

Inconsiderate.
 "He is your tailor, isn't he?"
 "Never again after the way he insulted me."
 "Asked you to pay your bill?"
 "Worse than that. Made me pay it."

Program Extraordinary

The Geisha's Love Story

This is a beautiful hand colored film in which all the participants are of the land of the Crysanthemum. It gives a comprehensive idea of Japanese drama and also shows that in the silent play the little brown men and women are adepts in pantomime. They show skill in depicting the varying emotions.

The Artist's Joke

This is a clever comedy produced by the Edison Mfg. Co.

The Stolen Ring

This story is an excellent argument against the popular recognition of circumstantial evidence which though very convincing is unfortunately too often at fault.

Fate's Awful Jest

An interesting story of the circus.

And last but not least
Her Old Sweetheart

A John Bunny picture. The kind that never fails to bring a laugh.
 This program will continue Friday and Saturday.
 OUR MOTTO:—The best is none too good.

Mr. Wells has just returned from that place, and has decided to go into the drug business there. He has already rented his building, and while in Portland purchased new store fixtures. Mrs. Wells is at the present time visiting at Marshfield.

Henry Wetzler, who resigned his position with the Oregon City Manufacturing Company, last winter, being superintendent of the tailoring department, and who afterwards accepted a similar position with the Seattle Woolen Mills, has again taken charge of the department formerly held by him with the Oregon City Manufacturing Company. Mr. Wetzler was in charge of that department for eleven years, and was generally liked by all of his men, who are welcoming him back and Mr. Wetzler wishes all of his old employes to call on him. Mr. and Mrs. Wetzler are spending the summer in their attractive little home on the banks of the Willamette River at Roethe's Landing, and will return to this city in the fall to make their home.

A BLOUSE OF FINE LINEN

This model shows the new Robespierre collar which is a distinctively new feature of the season's styles. The blouse is made of amber colored linen of fine quality. Hand-made Irish crochet insertion is used for trimming. This is relieved by band of the linen daintily embroidered by hand. The blouse closes down the center back. In the front are two revers trimmed with the lace. Two wide tucks on the shoulder have a distinctively broadening effect which is increased by the lines upon which the lace is applied on the shoulders. The deep turned-back cuffs are made of the lace and embroidery with a frill over the hand.

Heart to Heart Talks.
 By EDWIN A. NYE.

BE A BOOSTER.
 In the siege of Ladysmith during the Boer war a civilian was tried by court martial and sent to prison because he discouraged the soldiers who were defending the city.
 He was a knocker.
 The man was accustomed to go along the picket line and say discouraging things to the men on duty. He told them the city was doomed and scouted all suggestion of relief.
 He was rightly sent to jail.
 In such a time of stress no man has any right to weaken the hearts of men.
 It is a great pity every community should not have the power to put its knockers in jail. The knocker is a prophet of evil who goes about with gloomy face and retails his forebodings.
 He sees only the dark side.
 Temperamentally the knocker cannot forbear to throw cold water on any exhibition of generous enthusiasm. He is a wet blanket. He dampens all ardor.
 He is a pessimist.
 Instead of trying to lift some of the burdens from the shoulders of men he puts on new burdens; instead of clearing the pathway for progress he puts obstacles in the way. He eases no pain of the sufferer, but helps to widen the wounds.
 He is a discourager.
 Everywhere worn and weary men and women gallantly fight in defense of some beleaguered city of Ladysmith. Many are hard pressed, and some are upon the verge of surrender.
 Now—
 He who goes along the picket line of mortal life with his disheartening prophecy of failure, who makes heavy the heart and palsies the arm of the brave warrior, is a traitor to his race. Humanity is brave and needs only the word of cheer and hope.
 There is a subtle force in suggestion, whether good or ill. Use it to boost your comrade. If he be discouraged tell him re-enforcements are coming. Suggest success.
 Do not be a knocker.
 Be a booster.
 Radiate hope and cheer. And so shall your life be luminous and behind you and about you will be a trail of glory that shall grow brighter unto the perfect day.

