

MORNING ENTERPRISE

WEEKLY ENTERPRISE ESTABLISHED 1866

VOL. IV—No. 58

OREGON CITY, OREGON, SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 8, 1912

PER WEEK, 10 CENTS

WASHINGTON BULL MOOSE VOTE LIGHT

ROBERT T. HODGE, OF SEATTLE, LEADER IN RACE FOR GOVERNOR

BALLOTING FOR CONGRESS IS KEEN

Ballaine and Bryan Apparently In Close Race for Seat at Large—Counting of Vote Is Slow

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 8.—Scattered returns from over the state in the Roosevelt primaries today show Robert T. Hodge, of Seattle, is leading for the Governorship nomination. Paulhamis and Lawrence are running good outside of King County.

Ballaine and Bryan are leading for Congressmen-at-large, although Corbaley polls the East Side vote.

Durham seems to be defeated in the Spokane district for Congressman, by F. M. Goodwin.

The vote is unusually light, and only scattered precincts were used at all.

The vote cast in King County, the largest in the state, was probably not over 3000 in the Roosevelt primaries today.

Returns from a few scattered precincts show Hodge leading for Governor, Case second.

For Congressman-at-large, Ballaine and Bryan are leading.

Thirty-two precincts, all but two being in King County, give for Governor Hodge 233, Case 96, Lawrence 80, Paulhamis 33.

For Congress, First District, Landolt is leading Walker two to one.

For Congressman-at-large, Ballaine and Bryan seem to have carried King County.

PAULINA, Ia., Sept. 7.—Rev. H. Grete, pastor of the Lutheran Church in Germantown, Ia., at 12 o'clock last night was burned to death before the eyes of his children and several other persons while pinned beneath a wrecked motor car. The blaze was started from a lantern with which his rescuers were working.

TROOPS ORDERED SENT TO BORDER

U. S. SOLDIERS MAY ENTER MEXICO IN SEARCH OF RAIDERS

CAVALRY IS TO BE DISPATCHED

No Intervention Planned But Troops, By Agreement May Cross Line—Situation, However, Grave

BEVERLY, Mass., Sept. 8.—President Taft this afternoon authorized Major General Wood, chief-of-staff of the United States Army, by telephone to dispatch a once two more regiments of cavalry to the Mexican border.

No authorization was given by the president to have the troops cross the border. The president regards the situation as grave.

The president directed the dispatch of one regiment from Fort Riley, Kan. and one from Fort D. A. Russell, Wyo.

It was said here that while no more troops were to be sent during the next few days, the situation has become quite alarming to the Washington authorities.

It can be said on authority, however, that intervention will not be considered by Mr. Taft except as a last resort. He has told many of his advisors that he would not send the army across the Texas border until every possible move had been made to afford protection to Americans by the Madero government.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—The War Department is preparing to dispatch two more regiments of cavalry to the Mexican border. General Wood, chief of staff, asked President Taft today for his approval of the order.

The troops will be taken from Forts Riley, Kan., and D. A. Russell, Wyo., one regiment from each post.

Reports to the war department today included urgent requests for reinforcements for the present border patrol.

SOON WILL COME THE SEASON OF THE CHEERFUL IDIOT WHO LEAVES HIS CAMPFIRE BURNING.

BRIDE-ELECT IS GUEST OF HONOR

Miss Kate Porter entertained in a most delightful manner Wednesday afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock, a few friends of Miss Lucile Beard, a teacher of the Portland schools, whose marriage will take place in Portland in September. The affair was one of the prettiest parties that has ever been given in this city.

The decorations were suitable for the occasion, festoons of hearts, cupid's darts being used about the parlor, living room and dining room with artistic effect.

The color scheme was red, red Chinese asters, red roses, carnations and dahlias were used in profusion. The afternoon was devoted to bridge and a heart contest, the heart being used as a target, and each guest had the privilege of "taking a shot" at the mark, the prize in this being won by Miss Emily O'Malley, which was a handsome hand painted plate.

Mrs. A. J. Farmer, of Portland, carried off the honors in bridge, being presented with a beautiful hand painted cup and saucer. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, who was assisted in entertaining by her sister, Miss Fannie Porter. The affair was in the form of a souper upon show, and the bride-elect was presented with many handsome souvenirs.

The guests were Mrs. Gillispie, Miss Ruby Pond, Miss Daisy Larsen, Miss Roberta Rippey, Miss Irene Ray, Miss Margaret West, Miss Louise Wyvel, Miss Henrietta Holm, Miss Mable Tanbenheimer, Miss Nancy Baker, Miss Edith Kidcombe, Miss Lucile Beard, Miss Rachel Farmer, Miss Grace Callihunt, Miss Grace Browning, Miss Charlotte Lucas, Miss Emily O'Malley, Miss Mollie Bruce, Miss Estella Marian, Mrs. A. J. Farmer, Miss Fannie Porter.

