MUTINY CHARGE IS PROBED BY WEST

GOVERNOR HEARS PLEAS OF MEN WHO ARE ACCUSED OF DISOBEDIENCE

HEARING THUS FAR IS FRUITLESS

Majority Of Witnesses Deny Allegation That General Maus Was Under Influence Of Liquor

SALEM, Or., Aug. 20.—Through a long drawn-out day and late into the night, a battle waged in the Executive office before Governor West today by the alleged mutineers of the maneuvers at Gate, Wash., a few weeks ago and members of the general staff of the Oregon National Guard, who have accused them of mutiny and have ousted them from the Second Battalion Third Infantry, of which they were a part.

With a record that will fill several hundreds of pages the hearing so far has brought no concrete result, as Governor West, at its close failed to make a decision and would not say how soon he will determine the fate of these men.

One of the principal features brought out was the declaration on the part of the Governor that he intends to take the Army heavy marching equipment, weighing 43 pounds for a man, that caused the trouble when the Second Battalion refused to march from Gate to Oakville and with this same Army equipment make a march of a similar distance to determine how far an average human being should walk under these conditions without protesting.

The entire investigation proved to be a series of recriminations and recitals of the deeds of valor which were done on the field of maneuvers. Pleas were made by Major R. O. Scott, Captains Tooze and Williams and Lieutenants Deich and Brumbaugh, all of whom were dismissed from service. Their stories were much the same. A forced march on Saturday, deploys through the mountains, swimming the Black River three times, a long march through stumps, brush and barbed wire fences all to end at Gate, with an order to pack up and march back five miles to Oakville, was the substance of the story.

Throughout the hearing the name of General Maus was frequently mentioned and each of the witnesses was asked if the General was intoxicated on that day or showed signs of intoxication, as has been alleged in a Portland paper.

All but a few denied that he was. Lieutenant Deich, under strong protest, said he believed General Maus was either drunk or excited. He at first declined to testify, as he said he is bailiff of a grand jury which probably will be called upon to decide whether there should be indictments on criminal libel charges for statements printed as to General Maus.

SALVATION ARMY FOUNDERIS DEAD

LONDON, Aug. 20.—General Booth died tonight.

LONDON, Aug. 20.—Weakened by a night of restlessness and with his mind wandering, the condition of General William Booth, head of the Salvation Army, is much worse today. Physicians say his death is but a matter of a few hours.

In the event of General Booth's death, it is regarded as practically certain that Bramwell Booth will succeed his father in command of the Salvation Army. This, however, will not be definitely known until General Booth's will is opened.

In referring here today to his father's illness Bramwell Booth said: "Father undoubtedly is dying. He is beyond speech now but his last message to members of the Salvation Army throughout the country was: "His promises are sure if you believe."

"Father spoke his last intelligible word Friday when he said to me: "Do not worry. Let me die. I want to go to Heaven." "The general is grieving because there has been no reconciliation with his son, Ballington, from whom no word of sympathy or interest has been received."

If it happened it is in the Enterprise.

JUVENILE FAIRS TO BE NEXT WEEK

TEN EXHIBITIONS PLANNED FOR CLACKAMAS COUNTY IN BIG COMPETITION

STATE SUPERINTENDENT TO ATTEND

Merchants Of Oregon City And Other Parts Of County Offer Fine Prizes To Prize-Winners

Ten juvenile fairs will be held in Clackamas County next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Superintendent of County Schools Gary has sent out circular letters, of which the following is a part, describing the work:

"At these fairs will be shown the products of the labor and intelligence of the boys and girls of the county. There will be displays of vegetables, grain, furniture, toys, bread, jelly, mending, sewing, flowers and various other things that have been raised or made by the youth of the county."

"That the people appreciate the importance of the work is shown in the many generous prizes that are offered. The prizes from the ten fairs aggregate more than thirteen hundred dollars."

"The business people have more than done their part in the giving of prizes, the superintendent of the various fairs have given much time and energy in promoting the interests of the fairs, most of the teachers did what they could, will you encourage the young folks and those who have done so much for them by visiting the fair nearest your home or others if you can and give a word of encouragement wherever you can honestly give it?"

State Superintendent, L. R. Alderman, has accepted the invitation to visit all the fairs and address the people. President Kerr, of the Oregon Agricultural College has also promised to come if he can get away from his work, if not he will send a man to represent the college.

