STATE ELECTION RESULTS

Republicans who are faint-hearted and who have been scared into fits by the big noise of the Roosevelt-Perkins-Harvester Trust Party may take courage over the showing manifested by the returns from Vermont, where a state election was held Tuesday. While the Republican vote was cut down, this was to have been expected with a third party in the field, and the wild claims of the Bull Moose organization that Republicans would be third in the race have been proven unfounded. It is true the election for Governor or will be thrown into the legislature, but this body has a Republican plurality, and the only thing to prevent the election of a Republican Governor will be a fusion of Democrats and Rooseveltians in the legislature. The vote in California is also very disappointing to the Bull Moose people though they have a fair chance of securing places on the Republican electoral ticket, through the machinery of the state government, imperated by Governor Johnson, candidate for vice-president on the Roosevelt ticket.

The Democrats are making small gains in Vermont, but the party fight is somewhat over-shadowed by the struggle between the Republicans and the so-called Progressives. Mr. Roosevelt may find it difficult to reconcile his "confession of faith" with some of his political allies in the East, in Oregon, in Clackamas County and elsewhere. We apologize to one Max Telford for the seeming inference, for he is one man who the Enterprise believes is acting in sincerity.

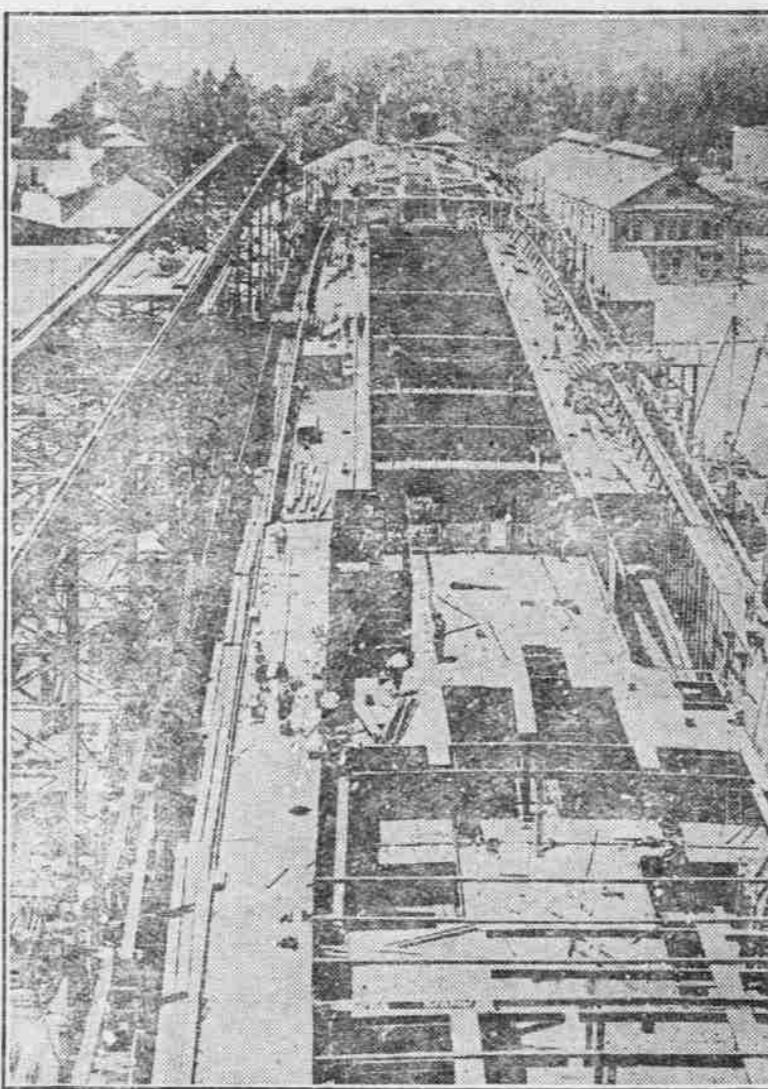

Clackamas lost the first prize for the best county exhibit at the Oregon State Fair by the very narrow margin of three points, scoring 94 to 97 points for Benton county. Lack of space is said to be the sole reason for Clackamas being unable to make a showing sufficient to win first honors. However, second prize is good, and we gave Benton a good run for her money. Residents of this county who worked so earnestly and faithfully to arrange our exhibit are certainly deserving of no little credit and should be so encouraged by their showing to try a little harder for the first prize next year.

MISS RUTH NOTZ HAS BEAUTIFUL WEDDING

A beautiful wedding was that of Miss Ruth Notz and Ernest Naef at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Notz, near Clackamas Wednesday evening. The double ring ceremony was used, Rev. Mr. Spies performing the ceremony. The bride wore a veil and orange blossoms which had been worn by her mother when she was married. Her sister, Miss Hedwig Notz, was the bridesmaid. There were more than fifty guests and a delicious supper was served after the ceremony. The bridegroom has a beautiful home at Naef Station, which will be occupied by the couple upon their return from their bridal trip. Henry Pfister was the best man.

