OREGON'S TIMBER RESOURCES

In talking to an Oregonian about the resources of our state you will invariably hear timber mentioned at the top of the list. Yes, Oregon probably has more standing timber today than any state in the union and we can well be proud of it. Included in the different varieties are fir, spruce, cedar, hemlock, oak, ash and maple, as well as more rare varieties such as the myrtle tree which grows in Coos County.
In speaking to a furniture manufacturer about the wonderful timber resources of the state he said, "Yes, we have an unlimited supply of the best of woods for the manufacture of not only common furniture, but high grade furniture as well and we are today making a good deal of furniture in Oregon, but the amount manufactured is merely a drop in the bucket to what should be made in Oregon. Our hardest work has been to educate the consumer to ask for an Oregon product. If we could make the buyer realize to a small extent what it would mean if he demanded and bought Oregon made goods, the result would be beyond figures. Factory after factory would start operation in Oregon and it would put hundreds of thousands of dollars into circulation. We must drill into our local people the habit of asking for made in Oregon products, whether it be furniture, flour, blasting powder or hand-soap."

MISS VOLKMAR IS MUCH IMPROVED

Mabel Volkmar, daughter of J. M. Volkmar, who has been suffering from an injury received several days ago, is recovering. Miss Volkmar was visiting friends at Jennings Lodge, who were camping on the Willamette when a bough of a tree, during a thunder storm, was blown on the tent in which she was sleeping. Her left ankle was seriously bruised, and she has been confined to her bed since. Her physicians, however, say that the injury is not permanent. Miss Volkmar is a graduate of the Oregon City High School, and attended Oregon Agricultural College last winter, being a member of the music class. She is one of the most popular girls in Oregon City.

PROMOTERS WORK

FOR FAIR PRIZE

The Publicity Department of the Oregon City Commercial Club on Main Street, between Eighth and Ninth streets present an active appearance. O. E. Freytag and O. D. Eby, who have charge of the Clackamas County display at the State Fair at Salem, are receiving and preparing exhibits for the Clackamas county booth, which promises to be one of the most attractive if not the most attractive at the fair this year. An effort will be made to win first prize this year, the county having received second prize last year. An unusually attractive exhibit will be arranged. It was planned by T. W. Sullivan, O. D. Eby and O. E. Freytag. In the exhibit there will be a large amount of grain, and it is the desire of these men that as much as possible be brought to the Commercial Club exhibition room in the basement of the court house. E. P. Carter, Tim McGetchic, Albert Goetz and W. E. Niles are engaged in preparing the grain for the exhibit. There are many farmers in the county, who can easily spare a few acres of grain and grain to help Clackamas County show what it can produce. It is also desired to have fruit and vegetables for the exhibit. Much of the fruit that has already come in has been preserved in large jars.

Among those who have contributed to the exhibit is A. R. Cummings, one of the prominent melon growers of Canby. Mr. Cummings has brought in some of his famous muskmelons, corn, rhubarb and potatoes. Walter Kirchem, one of the well known farmers of Logan, who does his share to advertise Clackamas County, has donated grain, and will, in a few days, bring some vegetables and grasses.
As the State Fair will be held early in September persons desiring to contribute to the Clackamas county exhibit will have to "get busy" at one.

OIL TRUST MONEY ELECTED COLONEL

Senator Penrose, Reed and Williams each attacked Colonel Roosevelt and Senator Poindexter, of Washington, a supporter of the now Progressive party, came to his defense. Senator Poindexter charged that a combination of "regular Republicans" and Democrats was at work to defame Colonel Roosevelt.
The decision to summon Mr. Archbold was made by Senator Clapp early in the day, before the interrogation of Senator Penrose by Senator Reed began. He got into communication with Mr. Archbold in New York by long-distance telephone, and the Standard Oil officials agreed to appear.
The debate between Senators Reed and Penrose was marked by the readiness with which Penrose replied to Reed's questions. Early in the afternoon the two Senators, with Senator Smith, of Maryland, had held a conference.
Senator Penrose, in answer to questions from Senator Reed, said that "according to his information" Colonel Roosevelt knew that $100,000 of Standard Oil money had been received in 1904 before he wrote a letter directing that any Standard Oil contributions be returned. A new element was injected into the political imbroglio when Senator Penrose suggested to Senator Reed:
"There has come to my notice quite a lot of information leading to the thought that some $3,000,000 was underwritten by George W. Perkins and his associates to nominate Mr. Roosevelt for the Presidency through the regular Republican party in the present campaign, for their own personal uses. Evidence regarding this matter will be submitted to the proper Senate committee for consideration. The ultimate object of this enormous fund was the control of the Republican party in the interest of the element represented by Mr. Perkins. The largest campaign fund in the history of the United States for a campaign for a nomination was raised for Mr. Roosevelt last winter."

