PORTLAND MAN MAKES ONE OF BIGGEST GRAIN DEALS IN YEARS

BIG DAYTON POOL IS PURCHASED

Houser Accomplished Similar Feat Last Fall When He Cleared At Least Half Million

PORTLAND, Aug. 28.—One of the largest grain deals ever put through in the Pacific Northwest came to light today. By the purchase of the Dayton barley pool, M. H. Houser, the exporter of this city, practically secured a corner on all the brewing barley produced in this part of the country. Mr. Houser accomplished a similar feat last year and is credited with cleaning up a quarter of a million dollars by the operation. Last year he sold his barley in the East. This year he will export it.

The 1912 barley pool at Dayton contained about 125,000 sacks of brewing grade barley. For this Mr. Houser paid the farmers $1.25 a hundred, which is the highest price paid for barley for export purposes in many years. At the close of last week the Houser agents in the Dayton country bought up all the individual lots of choice barley to be had, aggregating more than 215,000 bags. The total purchase of more than 250,000 bags netted the barley farmers of that section in excess of $300,000.

It is estimated by grain men that 90 per cent of the brewing barley in the Dayton, Waitsburg and Pomeroy sections has now passed into the hands of Mr. Houser, who has also bought this quality in other districts. It is probable that nearly all his purchases will go to Europe. The barley crop abroad has suffered serious damage by recent unfavorable

JUVENILE FAIR HELD HERE TODAY

SUPERINTENDENT ALDERMAN AND E. D. RESSLER WILL DELIVER ADDRESSES

EXHIBITION AT CLARKES ADMIRED

Canby Fair One of Best Ever Held In County—Oregon City Delegation Hampered By Poor Roads

L. R. Alderman, state superintendent of public instruction and Professor E. D. Ressler, of Oregon Agricultural College will speak at the juvenile fair in the Oregon City Commercial Club this morning. The exhibition will start at 9:30 o'clock. Immediately after the judging of fruits and vegetables exhibited by the school children, the baby show will be held. The exhibition will continue throughout the day.

The second day of the juvenile fairs, although it rained in some sections, was a decided success. The first fair visited by the delegation from Oregon City, including Superintendent of Public Instruction Alderman, J. D. Ressler of Oregon Agricultural College, County Superintendent Gary, and Alderman, Gary and Ressler. J. J. Gard had charge of the fair, assisted by Dora Marquardt and Olga Elmer. The exhibitors were Lillie Schiewe, Pauline Hoffstetter, Ruth Banland, Elda Marquardt, Alfred Marquardt, Rupert Marquardt, Dora Marquardt, Ella Schiewe, Ruth Chindgren, Margaret Liechwie, Florence Kleinsmith, W. Kleinsmith, Elsie Kleinsmith, Ruby Schram, Marlan Mudgett, Lawrence Mudgett, Lucile Stout, Laura Gard, Ruby Gard, Clyde Kinszo, Arthur Herlow, Alva Gard and Elmer Rodgers. Owing to the absence of Dr. Guy Mount, who was delayed on account of business, Mr. Gary assisted by Professor Ford judged the babies at the show and the Clarkes. The babies entered in the show were: Elbert Larkins, Zelha Marshall, Marvin Dillow, Lennea Burman, Lynn Wallace and Norma Wallace.

Molalla was reached at noon where dinner was served by the women. After dinner, the exhibits were judged. There were several excellent exhibits in which vegetables, needle work, art work and canned goods were exhibited by individuals. The vegetables in the exhibit were of the best quality and the canned goods were uniform and well put up. An exhibit which attracted much attention was that of three sisters, Mary, Bessie and Maude Echerd. This exhibit was a large one, of much variety and of good quality. Professor Ressler in an address at the Molalla fair told how many of the boys work their way through the college. He told of one boy who came to college to take a short term course of six weeks, and when asked why he did not take a full term course, he explained that he could not afford it. He was told by the faculty that if he could work he could go through college. He now has only one year more before graduation and he has made his expenses through the entire course. He told how there was a demand for leaders in all kinds of work, and that a young man must secure an education in order to be a leader in any work that he undertakes. Mr. Ressler told the parents that they should encourage the children to receive a university education.

Mr. Alderman spoke at Molalla and said that he believed in many cases the parents took more interest in the stock around the farm than in their children. He told of one man he knew who could tell the pedigree, the number, and history of the cows on his farm, but when asked how many children he had, was forced to count them on his fingers though he only had seven.