PRODUCE!
 Be no longer a chaos, but a world or even world kin. Produce! Produce! Were it but the pitifullest infinite fraction of a product, produce it in God's name.—Carlyle.

WHAT DAININESS MEANS
 There is Something More Than Pretty Clothes Required To Be Really Dainty
 Daintiness is the highest mark of elegance in a lady's finished toilet.
 Daintiness means more than being prettily gowned; it means more than simply being clean.
 To be really dainty, in all that the word signifies, is to be skin pure, to be not only clean, but entirely free from bodily odors, such as, for instance, the odor of perspiration.
 We take pleasure in recommending Rexall Nice to all women and men who wish to reach perfection in bodily cleanliness, who wish to attain to that air of perfect personal cleanliness so much desired by anyone who is at all sensitive and particular about their person.
 Rexall Nice is designed especially to remove body odors. It is to be used after the bath, is very convenient, and its delicate fragrance will please the most fastidious. It will add to your mental comfort by insuring your freedom from unpleasant odors. Its subtle odor will delight those around you. It is the last touch in the finished toilette.
 Please remember, if Rexall Nice fails to please you, we will cheerfully refund your money. Price, 25 cents. Please remember also that Rexall Nice is sold in this community only at our store. The Rexall Store. Huntley Bros. Co., Oregon City, Canby, Hubbard, Molalla.

CATTLE MARKET SUPPLY IS SMALL

There was only a small run of stuff at North Portland Thursday. Ten loads of cattle came forward, nine of these being from eastern Oregon and one from the Willamette Valley.
 Considering the quality of livestock presented for sale the former market was maintained. While steers did not bring above $6.95 at that time, cows went at $6 and heifers at $6.40.
 The great difference between the price of cattle at North Portland and a year ago has attracted considerable attention. A year ago steers were quoted as high as $5.65 at this time, while recent sales have been made here up to $7.15.
 The better class of stuff that has come forward this year may make some difference in the price, but the wide spread is due more to the shortage in the east than to local conditions. A year ago, while cattle were high in the east, values here were equally as good and therefore at competitive points Portland shared best in purchases owing to the smaller shrink for stuff coming in this direction.

Prevailing Oregon City prices are as follows:
DRIED FRUITS—(Buying), Prunes on basis 5 to 8 cents.
HIDES—(Buying), Green hides 6c to 7c; salted 7c; dry hides 12 c to 14c; sheep pelts 9c to 85c each.
EGGS—Oregon ranch eggs 23c case count; 24c candeled.
FEED—(Selling), Shorts $25; bran $27; process barley $38 per ton.
FLOUR—$4.60 to 5.50.
POTATOES—New, about 50c to 60c per hundred.
POULTRY—(Buying)—Hens 11c; spring 17c, and rooster 8c.
HAY—(Buying)—Clover at $8; oat hay, best, $10; mixed $10 to $12; alfalfa $15 to $16.50; Idaho Timothy $20.
OATS—(Buying), $8.00 to $8.50, wheat 90c bu.; oil meal, selling about $48.00; Shay Brook dairy feed $1.90 per hundred pounds.
Butter, Poultry, Eggs.
BUTTER—(Buying), Ordinary country butter 20c to 25c; fancy dairy 60c roll.
Livestock, Meats.
BEEF—(Live Weight), Steers 5 1-2c and 6 1-4c; cows 4 1-2c; bulls 3 1-2c.

MOHAIR—33c to 35c.

Haw, Haw, Haw!
 The highbrow was investigating the puzzle factory.
 As he passed cell 23 the grinning inmate demanded a hearing.
 "Why is a crow?" demanded No. 23.
 "I must admit that I am at a loss for a suitable reply," said the highbrow. "Tell me, why is a crow?"
 "Caws," grinned No. 23.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Her Gift.
 A Lancashire vicar was asked by the choir to call upon old Betty, who was deaf, but who insisted in joining in the solo of the anthem, and to ask her only to sing in the hymns. He shouted into her ear, "Betty, I've been requested to speak to you about your singing." At last she caught the word "singing" and replied: "Not to me be the praise, sir. It's a gift."
