OREGON CITY, OREGON, SATURDAY, AUGUST 17, 1912

AS THE AVERAGE CITIZEN SEES THE POLITICAL SITUATION.

PER WEEK, 10 CENTS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16 .- in a picturesque, spontaneous outburst in the of the late Charles C. Williams, of Senate on the President's wool tariff veto, Senator La Follette attacked today the new Progressive party, and swore new allegiance to progressive Republicanism.

After reviewing the trust record of Colonel Roosevelt, Senator La Follette declared that the former President was "not the man to find the way He said that when the Reout now." publican party, through its progressive associates had reached a point where it would "respond to the purposes for which it was born," an attempt was made at Chicago to divert Senator Stone asked Mr. La Follette whether he meant the nomination of President Taft or the nomination of former President Roosevelt.

"I am surprised," began Senator La Follette, "that I left the Senator from Missouri in doubt. I hope I did not leave doubt in the mind of anyone

Then, moving down the center aisle, he continued: "On the day that Theodore Roosevelt was made President of the United States there were 149 trusts and combinations in the United States. When he turned this Government over to William Howard Taft there were 10,020 plants in combination. When he became President the trusts had an aggregate capitalization of three billion dollars and when he left the Presidency they had an aggregate capitalization of thirty-one billion and more than 70 per cent of its was water.