The exhibitors at Molalla were: Dave Steinger, Maude Steinger, Myrtle Dart, Elsie Dart, Mary Echerd, Virgil Dart, Alice Carpenter, Mary Echerd, Agnes Clifford, Ruth Herman, Maymie Scott, Arthur Scott, Pearl Harless, Albert Carpenter, Burrell Cole, Johnny Echerd, Vida Cole, Lena Gregory, Bessie Echerd, Maude Echerd, Verne Faurie, Marjorie Gregory, Alma Dart, Maude Echerd, Les Palfrey, Mary Palfrey, Bessie Echerd, Reva Everhart, Mary Kay, Val Harless, and Ethel Carpenter. The fair was in charge of W. W. Everhart who was assisted by Leo Shaver. Owing to a whooping cough epidemic no baby show was held at Molalla.

Canby held its fair at the fair grounds. The exhibit was very large and of extraordinary quality. There were many large individual exhibits as well as school exhibits. The Macksburg school had a very large exhibit which covered two long tables. The exhibit from this school was arranged carefully and artistically. Mr. Alderman commented on the exhibit as being larger and of better quality than that of many county fairs that he had visited. John P. Robbins had one of the largest exhibits at the fair. The lad had begun early in the spring to plan for the exhibit. His exhibit included vegetables of all descriptions, chickens, roosters, ducks, bird houses, grains, including alfalfa hay. His exhibit was considered wonderful by all who viewed it, as the lad is only twelve years old and was assisted by no one. He took much pride in his exhibit and explained it to all the visitors.

Walter Keesling of Macksburg also had a large variety of vegetables as well as poultry and furniture. The musk melons that he exhibited were of unusual fine quality. A model of a sailing vessel made by Earl Harms

The interment was in Mountain View cemetery. Meade Post attended the services in a body and many Grand Army men from Portland were present. Rev. Harding, Charles H. Dauchey, J. A. Tufts, H. S. Clyde, and L. P. Horton were the pallbearers. Mr. Bill was born in Vermont and in 1861 enlisted in Company B, Third Minnesota Infantry.

Frank A. Munsey, The Publisher, one of Roosevelt's hardest workers. When Taft's nomination was assured beyond the shadow of a doubt, he said: "Mr. Roosevelt will be nominated for President by a new party. He refuses to have anything more to do with the Republican Convention."

FINAL TRIBUTE IS PAID MRS. SCHOCH

The funeral of Mrs. John Schoch, who died at her home on the West Side Sunday, after a week's illness of apoplexy, was conducted at the St. John's Catholic church Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock, Rev. A. Hillebrand officiating. The interment was in the Catholic cemetery. The church was filled with the many friends of the deceased and of the family, as she was well known in Oregon City, having resided here for the past twenty years. The floral tributes were in profusion and were beautiful. The pallbearers were C. J. Hoode, J. G. Finnucane, C. Endres, M. Muench, H. Jordan, and J. M. Michaels.

Mrs. Schoch is survived by her husband and the following children: Mrs. William Dickelman, Mrs. Edward Cox, Mrs. Joseph Pettit, Miss Rosa Schoch, Stephen Schoch, all of Oregon City. She also leaves a nephew, Paul Hemmelsgrun of Pendleton, formerly of Oregon City; one sister, Mrs. Hemmelsgrun, of Minnesota; two brothers, Jacob Schmidt, of Canby; Henry Schmidt, of Sublimity, Oregon.

Mrs. Schoch was sixty-four years of age, and was born in Germany. She came to Oregon about twenty years ago from Minnesota.

"PITTSBURG" IS FLAGSHIP

BREMERTON, Wash., Aug. 28.—As a result of the name Pennsylvania having been selected by the Navy Department for the new $15,000,000 battleship authorized by Congress shortly before adjournment the name of the armored cruiser Pennsylvania, flagship of the Pacific reserve fleet at Bremerton, today was changed to Pittsburg.

The order came by telegraph from Washington to the Puget Sound Navy Yard and was acted upon immediately.

WOMAN HUCKLEBERRY PICKER SETS RECORD

Mr. and Mrs. John Carothers, who have been picking huckleberries in the mountains, have returned to Oregon City. Mr. and Mrs. Carothers were away only a few days, and returned with 38 gallons, Mrs. Carothers breaking the record, having picked five gallons of berries in four hours. Had they gone prepared they could have brought many more berries than they did. Mrs. Carothers walked seven miles over the mountains leading her pack horse. At the place where they were camped 300 gallons were picked that week, and many more families were coming into get supplies. These berries bring about $1 a gallon and they are well worth the price, as the pickers find they have to undergo many hardships getting over the mountains.

