benefit his neighbor.—Johnson.

Thermometers.

In America, it is stated, is used the thermometer of Fahrenheit, a German; in Russia that of Leslie, an Englishman; in France that of Celsius, a Swede, and in Germany they use that of Reaumur, a Frenchman.

DANCE IS BIG SUCCESS
About 100 couples enjoyed the dance given by H. Wheeler Saturday night in Busch's hall. The Falls City orchestra furnished the music and the band was forced to answer many encores. The floor committee was composed of H. Wheeler, Ralph Green and W. F. Schooley.

"HAT IN RING" IS NEW GAME OF BOYS

CHICAGO, Aug. 3.—Boys living in the vicinity of Garfield Park have organized a club known as the "Garfield Moosees." The name was taken after one of the group had planned a new game known as "hat in the ring." The game is played around a circle about ten feet in diameter. Seven or eight of the lads toss their hats into the ring and then one designated as the "Bull Moose" holds a baseball with a watchful eye on the other players. It is his part in the game to touch any boy who attempts to get his own hat out of the ring.