MILWAUKIE TO GET BETTER CAR SERVICE

A local service, in addition to the regular Oregon City trains, will be placed in effect, commencing Monday, August 26, upon the Oregon City line of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company between Portland and Milwaukie. The service, it is believed, will relieve the congestion on the Oregon City trains.
These trains will leave Milwaukie at 7:17 and 7:47 in the morning, following the regular trains, which will make no stops between Island Station and Portland.
In the evening at 5, 5:30 and 6 o'clock two-car trains giving local service will leave First and Alder streets for Milwaukie, following the regular Oregon City trains which leave at the same time.
The regular Oregon City trains leaving Portland at 5, 5:30 and 6 o'clock P. M., will make no stops between Portland and Island Station and let off passengers. The local service to be established Monday will subsequently be expanded, as the traffic conditions warrant.

Suggestive Questions in

Sunday School Lessons

The International Press Bible Question Club is affording the opportunity and stimulus for everybody, either at home or in classes, to study the International Sunday School Lessons. The Adult Bible Class Movement has brought together thousands of men who study the Bible in classes every Sunday, but the I. P. B. C. with its "Suggestive Questions," lays out for them a most fascinating lot of questions to discuss and at the same time affords the opportunity for the still larger number, who do not attend Sunday School, to profitably study the lessons at home.
We are glad to report that our effort to enlist the masses in Bible study is being appreciated by our best people; words of encouragement are being freely said in favor of the work we have undertaken. Pastors, Sunday School workers, and others, interested in Bible study, are giving us much encouragement. But this we expected; we did not, however, expect our "Suggestive Questions" would so interest non-churchgoers. This is very encouraging. From what we have learned, we shall not be surprised if non-churchgoers capture some of the best prizes. We advise everybody to study these questions right along, so as to be ready to enter the contest with the lesson for Sunday, August 25. If you are not a subscriber to the Morning Enterprise send in your subscription.

(See Isa. lxi:1-2.)
(6.) Verse 20-21—By what authority did Jesus apply this language to himself? (This is one of the questions which may be answered in writing by members of the club.)
(7.) What were the outstanding characteristics of the teaching and the actions of Jesus?
(8.) What do history and present day conditions say concerning the influences of Christ in the world?
(9.) Why did they look at Jesus so intently after he was through reading and had sat down?
(10.) Verse 22—What would probably be Jesus' comment on the Scripture he quoted?
(11.) What would there be to wonder at in Jesus' address?
(12.) When a man of God in these days delivers an inspired address do the people who listen to it always wonder? Why?
(13.) How often is there an exception to the rule that the son of a poor man is thought less of for that fact?
(14.) Which excites the most surprise, the distinguished son of a rich man or the distinguished son of a poor man?
(15.) What was the implication if, as they said, he was only Joseph's son?
(16.) Verse 23—What defect or malady did they think Jesus was suffering from and how did they want him to apply the remedy?
(17.) Verse 24—Why did they discount the claims of Jesus simply because he was brought up among them?
(18.) Why do we so often think lightly of what is very familiar, of blessings right at our door and of good men who are our neighbors?
(19.) Verse 25-27—In what way do these verses convey a refusal to work miracles at Nazareth?
(20.) Verse 28-30—Why is it that in all ages when men of God have taught the truth that so many professedly religious people have been angered?
(21.) How do you account for the anger of these people at the words Jesus had spoken to them?

SENATE FILIBUSTER HALTS BUDGET BILL

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—When it seemed that the senate had re-passed the new "budget bill" today, the measure was held up as the result of a filibuster started by Senators Root, Page and McCumber against consideration of a bill creating a new department of labor.
The budget bill as it now stands and as it will be signed by President Taft continues the appropriation for the maintenance of the court of commerce until March 4 next. The house passed over the president's veto the provision abolishing the court of commerce, but this measure failed of passing over the president's objection in the senate by seven votes. The new bill, if passed by the senate, is believed to remove the last obstacle in the way of adjournment of congress on Saturday.
To continue the filibuster in the senate, Senator Page announced that he expected to consume the remainder of the day discussing the bill regarding vocational schools. He said he would continue speaking "without reference to other business."

