ROSE-LEAF TAFFETA FOR YOUNG GIRL

A girl's dainty dancing frock of rose-leaf taffeta with drapery of self-tone chiffon is sketched in the drawing today. A semi-fitted square shoulder collar surmounts the draped blouse of chiffon and the narrow yoke of heavy Irish lace continues in a narrow band to the knees where it terminates in a tasseled point. A silk-bound band of the lace holds the tunic drapery which is of chiffon. The plain under skirt is of the taffeta, the little short sleeves of chiffon have cuffs of lace piped with the silk.

SISTERS SLAIN AND UNCLE IS SOUGHT

WEAVERVILLE, Cal., Aug. 8.—Kate Gould, 13, and Elba Gould, 16 years of age, sisters were found murdered yesterday afternoon at their home at Steiner's Flat, four miles down the Trinity River from Douglas City. The cabin where the body of Elba Gould was found showed that the girl made a desperate struggle for life. The body of the younger girl was found 50 feet away. Both had been shot.

The girls were the daughters of Mrs. William Lorenz by a former marriage. George Lorenz, brother of William Lorenz, is declared to have been insanely jealous of Elba Gould, who, it is said, did not welcome his attentions. He was left at home with the girls yesterday, and could not be found after the discovery of the bodies. Lorenz is 37 years old and according to friends of the family, recently has shown indications of insanity.

The crime was discovered by a passerby who saw the body of the younger sister in the roadway in front of the cabin. The body and arms of the older girl bore the finger prints of the assassin and the floor was spattered with blood and tufts of hair. She was shot twice, once over the right eye and once through the temple.

William Lorenz had gone down the river a mile to work on his mining claim. He was told of the murder as he returned from work. Mrs. Lorenz who had gone to Douglas City to spend the afternoon, was notified, and the police were summoned from Weaverville. Searching parties scoured the woods until late last night, but found no trace of George Lorenz, and discovered no clues indicating the identity of the murderer.

The Lorenz family came here from San Francisco three months ago and were joined a few days ago by Geo. Lorenz. Friends noted his strange actions and comment was made freely regarding his infatuation for the older sister. William and George Lorenz are sons of a pioneer family of this county. Mrs. Lorenz is the owner of the Hotel Lorenz in Redding.

EL PASO, Tex., Aug. 8.—Advices received here today state that Mexican rebels along the Mexican Central railroad have been fighting for six hours to check the advance guard of the federals from moving on Juarez. The forces met at Villa Amuhedasa, about 100 miles south of here.

RAIN AID TO HOPS, DECLARE GROWERS

Rains falling over the Willamette valley the last 12 hours have been a distinct benefit to hops, say leading hop growers.

"This rain is just what we needed to give hops growth and fill them out," said a big grower and buyer. During the last few weeks growers have been spraying vigorously and it is stated, yards have been well cleared of lice. In cases, however, where fields have not been rid of lice rain is not apt to be beneficial unless vermin can be killed soon.
