

One Exception.

"Johnny, my boy, you must never tell a lie. That is the worst thing you could do. Every one admires a truthful boy."
"All right, ma. What shall I tell Mrs. Johnson when she calls and asks if you are in—same as you told me to tell her last time or the truth?"

Put His Foot In It.
"Good morning, Mrs. Smithers. This is the first opportunity I have had to congratulate you since your marriage!"
"My name is not Smithers; it is Jones."
"Why, Smith told me you were getting married, and when I asked him who the lucky man was he said it was Dick Smithers!"
"Mr. Smithers is the name of the man I rejected. And you may tell!"
"Oh, excuse me!" Houston Post.

Origin of Oxtail Soup.
During the reign of terror in Paris in 1793 many of the nobility were reduced to starvation and beggary. The abbots sent their hides fresh to the tanneries without removing the tails, and in cleaning them the tails were thrown away. One of the noble beggars asked for a tail, and it was willingly given to him. He took it to his lodging and made (what is now famous) the first dish of oxtail soup. He told others of his good luck, and they annoyed the tanners so much that a price was put upon them.

Time and Trouble.
Ten minutes would get rid of lots of trouble that it takes hours to tell.—New York Times.

IN PUREST WHITE

A distinctly summer evening gown of white chiffon over silk with ruffles of fine lace has been reproduced here. A narrow yoke of the lace is placed above the triple ruffles of lace which are attached to a partially shaped chiffon cap or cape, the whole forming sleeves and bodice trimming. The bodice itself is a simple blouse of chiffon. The skirt leans slightly to the panner mode, the outline of the latter marked by a narrow ruffle of lace. Another wider ruffle encircles the lower portion of the skirt.

EX-HEILIG ACTOR GETS DIVORCE HERE

Daniel S. Ayres, until recently leading man of the stock company at the Heilig Theatre in Portland was granted a divorce from Cecelia Frances Ayres by Judge Campbell Wednesday. The plaintiff has been known in Portland as Sidney Ayres. He left that city about two weeks ago to play at various places in California. They were married in New York City January 8, 1902, and the plaintiff alleged that his wife deserted him August 10, 1907, while they were living in that city.

The Sardinians.
Sardinia was a wild place in the middle of the last century. A traveler says: "The men are clothed in goatskins, one before and another behind, without breeches, shoes or stockings, and a woolen or skin cap on the head. The women have no other habiliments than a long woolen gown and a woolen cap. The peasants always go armed to defend themselves from one another, so that traveling in the interior is extremely unsafe without an escort, and it is even dangerous for ships to send their people on shore for water unless they are well armed. In short, the Sardinians are the Malays of the Mediterranean."

Shadow of the Holy Stone.
It is a singular fact that June 21 is the only day in the year that at sunrise a shadow is cast by the "holy stone" across the altar stone at Stonehenge, England. The event is always made the occasion of a pilgrimage at daybreak by members of the Universal Bond of the Sons of Men and many American tourists. Stonehenge is reported to have been a sun temple.

Quite Unnatural.
He—I thought the author of this play was famous for his keen understanding of the female character? She—Well, do you doubt it? He—Of course. He has just made his heroine say that she "will suffer in silence."—Illustrated Bits.

Gave Himself Away.
He—But, my love, I can't live without you. She—Poor thing; haven't you any trade?—Exchange.

ONION PRICES ALL ALONG COAST WEAK

Onion market prices are very weak all along the coast and sales are at present being made at the lowest price for many years. Best Walla Walla offerings are being quoted even in small lots down to 80@85c a cental while the price is too low to bring in California stock.
On account of the lower figure in effect it is not likely that local onions will be freely offered for some time. While a small supply has been available, the marketing has been nominal, both due to price and weather conditions.
No improvement is noted in the potato trade although Front street in Portland is selling more than formerly. This is due entirely to the lack of peddling direct to retailers and consumers by nearby producers.
No outside demand can be confirmed even at present low prices although dealers here have spent considerable money in wiring offers to the southwest. All answers are practically the same, California is offering lower.

Prevailing Oregon City prices are as follows:
DRIED FRUITS—(Buying), Prunes on basis 6 to 8 cents.
HIDES—(Buying), Green hides 6c to 7c; salted 7c; dry hides 12c to 14c; sheep pelts 30c to 35c each.
EGGS—Oregon ranch eggs 23c case count; 24c candeled.
FEED—(Selling), Shorts $25; bran $27; process barley $38 per ton.
FLOUR—$4.60 to 5.50.
POTATOES—New, about 50c to 60c per hundred.

POULTRY—(Buying)—Hens 11c; spring 17c, and rooster 8c.
HAY—(Buying)—Clover at $8; oat hay, best, $10; mixed $10 to $12; alfalfa $15 to $16.50; Idaho Timothy $20.
OATS—(Buying), $30.00 to $36.50, wheat 90c bu., oil meal, selling about $48.00; Shay Brook dairy feed $1.30 per hundred pounds.
Butter, Poultry, Eggs.

BUTTER—(Buying), Ordinary country butter 20c to 25c; fancy dairy 60c roll.
Livestock, Meats.
BEEF—(Live Weight), Steers 5 1-2c and 6 1-4c; cows 4 1-2c; bulls 3 1-2c.
