CARRIERS TO MEET HERE NEXT YEAR

OREGON CITY MEN EASILY WIN HONOR FROM McMINNVILLE WORKERS

C. W. LEVEE IS NAMED DELEGATE

Better Roads, Higher Salaries and Different Arrangement of Vacations Urged—Visitors Are Entertained

DALLAS, Or., Sept. 2.—The convention of the Oregon Rural Lettercarrier's Association, held in this city yesterday and today, adjourned this afternoon at 1 o'clock. The association will meet one year from now at Oregon City. Practically all delegates have left the city leaving on the afternoon Portland and Salem trains.

The work of the convention consisted in reading committee reports.
The order of unfinished business was also taken up. After adjournment at 9 o'clock last night the carriers were entertained at the Star Theatre by the Dallas postoffice officials. A smoker constituted a part of the entertainment. There was also an interesting program.

Formally at 8 o'clock this morning the session opened and the regular order of business proceeded. The reports of the president, the secretary and the National delegate were read and all accepted.

On motion, the rules were declared suspended and the present officers of the association were re-elected by acclamation with the exception of National delegate. The contest over National delegate was keen. The privilege of representing the local association at the annual convention of the National Association of Rural Letter-carriers is the most sought-for position. President Kraberger and Secretary Boyd of the Oregon Association, were both mentioned for this position and could have secured it by acclamation, but both declined for the reason set forth by them that they had already served in that capacity and they believed the office should be passed around.

Three men were placed in nomination for this office: James E. Loop, of McMinnville; C. W. Levee, of Corvallis, and Archie Parker, of Independence. Five ballots were taken before Mr. Levee secured the necessary majority to elect. Mr. Levee has been a member of the association for a considerable length of time, has always taken an active interest in its work and has shown himself fitted for the important position to which he has been elected.

The contest over the next convention city was keen between McMinnville and Oregon City. The organization of the Oregon City delegation was too strong to be overcome and Oregon City won on the first ballot by a substantial majority.

During the morning session today H. G. Durand, postal inspector, ex-

Structure One of Finest in State and Attractive

The new home of Oregon City Lodge No. 1189, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, will be thrown open to the members at 7 o'clock next Thursday night. The opening will be informal in character and after Thursday night the home will be open from 9 A. M. until midnight every day. The ladies' parlor will be kept open for ladies every day from 9 A. M. until midnight. The house committee that will govern the club is W. H. Howell, chairman; E. J. Noble, secretary, H.
S. Moody, W. H. Bair, and G. C.
Fields. The first meeting of the lodge in the new hall on the second floor of the building will be held next Friday night.

At the front entrance there are two large elk, which are to be tinted in Elk coloring. They are mounted on pedestals, and the horns and eyes of the elk are to be illuminated with bright electric lights. In the corridor is a handsome elk head mounted on curly maple. It is probably the finest elk head that has ever been seen in this city. In this room is the stairway leading to the second story. In the rear is the stein room and fine old fireplace. Over the mantel and along the sides is a handpainted woodland scene with elk in the distance.

The billiard room is one of the attractive rooms in the building as also is the card room, where there are four tables of elegant design. The carpets in these rooms are of the same as that used in the corridor and lobby.
On this floor and facing the river is the ladies' reception hall, the tinting of the ceiling corresponding with the wallpaper of rose color. The hangings are of a darker shade and are rich and magnificent. Dark green is used in most of the other rooms except the lodge room, which has hangings of rich purple velvet.

The basement will be used for banquets and a bowling alley will be installed.

It has been decided to have the formal dedication Wednesday, September 11, from 2 to 5 o'clock. The house committee and building and furnishing committees will act as reception committee. The public will be invited to inspect the building.
The lodge room is carpeted in Brown Welton velvet, the furniture of this room being of corresponding color and upholstered in brown leather.
The exalted ruler's chair is of massive piece of furniture and on the walls are the memorial tablets lighted by many incandescent lights. There are two large crayons, one of Charles Vivian, founder of the Elks' Lodge while the other is of the late Dr. W. E.
Carll, first exalted ruler of the Oregon City lodge. Henry O'Malley has presented to the lodge for use in this room a large and beautiful bear rug, which has been mounted and is ornamented by the animal's head.
The buffet adjoins the banquet room. This room will be canvassed, the rug to be colored to correspond to the furniture.

