PORTLAND DAY DRAWS BIG CROWD TO FAIR

SALEM, Or., Sept. 5.—Sheltered by umbrellas, sunny faced despite the rain, a thousand Portlanders in a special train swept down upon the state fair today. With the songs and yells of the Royal Rosarians and the all-pervading presence of people whom weather could not daunt, the big exhibit seemed transformed into a Rose City enterprise.

Someone had said the agricultural exhibits would have been more mature had the fair been later, but the Portlanders looked upon the representation of the richness and fatness of Oregon and exclaimed: "What would these be like if ripe?" They saw the farm machinery that cultivates Beaver state soil and the yellow pears and red apples and big potatoes and the honey and the flowers and a thousand other things that the soil produces.

A leading feature of Portland day was the entertainment of the corps of white uniformed showy Royal Rosarians. Through the effort of J. L. Miller they were taken directly to luncheon at the Marion as guests of the Salem board of trade and Mayor Lachmund. They had a street drill and led by a full lunged brass band they rode in their autos, then came to the fair, where they enjoyed every feature of the program, including the fat stock and the races, which were pulled off regardless of the sprinkle.

WEST SIDE CLUB TO ASK BETTER ROADS

The second meeting of the West Side Improvement Club was held Thursday evening in the parlors of the Commercial Club. About forty men and six women were present. Occasion to the absence of President McBain who is in the east, in the interest of the Commercial Club and the Carnegie Library, G. L. Snidow, the vice-president presided. An entertainment will be held at the Bolton school house, where the next meeting of the Club will be held, the first Thursday in October. A committee, composed of William Schwartz, N. Michaels, M. Clancy, W. A. Magone and G. Lytsell, was appointed to confer with the County Court in regard to the improvement of three main roads on the west side. A committee also was appointed to confer with the Portland Railway Light & Power company in regard to the clearing away of the brush along the West Oregon City walk that leads to the bridge. The club will endeavor to obtain the use of several rooms in the waiting room on the west side as permanent club rooms. The Board of Governors will meet frequently to transact routine business, in order that the regular meetings can be held more for entertainment in the future.

Stories from Out of Town

CANBY.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lee and family have moved from North Bend to Canby for the winter. Mr. Lee thinks there is no place like Canby, as this is his old stamping ground, having been born and raised here. # WOLVERTON PICKS RED SOX TO BEAT GIANTS

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—Manager Harry Wolverton of the New York Americans, formerly pilot of the Oakland team, today picked the Boston Red Sox to win the world's championship should they finish first in the American League race.

"If it is New York," he said, "Boston will win hands down. In Joe Wood, Stahl has a pitcher the equal of Marquard or even Mathewson. He is a bear for work. He will startle the Giant slugers with his terrific speed. O'Brien and Bedient will offset any other two twirlers the McGraw has, and in Speaker, Hooper and Lewis, Boston has the best outfield in the league. The infield, too, is stronger in every department, and Boston should beat New York just as easily as the Athletics did last fall."

The results Thursday follow:

Pacific Coast League Standings

Team	W	L	P.C.
Los Angeles	87	58	600
Vernon	86	58	597
Oakland	84	65	564
Portland	80	71	459
San Francisco	62	88	413
Sacramento	52	91	364

At Sacramento—Portland 6, Sacramento 0.

At San Francisco—Vernon-Oakland game postponed; rain.

At Los Angeles—Los Angeles 2, San Francisco 0.

National League

Team	W	L	P.C.
New York 3-4	Philadelphia 1-2	Cincinnati 4	Chicago 1
Pittsburg 5	St. Louis 4	Brooklyn 4	Boston 3

DEMAND FOR LAMBS IS GROWING DAILY

Pilot Rock lambs sold at $5.60 in the North Portland market Thursday topping the previous price by a dime. The animal were of extra good quality and the advance was in line with the higher prices obtained the day before for extra select mutton. James Maco was the shipper of the prize stuff Thursday which averaged 75 pounds.

"Extra good lambs are well worth the money," says R. B. Caswell, of Kildwell & Caswell, who made the sale at the seasons' record at North Portland. "The market is in a very good position if good stuff is offered."

There was a run of 1068 head in the mutton trade, compared with 399 a week ago, 1287 a year ago and 334 head the same day two years ago.

COWBOYS TO RESCUE AMERICANS IN MEXICO

DOUGLAS, Ariz., Sept. 5.—Equipped with 120 rifles and 60,000 rounds of ammunition, which were shipped into this city last night, an organized body of cowboys is prepared today to move at a moment's notice into Sonora, Mexico, where Americans are said to be gravely imperiled.

The cowboys met secretly last night and organized themselves into a military body. It was declared that the invasion of Sonora would be an accomplished fact within two or three days.

Millions of dollars' worth of American property in Sonora is said to be in imminent peril of confiscation or destruction.

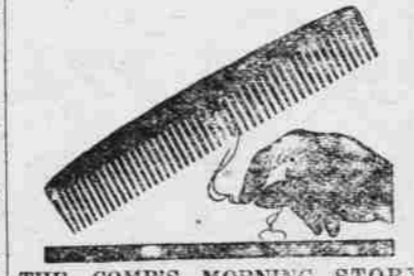

The country south of Douglas is overrun with rebels, who are said to be short of ammunition. Rebels yesterday visited Ysabel Station near the El Tigre Mining Camp, an American property. Merchandise valued at $1000 was taken from the company store. The rebels then burned the bridges tore up track on the Nacozari Railway near Ysabel, 35 miles south of the border. Another band of 400 rebels is reported five miles north of the El Tigre camp.

RUNAWAY HURTS 30 AS COLONEL SPEAKS

ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 5.—Just as Colonel Roosevelt began speaking at the fair grounds in Hamline, near here, today, a runaway horse plunged into the crowd about the stand. Seven persons were injured and were taken to hospitals. Thirty others were knocked down and suffered lesser injuries.

More than 30 men, women and children were trampled by the maddened horse within a few feet of where Colonel Roosevelt was speaking. Roosevelt seemed unmoved by the tumult, and continued his address in an effort to reassure the throng. The horse stopped plunging when the crowd became so dense that it could not proceed further, and was dragged down by a dozen hands. None of the injured is expected to die.

More than 20,000 persons gathered at the state fair grounds at Hamline, near here, today, and gave Colonel Roosevelt a tremendous ovation when the Progressive presidential nominee started an exposition of his views on agriculture, education and the doctrines of the new party.

THE COMB'S MORNING STORY

You know the story the comb tells. It's a very discouraging story, too. Day by day, a few more strands are added, of hair that is turning grey, losing its vitality, its strength and its health. Grey hair is as unbecoming as old age. Natural pride should have its own say. You wish to look young and it is your DUTY to appear so. You can't even LOOK young if the silver threads begin to show. Be a "Young Woman" in looks, always. The grey hairs belong to the chapman and to the grandmother. Stay out of the grandmother class, until your years justify it, by using—

MAGICIAN TO GIVE EXHIBITION TONIGHT

Colonel King Stanley who appears at Shively's opera house tonight for the benefit of the new Moose home gave a private exhibition Thursday to members of the order and their friends at the O. W. F. Freight house, which was very much enjoyed. Feats in Hindoo magic are performed with the greatest ease, and it is safe to say that a more mystified audience was never seen in Oregon City. Tonight he promises to produce for the first time such tricks as the "Instantaneous Incubator," "The Devil's Pardon" and others. "The show must be seen to be appreciated. There is no lecture connected with this entertainment."
