SUMMER FROCK

The design above is intended for a flowered muslin frock, so many of which are needed in the summer's wardrobe. Though effective the foundation of this frock is so simple as to require very little labor in the making. The kimona blouse has a deep inset yoke composed of alternate strips of lace and embroidery, with wide turn-over collar of all-over lace. The waist line is high and skirt and blouse are gathered into a narrow folded girde of ribbon below which is a narrow ruffle of lace. The skirt is gathered into a band of embroidery about a foot above the hem and this band is finished also with a narrow frill of lace on the lower edge.

GLADSTONE WINS FIGHT FOR STATION

day announced that, if necessary, to make a test case a motorman would be arrested and given a hearing by the recorder.

H. E. Cross, mayor, and Chambers Howell, meanwhile conferred with the officials of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company, pointing out the necessity for the additional stop. Mr. Cross said that the officials were convinced that there should be another stop in Gladstone, and said it would be ordered at once. There are now three stops in Gladstone, Arlington, Dartmouth and Hereford streets.

Mr. Cross said he thought these stops would be sufficient for several years. The company recently took a vote of passengers for several days to determine whether the stop was desired by a majority of its patrons. Gladstone residents refused to vote, declaring that the test would not be a fair one. It was announced that persons living in Oregon City and beyond Oregon City would vote against the proposed station on the ground that its establishment might make a slower schedule. The vote was against the proposition, but, despite that the advocates continued their fight and won.

Flowers in the Cemetery. Now while you dark-veiled mourner comes to brood On the sad sermons which these marbles preach, I seek the graves in stiller solitude, To learn the lessons which their flowers teach.

You faded the tear-stained wreath that yesterday A tender hand laid on the fresh-hilled ground. But here, where grief long since had ceased to pray, Grows richer green upon the sunken mound.

Dev-sprinkled leaves breathing the mourning's breath, Raised from the mold by that transmuted power That holds the mystery of life and death, But needs decay to form each living flower.

Ye lilies white, rose pink and red, Could man a fatter monument devise, Than ye whose roots bring forth to life the dead, That they arrayed in your own beauty rise?

Nor could the rosy cheek in youthful bloom Have shown yet fairer tints and charm than ye, Where is the sting of death while on the tomb Open the petals for the laden bee?

Oh, death lone harvester for pall and bier At every stroke a self thou hast destroyed, But canst not lessen life and beauty here; Still lives, all good that man has e'er enjoyed!

All liveth, resurrection is today, What once was mold is flowers' fragrant breath, All liveth, life takes back the dust and clay, Each verdant grave proclaims 'Here is no death!'

A Broad Hint. They were seated in the parlor conversing on the uncertainty of life. She—The future is a vast, unfathomable mystery to us, isn't it? He—Yes; all we know is that we have got to go some time. Voice From the Library—It would suit the convenience of this household if you'd make it a little sooner than that.

E. P. DEDMAN NOW PARTY CANDIDATE

To W. L. Mulvey, County Clerk: Whereas on April 19, 1912, L. E. Williams was duly nominated by the electors of the Republican party as a candidate for said party to fill the office of Recorder Conveyances of Clackamas County, State of Oregon, and whereas the said L. E. Williams has removed from said Clackamas County and by reason of said removal is not now entitled to be a candidate for said office, now therefore in accordance with the provisions of Lord's Oregon Laws relating to the nominating and electing of County officers and especially in accordance with section 3283 of said laws: We, the undersigned, Frank Jaggar, chairman and Wm. Hammond, secretary, of the County Central Committee of the Republican party, in Clackamas County, Oregon do hereby certify that the said County Central Committee, having been previously duly organized, did on May the 4th, A. D. 1912, duly nominate E. P. Dedman, of Clackamas, Clackamas County, State of Oregon, to fill the vacancy occurring by reason of the removal of said L. E. Williams from said Clackamas County as above stated and to be the candidate of the Republican party for the office of Recorder of Conveyances of Clackamas County, State of Oregon, at the general election to be held in said county on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, to-wit: November 5, 1912.

FRANK JAGGAR, Chairman Republican County Central Committee.

WM. H. HAMMOND, Secretary Republican County Central Committee, State of Oregon, County of Clackamas, ss.

We, Frank Jaggar and Wm. Hammond, who signed the foregoing nominating certificate being duly sworn, each for ourselves do depose and say that I have read the foregoing nominating certificate and know the contents thereof and that the same is true as I verily believe, so help me God.

FRANK JAGGAR, WM. HAMMOND.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 9th day of August, A. D. 1912.

G. B. DIMICK, Notary Public in and for Oregon.

I, E. P. Dedman, above named do hereby accept the above nomination.

POTATOES WANTED IN NOTHERN MARKETS

There is a demand for well matured potatoes for northern shipment. One firm alone has an order for about 13 cars and some difficulty is expected in filling it.

Although there are record-breaking supplies of ordinary potatoes offering there is little stuff that is good enough to ship. Most of the stock now offered shows shipping skin, therefore barring it from the outside trade. For the well matured potatoes as high as 75c per cental is available from buyers although most of the stock coming is being sold by buyers under that figure.

A strong effort will be made by leading potato and onion shippers of this section to secure a more favorable rate for eastern shipment this season. Owing to the record crops in both lines there will be far more stuff available than the trade can take care of at home. Therefore another outlet is necessary.

It has been the custom of the railroads to give Colorado, Wisconsin, Minnesota and California special rates on their products during periods when the crops there were very heavy and this is all that the home trade asks. It is likely that the matter will be brought up officially by the Confederated Onion Growers' association.

Prevailing Oregon City prices are as follows: DRIED FRUITS—(Buying), Prunes on basis 6 to 8 cents.

HIDES—(Buying), Green hides 6c to 7c; salters 7c; dry hides 12 c to 14c; sheep pelts 30c to 35c each.

EGGS—Oregon ranch eggs 23c case count; 24c candeled.

FEED—(Selling), Shorts $25; bran $27; process barley $38 per ton. FLOUR—$4.60 to 5.50.

POTATOES—New, about 50c to 60c per hundred.

POULTRY—(Buying)—Hens 11c; spring 17c, and rooster 8c.

HAY—(Buying)—Clover at $8; oat hay, best, $10; mixed $10 to $12; alfalfa $15 to $16.50; Idaho Timothy $20.

OATS—(Buying), $30.00 to $36.50, wheat 90c bu.; oil meal, selling about $48.00; Shay Brook dairy feed $1.30 per hundred pounds.

Butter, Poultry, Eggs. BUTTER—(Buying), Ordinary country butter 20c to 25c; fancy dairy 60c roll.

Livestock, Meats. BEEF—(Live Weight), Steers 5 1-2c and 6 1-4c; cows 4 1-2c; bulls 3 1-2c.

MUTTON—Sheep 3c to 3 1-2c. VEAL—Calves 10c to 12c dressed, according to grade.

MOHAIR—33c to 35c.

Celery Seasoning. An excellent celery seasoning may be made at home. Get 5 cents' worth of celery seed, run it through the finest knife of the grinder or break it in a mortar; mix with about ten times its bulk of table salt and bottle.

MRS. TOMPKINS DENIES STORY I wish to state that the article that appeared in the Morning Enterprise of recent date regarding my having taken carbolic acid with a view to ending my life is untrue. Life is just as dear to me as to any one else. I intended to take aconite. The ages given of my children are all wrong, showing that the party who gave the information had no real knowledge of the facts in the case.