The fairs promise to be a success everywhere and in some places they are going to be events long to be remembered. The fairs at Sandy, Estacada, and Logan will be held Tuesday, August 27. Sandy will have a street parade at 11 o'clock with music by the orchestra. The fifteen districts participating will each have a float in the parade. The crowd will then enjoy a basket dinner, after which there will be speaking by Clifton McArthur of Portland. The prizes will then be awarded and the day closed by a social dance at night.

The detailed program from Estacada is not in but Estacada never does things by halves and you may be assured that you will have a good time if you visit the fair there.

Logan is one of the best farming parts of the county. The writer visited that section recently and found much interest. There is no good reason why Logan should not capture some of the prizes at the State Fair.

Clarks will also make a good showing, the plan there is to have each school compete against the other schools of the fair district. The local pride and patriotism will be a spur to best endeavor. They are contemplating building a pavilion for annual displays of this kind.

Molalla has for several years past held juvenile fairs in connection with the annual Grange Fair, therefore the young folks having had experience will know how to do things about right. The people of Molalla are most loyal to their school and everything that is good for the community and therefore there will be no doubt about the success of this enterprise.

Canby, the home of the County Fair will hold the juvenile fair in the Clackamas County Fair Pavilion and will have an attractive ball game during the day.

The Commercial Club of Oregon City has generously given the beautiful club rooms for the fair at that place. There is a live interest in the schools of the districts about Oregon City, the large number of children in the fair district should insure an extensive display.

The interest at Wilsonville is most commendable. Doors will open at 9 o'clock and there will be something of interest all day and evening.

There will be speakers from the O. A. C. and elsewhere and a musical and literary program by the people of the district.

Oswego has the disadvantage of having a very small fair district, but they are not daunted by difficulties and are going to have a very commendable display and a royal good time.

The fair at Milwaukie, because of the large number of children interested and the complete organization of the forces will no doubt be a pronounced success. The fair will be held in beautiful Crystal Lake Park. There will be a ball game in the morning, speaking by Mr. A. E. Wood of Reed College, and others; music by the Oak Grove Girl's Band, and various other attractions.

There will be competent and impartial judges to judge the general exhibits and award the twenty-five dollar prizes from each of the Oregon City bands, and from Levitt & Co. the Dimick corn prize, and the Gardner muskmelon prize. These judges will accompany the state superintendent. The other exhibits will be judged by local judges.

At the request of the Oregon City Commercial Club there will be a Eu-

MARSHALL SAYS HE IS NEAR SOCIALIST

DEMOCRATIC NOMINEE FOR VICE-PRESIDENT MAKES STARTLING ANNOUNCEMENT

PATERNALISM IS GIVEN HARD RAPS

Judge Parker, Man Bryan Tried To Read Out Of Party, Makes Speech Of Notification

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Aug. 20.—Governor Thomas R. Marshall, of Indiana, was officially notified this afternoon that he was the running mate of Governor Woodrow Wilson at the head of the Democratic National ticket in the coming campaign, and he accepted in a speech telling what he thought of socialism.

Judge Alton B. Parker, of New York, who was the Presidential candidate of the party in 1904, informed the Indiana executive of his nomination.

Judge Parker's contention that relief could come only from the election of Marshall and Wilson and a Democratic Congress followed an offering of reasons, which, he said, negated as a possibility of relief from either the Republicans or the Progressive

GOVERNOR TO CLEAN UP PORTLAND NEXT

SALEM, Or. Aug. 20.—Routing vice from his haunts in Redmond and Huntington has been but preliminary to the real fight Governor West is preparing in his law enforcement campaign. He is now ready to tackle the biggest job in the state. The next town his list is the city of Portland.

Last night the city council of Redmond telegraphed the governor that the resignations of Mayor Jones and City Marshal McClay had been accepted and new officials would be appointed. Justice of the Peace Wood, at Huntington also resigned immediately, so the state is cleaned for new action.

When asked today where he would strike next, the governor said: "I'm going to clean up Portland next."

He said he did not refer merely to roadhouses, but to the city itself. He said he did not care to discuss his plans, except to say he was prepared to shake the metropolis to its foundations unless the laws were enforced there.

It is to be presumed that his line of procedure will not vary greatly from his attacks on smaller places. This being true, the matter of law enforcement will undoubtedly be put squarely up to Mayor Rushlight and Chief of Police Slover, as well as Sheriff Stevens and county officials. In his campaigns the governor also never overlooks the district attorney's office.

If these officials do not respond to his demands it is not at all unlikely that the governor will demand their resignations under threat of putting the city under martial law. It is believed he has been gathering evidence on Portland for some time, as he has made it a practice to be well prepared for every showdown that might arise before opening fire on a city.

A small classified ad will rent that vacant room.