Indinite. "Darling, yours shall be a sunny lot in life." "Now, look here, George. Are you talking of your behavior or of where we are going to build in the suburbs?" —Baltimore American. Zinc. Zinc will be given a fine luster if polished with one part sulphuric acid to twelve of water.

Collier Jupiter, Now Being Built at Mare Island Yard

THE largest vessel ever built on the Pacific coast is in process of construction at the Mare Island navy yard, San Francisco. It is the Collier Jupiter, destined for service in the United States navy. It will be 528 feet in length and sixty-five feet in breadth, with a draft of twenty-eight feet when loaded to capacity. Fourteen thousand tons of coal and oil will be its maximum cargo, and its total displacement will be 20,000 tons. Like the sister ships among the naval colliers, the Cyclops and the Neptune, the Jupiter will be able to replenish the bunkers of two ships at sea at the same time, thanks to the placing of the derricks in two rows, one on either side. This huge ship, so necessary to the welfare and in sight even to the existence of the fleet, will carry no armament.

GOOD NATURE. Affability, mildness, tenderness, and a word which I would fain bring back to its original significance of virtue—I mean good nature—are of daily use in this wretched world of ours. They are the bread of mankind and staff of life. —Dryden.

Bringing it Home. Bob—Don't you think love is a species of insanity? Ethel—Sometimes. Who's been falling in love with you?

COLONEL STANLEY TO ENTERTAIN FOR LODGE

The Loyal Order of Moose, which has a large membership in Oregon City, intends that local 961 will be as well housed as any organization in this part of the state before the social events of the winter start. The house committee has engaged Colonel King Stanley to appear at the Shively Opera House Friday night, for the benefit of the new home.

Colonel Stanley's entertainment consists of the wonderful and mirth provoking sleight of hand he acquired on his travels through India, and for two hours he keeps his audience mystified and amused with marvelous feats never before seen in this section of the country.

COUNCIL HALTS WORK ON STREETS

City Recorder Stipp informed the members of the council in a report that the property which the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company says it has leased to the Hawley Pulp & Paper Company on Main street below First to the basin belongs to the city and is part of Main street. The report was referred to the committee on streets and public property which will investigate and report at the next meeting of the council.

Safe and Sane Fourth of July will be held in Oregon City in the future, owing to an ordinance passed at the meeting prohibiting the explosion of firecrackers in the city limits. The ordinance appropriating $1,200 for building retaining walls was passed. Ordinances authorizing the purchase of twelve fire hydrants and appropriating money for their purchase and also for provision for a fire alarm system were also passed.

An ordinance establishing a grade on Thirteenth street from the west line of J. Q. Adams street to the west line of Jackson street was read for the first time and ordered published. The application of the Oregon Engineering & Construction company for the transferring of warrants from the Washington street fund to the General fund was referred to the City Recorder who will report at the next council meeting.

Insects and Books. Books dusted with powdered alum and white pepper will never be attacked by insects.

MISS RHODA SMITH WEDS PORTLAND MAN

One of the prettiest weddings of the season was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith, of Damascus, Wednesday at high noon, when their only daughter, Miss Rhoda Smith, became the wife of Mr. James A. McCarty, of Portland, the marriage ceremony being performed by Rev. Moore, pastor of the Methodist church of Lents. The house was a bower of beauty with its decorations of pink and white Chinese asters, pink and white being the color scheme used in the parlor, living room and dining room. These delicate tinted flowers were used with artistic taste in the rooms as well as on the tables, where a sumptuous dinner was served, which followed the marriage ceremony.

The bride, who is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith, Mr. Smith being one of the prominent farmers of Clackamas county, has spent most of her life at Damascus, where she is held in the highest esteem by all. She is an accomplished young woman, and is one of the most popular girls in her home town.

The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony McCarty, of Mount Taber, Portland, and is well known in Portland, where he has resided for some time.

Those attending the marriage were: Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Cooke and son, Frank, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Feathers and baby, Miss Martha Keyes, Mrs. Gustafson, Miss Nellie Gustafson, Milton Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith of Damascus; Miss Josephine Jannson, Miss Lyle McCarty, Miss D. B. McCarty, Miss Sadie McCarty, Miss Nellie McCarty, Miss Kathryn Gray, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Deakman and daughters, May and Eleanor, Ira B. Dodge, Miss Alice Banfield, Miss Rena Posson, Mrs. Belle Sleight, Roy Sleight and Miss Annala Sleight, all of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Roberts, of Battleground, Wash.

A Mistake. Hewitt—Will you watch my trunk for a minute? Jewett—What do you take me for, a chest protector?