JOHN BULL PROTESTS AGAINST CANAL BILL

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—Great Britain has reaffirmed its protest against the Panama Canal bill. In a note filed today with the State Department by A. Mitchell Inness, charge d'affaires of the British Embassy here, it was said that if a satisfactory agreement could not be reached Great Britain would appeal to The Hague tribunal for arbitration.

The note submitted today says Great Britain will give careful consideration to both the bill and the message President Taft sent to Congress relating to discrimination in favor of American coastwise shipping in the Canal. If, after due consideration, it is found that no satisfactory agreement can be reached in the matter, Great Britain declares it will be necessary to appeal to arbitration.

SINGLE TAX MAN QUILTS HUSTINGS

F. E. COULTER IS PUT TO ROUT BY OPPONENTS OF FELS' PLAN

SHIELDS MAKES GOOD ARGUMENT

"Graduated Single Tax Is But Single Tax," Declares Speaker—Authorities Given To Prove Statement

GRANTS PASS, Or., Aug. 28. (Special.)—Following the trip of Chas. H. Shields, Secretary of the Oregon Equal Taxation League, to Southern Oregon, and the manner in which he routed F. E. Coulter, Single Tax speaker on more than one occasion, Mr. Coulter has now absolutely declined to debate upon the Single Tax issue with E. E. Blanchard, candidate for the State Legislature.

Before he will consent to speak on the same platform with Mr. Blanchard Mr. Coulter demands that Mr. Blanchard confine himself entirely to Graduated Single Tax alone.

He further requires that Mr. Blanchard, Mr. Coulter challenged them both to debate. On one occasion he described Mr. Shields as a reprobate, entirely losing his temper and also the sympathy of the audience.

In discussing this subject Mr. Blanchard said in a recent interview: "In the Portland Journal, the leading Single Tax paper of Oregon, there appeared a recent telegraphic dispatch from London to the effect that Joseph Fels had expended $150,000 in three minor elections in England to favor Single Tax candidates. Mr. Fels himself declared he is backing a Single Tax campaign in Oregon. Mr. W. S. U'Ren in a letter to the Oregonian declared that the Graduated Single Tax measure is an 'honest flat-footed Single Tax measure'."

"So, when Mr. Coulter wants me to admit that Graduated Single Tax is not Single Tax, I am also inclined to have considerable doubt regarding his sanity."

"Graduated Single Tax is but Single Tax in a form that will appeal to the emotions. It is Single Tax, pure and simple, and I give my authority above. It will cause land confiscation because the values given in the measure are dependent upon present taxation, and if the large landowners are forced to sell instantly, as the Graduated Single Taxers claim, there will be only but a number of small holdings to place the small taxation on and as this will be impossible to provide the state and the county with the amount of taxation required, the taxes must accordingly quickly mount until they become almost prohibitive on the small tract."

"Under Graduated Single Tax we should exempt all other forms of personal property, so we have nothing left but the land. Consequently it is not difficult for any one to see that Mr. Coulter is simply suffering from

M'BAIN GOES EAST FOR PAPER PLANT

PRESIDENT OF COMMERCIAL CLUB IS AFTER $100,000 CONCERN

WOULD EMPLOY AT LEAST 200 MEN

Final Plans For Carnegie Library Also Will Be Arranged—Details Yet To Be Settled

R. T. McBain, President of the Oregon City Commercial Club, left Wednesday for Boston where he will confer with the management of the Pike, Crane Paper Company, of Pittsfield, Mass. The company is desirous of locating a finishing plant in the west. Denver, Col., is favored at present as the location, but Mr. McBain hopes to convince the officers that Oregon City would be a better place. The plan is to ship the unfinished paper to the plant and convert it into writing paper, envelopes, tablets, etc. The cost of shipping unfinished paper is comparatively small, and it is planned by the company to have a distributing point in the west.

It is announced that the company will expend at least $100,000 in the building of a plant, and will employ at least 200 persons. If the plant is located in Oregon City it will supply envelopes, tablets and fine writing paper for the entire Pacific Coast. While in the East Mr. McBain will make final arrangements for the Carnegie Library. There are still several details regarding the building to be arranged. Mr. McBain will be gone several weeks.

HUNTING PLANS ARE SPOILED BY RUNAWAY

Bradley Woodward and Gerald Warner, who started several days ago on a hunting trip to the mountains, have returned home. They left this city on a cart, which was heavily loaded with provisions, but upon reaching Springfield the cart broke down and the horse ran away. The cart was demolished. The boys sustained slight injuries. They telephoned to this city for an automobile to bring them back to Oregon City.
