PRETTY EVENING GOWN.

Above is an evening coat of unusually pretty proportions and demonstrating the season's passion for drapery of all kinds. There is a wide square collar of lace which, fitting quite closely over the shoulders, meets the narrow revers of the silk in the front. These meet far below the waist line to which point the drapery of the coat is drawn and are apparently tied beneath the two long ends of silk which terminate in a tassel. The draped sleeve is novel and shows the prettiest lines of the arm.

Wagner and Schumann. Wagner, writing in 1846, said of Schumann: "He is a highly gifted musician, but an impossible man. When I came from Paris I went to see him. I told him of my Parisian experiences, spoke of the state of music in France, then of that in Germany, spoke of literature and politics, but he remained as good as dumb for nearly an hour. One cannot go on talking quite alone. An impossible man!" Schumann gave an account of this interview, which practically agrees with that of Wagner. "I have seldom met Wagner," he said, "but he is a man of education and spirit. He talks, however, incessantly, and that one cannot endure for long together."

Sumptuary Laws. Sumptuary laws are not of modern origin. Lycurgus, the celebrated law-giver of Sparta, instituted such laws in Sparta as early as the ninth century B. C., and even earlier than the Spartan laws were those of the Jews established by Moses. Sumptuary laws were plentiful in ancient Rome, and when the wealth and luxury of the Empire were at their height they were as thick as daisies in the summer meadows. In modern times sumptuary laws have been frequent in England and were not suppressed until 1850.

The Flag on the School. Two places in Massachusetts claim the honor of being the first in the country to place the stars and stripes on a schoolhouse. On Catamount hill, in Colerain, in 1812 the United States flag was raised over a schoolhouse for the first time, but the first town or city to make a flag a permanent feature of public school administration was New Bedford, where on May 11, 1861, a flag was raised on the schoolhouse, the event being the occasion of much song, oratory and general enthusiasm on the part of young and old.

Sure He Does. "What happens when you put the dollar before the man?" bawled the candidate. "The man goes after it," answered an old farmer in the crowd.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

EVANGELICAL YOUNG PEOPLE HAVE MEETING

The twenty-third convention of the Oregon Conference Branch Young People's Alliance of the Evangelical Association met at River View Grove Jennings Lodge last Wednesday and Thursday. Rev. F. M. Fisher of Seattle presiding.

There were thirty-nine delegates present, representing Monmouth, Lents, Mount Scott, Salem, Fruitland, Carson Heights, Portland, Mountain Top, Jefferson, Oregon City, Vernonia and Milwaukie in Oregon, and the following places in Washington: Seattle, Tacoma, Bellingham, Everett, Wahi, Little Falls. There are nineteen Alliances in the conference, aggregating 620 members. During the year a total of $967.43 was raised for all purposes, which is an average of $1.58 a member.

Much interest has been shown in the convention, and the young people give promise of great things for the coming year. The delegates entered heartily into the work of the Convention, and seemed to have a desire not only to be helped, but also to help others.

Rev. F. M. Fisher, was re-elected president. The other officers elected are: Vice-Presidents, Alvin Bradford, and Arthur Horst; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Esther Hogan; Recording Secretary, Nellie Smith; Missionary Secretary, Iva Wechter; Treasurer, Anna Johnson, Secretary of Sobriety and Morality, Clarence Clark; Junior Superintendent, Lowell Bradford.

CATTLE PRICES HIGH WITH SMALL SUPPLY

The Portland Union Stock Yards Company reports as follows: Receipts for the week have been, cattle 2052; calves 34; hogs 1041, sheep 4265; horses 48.

While cattle receipts show an increase over the previous week, the requirements of the trade were not met and prices remained at the same steady high plane that has characterized the business of the entire summer.

Death of calf receipts signify not only that the country has been closely drained but also that farmers are beginning to realize the wisdom of holding something for future cattle supplies.

The hog market reached $9.00 for the week and there was an active strong tone throughout.

Prevailing Oregon City prices are as follows: DRIED FRUITS—(Buying), Prunes on basis 6 to 8 cents.

HIDES—(Buying), Green hides 6c to 7c; salters 7c; dry hides 12c to 14c; sheep pelts 30c to 85c each.

EGGS—Oregon ranch eggs 23c case count; 24c candled.

FEED—(Selling), Shorts $25; bran $27; process barley $38 per ton.

FLOUR—$4.60 to 5.50.

POTATOES—New, about 50c to 60c per hundred.

POULTRY—(Buying)—Hens 11c; spring 17c and rooster 3c.

HAY—(Buying)—Clover at $8; oat hay, best, $10; mixed $10 to $12; alfalfa $15 to $16.50; Idaho Timothy $20.

OATS—(Buying), $30.00 to $36.50, wheat 90c bu.; oil meal, selling about $48.00; Shag Brook dairy feed $1.30 per hundred pounds.

Butter, Poultry, Eggs. BUTTER—(Buying), Ordinary country butter 20c to 25c; fancy dairy 60c roll.

Livestock, Meats. BEEF—(Live Weight), Steers 5 1-2c and 6 1-4c; cows 4 1-2c; bulls 3 1-2c.

MUTTON—Sheep 3c to 3 1-2c.

VEAL—Calves 10c to 12c dressed, according to grade.

MOHAIR—33c to 35c.

MOTHER BEAR SAVES TAFT HUMILIATION

GLACIER PARK, Mont., Aug. 12.—One old mother Bruin stole into the Taft party's camp on the side of Red Eagle Mountain last night, and there hung a tale of how President Taft is to be spared the political embarrassment of having to receive a Teddy bear cub into his household when his son Robert returns from his outing in the park.

The cub was given to young Taft by Big Top, Blackfoot Indian Chief, "Scotty," the guide, got a dog collar for the cub, and the mascot was tied in camp as a pet. The cub cried nearly all last night, until rescued and adopted by the old she bear, which bravely descended the mountain side, gnawed the rope in two of the guides who started to follow the bold "cub-napper."

Robert Taft emerged from his tent and stood watching the retreating mother bear carrying the cub tightly clasped in her forepaws. "Don't shoot!" he shouted to the guides. "It must be her cub; besides, there isn't room for a Teddy bear in the White House now, anyway. Let it go."

The Taft party will remain in Glacier National Park three weeks.

3 DAYS' DEMONSTRATION

Of the Famous

Copeman Automatic Electric Range

This will be something to make you sit up and take notice.

Many great things have been invented in the last decade, but very little attention has been given to lightening women's work.

This famous range does away with all dirt, soot, grease, ashes and the use of oils. It reduces the heat in the room to a trifle. It can be turned on as easily as an electric light and is not only a labor saver but is more economical than any other way of cooking.

An expert lady demonstrator will be at our office for these days, Thursday, 15, Friday 16, and Saturday 17. She will make practical demonstrations of this famous range.