although he received more votes than any other candidate for Representative on his ticket. He was an unsuccessful candidate for Mayor of Oregon City in December, 1910. H. C. Stevens is a local capitalist, and Mr. Gorlett and Mr. Smith are in the real estate business.
The Bull Moose people are not yet fairly organized and it is not known whether they will decide to place a county ticket in the field for the November election. The call states that the meetin' will be held for the transaction of such business as may come before it, and concludes:
"All citizens holding progressive views who believe that better means should be afforded for making such views the rule of action in Governmental affairs, are urged to be present. Representation from all parts of the county is especially desired, and it is hoped that every distant locality will find someone willing to undergo the personal inconvenience of attending."

although he received more votes than any other candidate for Representative on his ticket. He was an unsuccessful candidate for Mayor of Oregon City in December, 1910. H. C. Stevens is a local capitalist, and Mr. Gorlett and Mr. Smith are in the real estate business.
The Bull Moose people are not yet fairly organized and it is not known whether they will decide to place a county ticket in the field for the November election. The call states that the meetin' will be held for the transaction of such business as may come before it, and concludes:
"All citizens holding progressive views who believe that better means should be afforded for making such views the rule of action in Governmental affairs, are urged to be present. Representation from all parts of the county is especially desired, and it is hoped that every distant locality will find someone willing to undergo the personal inconvenience of attending."

Punishment For Murder Lax In America

By Commander EVA BOOTH of the Salvation Army

THE laws against murder are practically the same here as in England or other foreign countries, but here there are too many loopholes for the criminal. In England you never hear of BRAIN STORMS.

AN ENGLISHMAN KNOWS THAT IF HE COMMITS MURDER IT IS A HUNDRED TO ONE HE WILL BE PUNISHED. THE AMERICAN KNOWS THAT IF HE COMMITS MURDER IT IS A QUESTION OF A GOOD LAWYER, OFTEN OF "EMOTIONAL INSANITY." HE KNOWS, IN SHORT, THAT THERE ARE A DOZEN CHANCES FOR HIS ESCAPE.

Look at the Dr. Crippen case. How quickly that was disposed of in the English courts. Then look at any number of American murder cases which have been HANGING ON FOR YEARS.

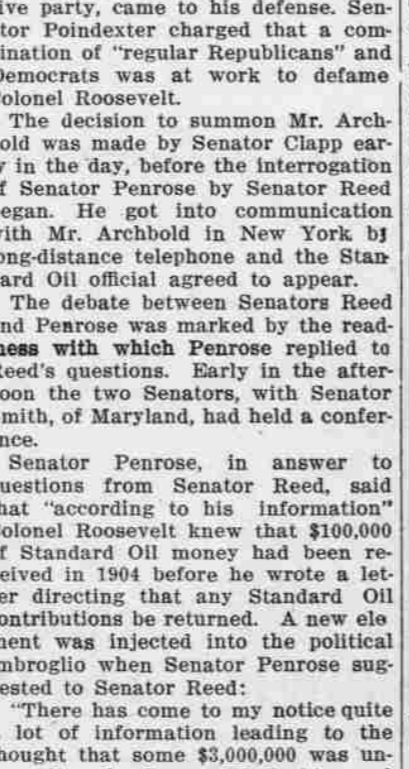

Do you realize that foreigners come to America to wreak vengeance on fellow countrymen when they wouldn't dare attempt murder in their own country? Why? Because in the home country the crime meant almost CERTAIN PUNISHMENT.

Since I've lived in the most degraded districts of English and American cities I have noticed the difference between the mental attitude of the English poor and the American poor. Of course the actual effect of poverty is the same on all people. Starvation is the same whether you starve in Boston or in Italy, and it provokes us to the same weaknesses. But the POOR IN GREAT AMERICAN CITIES ARE MORE VICIOUS AND SPITEFUL because of the terrible mixup of the foreign element—of people who have the wrong idea about the "land of freedom" and think it a land where there are NO LAWS AT ALL.

Original Meaning of "Garble." The word "garble" originally meant "to select for a purpose." There used to be an officer called "the garbler of spices," and it was his duty to visit the stores, examine the spices and order those that did not come up to standard to be destroyed. In this way the garbled goods were those which had been sifted of all impurities. So a "garbled" report is one that is sifted down and bereft of some of its original contents. Nowadays anything "garbled" is misreading and chopped up so as to give a wrong impression.

RIGHT now is when you should be putting up fruit and plenty of it. Fruits were never better, never cheaper than today.

Extra care should be exercised in the selection of fruits for putting up—this we know, and always remember when selecting fruits for this purpose.