TAFT AND COLONEL IN TEST FIGHT TODAY

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 2.—That San Francisco will give the regular Republican candidates a majority of at least 10,000 votes tomorrow is the prediction of the members of the Republican county committee and of the friends of President Taft, who are interested in the campaign both in the city and state.

Tom Finn, who is in control of the forces of the Bull Moose, said this morning that he thinks the third-term party will win a majority of the legislative contests. However, Tom is uncertain and explains that it will be a close and hard fight in many districts.
"You know you never can tell what the voters will do, but we hope that the men pledged to support Roosevelt will win in their districts. But the Taft men are putting up a hard fight and some strong arguments. Their candidates make strong appeals to many persons, but I hope to see our side succeed."

SCHNOERR TRIAL TO BE HELD TODAY

PRESIDENT OF VEREIN ACCUSED OF LIBELING CHRIS
SCHUEBEL

W. S. U'REN TO AID PROSECUTOR

Defendant Charged With Having Advertisement Published in Enterprise Reflecting On Complainant

The trial of Gustav Schnoerr, Republican candidate for the state legislature, president of the German Verein of Clackamas County, and vice-president of the Consolidated German Speaking Societies of Oregon, charged with a violation of the Corrupt Practices Act, will be begun today in the Circuit Court before Judge J. A. Eakin, of Astoria. The case will be tried by jury, and is not expected to consume more than two days.

Mr. Schnoerr was indicted by the Grand Jury just after he was nominated at the Primary Election, upon complaint of Chris Schuebel, who was also a candidate for the legislature and who, during the campaign, is said to have attacked Mr. Schnoerr, charging him with being allied with the corporations and being pushed forward with the main object of defeating Schuebel for the Republican nomination. This assertion Mr. Schnoerr indignantly resented with a newspaper advertisement published a few days before the date of the Primary Election, in which he made charges that incensed Schuebel to the point that he rushed to the Grand Jury with his political troubles and an indictment followed.

District Attorney E. B. Tongue and his Clackamas County deputy, Livy Stipp, will appear for the State, along with W. S. U'Ren, a law partner of Schuebel, as private prosecutor. Mr.
Schnoerr is represented by Gordon E.
Brownell, J. E. Hedges and George C.
Hayes.

Soon after Mr. Schnoerr was indicted, Schuebel filed suit against the Morning Enterprise, in which the advertisement appeared, for libel, claiming $10,000, and he also filed a suit against Mr. Schnoerr for

DE BOK PREDICTS VICTORY AT FAIR

WILLAMETTE MAN THINKS CLACKAMAS COUNTY WILL WIN FIRST PRIZE

EXHIBIT FINER THAN EVER BEFORE

Weather Condition First Day Good And Large Crowd Attends—Labor Unions Have
Place Of Honor

"I think Clackamas County will take first prize this year," said George De-Bok, of Willamette, who returned from Salem Monday evening. Mr. De-Bok assisted O. E. Freytag, E. P. Carter, Ralph McGetchie and W. E. Niles in arranging the exhibit.

"The display is a credit to the county," continued Mr. DeBok, "and if it does not win the prize I shall be very much mistaken. Benton county which won the prize last year also has a fine display, but I think ours is superior. The judging will start tomorrow, and I think before tomorrow night news will be received here of victory. The exhibit, which is much larger than last year, could be made even larger if there was more room.
We learned that there was 5,000 pounds of fruits and vegetables at Sherwood awaiting shipment. But the bungalow is filled now. The juvenile exhibition at the fair is really a fair in itself. I never saw anything like it, and it reflects much credit upon the children."

Mr. DeBok will return to Salem tomorrow.

SALEM, Or., Sept. 2.—Under a lead-colored sky but with the heavier clouds breaking away at noon and the sun in evidence at times, the fifty-first annual State Fair opened here today without a hitch in the program and with a large crowd in attendance.
During the night a heavy rain fell and the day broke with a drizzle and a threatening sky. As it advanced, however, the sky began to assume a brighter aspect, and by noon everything pointed to a rainless day with assurances of more or less sunshine.
