CORRESPONDENCE

SPRINGWATER The Springwater chorus, under the direction of David Horner, the experienced director, is rehearsing beautiful compositions to render in the Harvest Festival in the autumn. The church will be decorated with grain-sheaves, branches of fruit and flowers. Nature's bounty and beauty will aid to make grateful hearts.

Miss Margaret Schradeck, of New York City, is enjoying Oregon. She is staying at the home of her sister, Mrs. Aue.

The Springwater harvest is, according to general reports, very gratifying.

Rev. C. F. Aue will preach in Springwater in the morning and evening and in the afternoon at 3 in the Eagle Creek Presbyterian church. Everybody is heartily welcomed. Extra music.

James Guttridge is recovering from his illness very rapidly.

Dr. Wallins, our dentist, is not only busy with his work, but is pulling political teeth of our candidates.

Bread. An English writer on institutional housekeeping advises that, where economy is studied, bread should not be eaten before it is thirty-six hours old. After three days it becomes stale and unpalatable.

CALIFORNIA CUTS IN ON POTATO BUSINESS

With California freely offering its river potatoes at 60c to 65c per cental f. o. b. shipping points, there is little business available for the local stock as yet.

While some of the local offerings show matured quality, the bulk of the supplies are still too green and the skins slip too much for long distance shipping.

In a jobbing way there is only a nominal demand for potatoes. Prices are low but this is not what is interfering with the demand. Nearby producers continue to peddle their supplies and as this is the sole business in the market at the present time, it takes everything away from the wholesalers.

Owing to the size of the crop this season an effort will soon be made by the Produce Merchants' association to secure a cut in freight rates to eastern points.

The recent government report gave the potato crop of the United States a condition of 87.8 per cent compared with 62.3 per cent a year ago and a 10 years' average of 84.8 per cent.

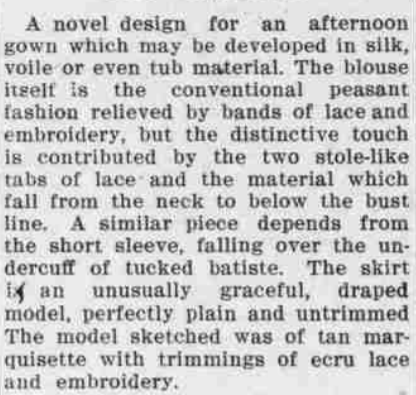

Prevailing Oregon City prices are as follows: DRIED FRUITS—(Buying), Prunes on basis 6 to 8 cents.

HIDES—(Buying), Green hides 6c to 7c; salted 7c; dry hides 12c to 14c; sheep pelts 30c to 35c each.

EGGS—Oregon ranch eggs 23c case count; 24c candeled.

FEED—(Selling), Shorts $25; bran fall from the neck to below the bust line. A similar piece depends from the short sleeve, falling over the undercurve of tucked batiste. The skirt is an unusually graceful, draped model, perfectly plain and untrimmed. The model sketched was of tan marquisette with trimmings of ecru lace and embroidery.

MARSHALL SAYS HE IS NEAR SOCIALIST

party. Of the latter he said in part: "Its creator and nominee for President occupied that office for about seven and a half years, but during that time he could not be persuaded to say a single word in favor of lifting from the people the burden imposed by existing tariff rates. True, he admits in his confession of faith that certain interests have been improperly favored by over-protection, declares himself in favor of 'disrupting the old crooked, log-rolling method of tariff-making,' and advocates a 'tariff commission wholly different from the present unsatisfactory tariff board. It is impossible to rise from a careful reading of his tariff discussion without being convinced that he is a standpatter as he was when President."

"Certainly only a very stupid man would expect him to curb the trusts. Seven-eighths of all the combinations in existence when he went out of office were created while he was President."

Governor Marshall attacked the Republican party on the ground that it had fostered special privilege to the point of making men everywhere Socialistic in theory if not in conduct. He said:

"It is idle for a thoughtful man in America, whether millionaire or pauper, to longer play the ostrich. Safety does not consist in holding one's head in the sands of either sentiment or hope. It is foolish for the vastly rich to keep on insisting that more and more shall be added to their riches through a specious system of special legislation ostensibly enacted to run the Government, in reality enacted to loot the people."

"It is worse than ignorance for them to smile at the large body of intelligent Americans who regard themselves as fortunate if the debt and credit accounts of life balance at the end of the year, and to assume that the mighty many, who are becoming convinced that that social system which we call 'democracy' is but a glittering generality, will long endure the industrial slavery being produced."

"Whether voting the ticket or not, men everywhere, looking upon the awful injustice of this economic system, are becoming socialists in theory if not in conduct."

"And shall any fair-minded man say that if it redounds to the interests of the people of this country that 100 men shall control its business to the good of everyone, there is anything fallacious in the theory that government, instead of transferring business to a favored few for the benefit of all, should itself discharge that business for the benefit of all?"

"I do not hesitate to say that if it be impossible to restore this Republic to its ancient ideals, which I do not believe, and I must make the ultimate choice between the paternalism of the few and the socialism of the many, count me and my house with the throbbing heart of humanity."

"The discontent in Republican ranks is democratic discontent. How much of it has reached the point where, wearied with bad workings of a good system, it is willing to topple that system over and try something new. I cannot prophesy."