LOUIS NOBEL SAVES WOMEN IN RUNAWAY

Louis Nobel, Jr. played the part of a hero Friday afternoon when two young women were driving two spirited horses, which became frightened by a Southern Pacific train near the Congregational church. Nobe, who is employed by the Oregon Commission Company rushed to the assistance of the women and jumped in the wagon. He caught the reins and stopped the horses. Persons who had rushed to the scene applauded the young man for his brave act. The two young women were almost overcome with fright, and but for young Nobel probably would have been injured.

SHAW IS PRAISED FOR SAVING DOGS

E. L. Shaw has received several letters of congratulation from members of the Portland and other humane societies for the novel plan evolved by him to save the lives of impounded dogs which have been condemned to die. Several dogs were to have been killed last Tuesday, but in the Morning Enterprise of that day was an announcement by the chief that he would try to sell the dogs at auction. As a result a large crowd gathered at the pound and several fine canines were sold for fancy prices. It was sometime, however, before he got a bid for a mongrel, but when the bidding started it was spirited and finally the animal was "knocked down" for almost as much as was received for all the others that were sold. The chief Saturday received a letter from a Portland woman who did not sign her name, in which was enclosed the following, printed on silk:

"Amongst the noblest in the land, Though he may count himself the least, The man I honor and revere, Who without favor, without fear, In the great city dares to stand, The friend of every friendless beast."

LIVE WIRES WILL MEET TUESDAY

The Live Wires of the Oregon City Commercial Club will resume their weekly sessions next Tuesday with luncheon in the banquet hall of the Masonic building. The Wires held no meetings in July and August, but with the coming of fall they expect to take up the work of advancing the interests of Oregon City and Clackamas County. M. D. Latourette, secretary of the Commercial Club, is the Main Trunk Line and J. E. Hedgess is Feed Wire. He will look after the wants of the inner man.

FRANK SULLIVAN GETS FINE POSITION

Frank Sullivan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sullivan, of this city, has been appointed head of the mechanical and architectural drafting of the Portland School of Trades. He will begin his duties within a few weeks. Mr. Sullivan is well known in this city. He was graduated from the University of Oregon in 1909. After his graduation from that institution he was at the head of the mechanical and architectural drafting of the Portland School of Trades. After teaching there for two and one-half years he resigned his position and since that time has been engaged in civil engineering for the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company.

RURAL SUPERVISORS START SCHOOL WORK

The rural school supervisors began their work Monday, September 2. County Superintendent Gary supervises district No. 4, consisting of many of the larger schools located in the various supervisory districts. J. E. Calavan enters upon the second year of service in the third district, south of Oregon City. Miss Winnie Hewitt succeeds Emilie C. Shaw in the first district. Miss Hewitt is conducting an institute for primary teachers in the Oregon City High School building. She has been a specialist in primary work in Wisconsin and in Oregon. H. M. James succeeds C. F. Anderson in the second district. Mr. James and Mr. Calavan examined the educational exhibits at the Seattle fair last week with a view to incorporating improvements in the School Fair to be held in 1913 in Clackamas County. They also spent a few days in preliminary work in their respective fields. The outlook for Clackamas County Schools this year is excellent.

CHILDREN HERE WIN FAIR PRIZES

CLACKAMAS COUNTY MAKES FINE SHOWING IN JUVENILE EXHIBITION

DISPLAY WINS THE HIGHEST PRAISE

Emma Clifford and Herbert DeBok, Ben Alexander and Leslie Battin Awarded Prizes

Clackamas County came in for its share of prizes in the children's industrial contest held at the State Fair at Salem. This is the first time that the children have been given a show as to what they could produce by their own hands, and the exhibits that children had at the fair held in the last week attracted much attention and comment. This was the first year where children held fairs in this county as well as other counties of the state and their products added much to the display at the fair held at Salem.

The following are those of Clackamas County, who have been awarded prizes:

Class A—Chickens, miscellaneous, Ray Smith, Oregon City; class A—Emma DeBok, Oregon City; class B—Gertrude Smith, Oregon City; class B—Ben Alexander, Milwaukie; cabbage, class A—unidentified, Oregon City; class A—Herbert DeBok, Oregon City; class B—Leslie Battin, Milwaukie, fourth, unidentified, Wilsonville fifth; onions, class A—Herbert DeBok, Oregon City, fifth; class B—Clifford DeBok, Oregon City, first; John Robbins, Canby, second; Wilford Hutchins, Oregon City, fourth; celery, class A—unidentified, Wilsonville second; Herbert DeBok, Oregon City, fourth; grain selections, class A—Claude Kerr, Oregon City, fifth; piece of furniture, class B—Harold Aebischer, Sherwood, third; Fred McIntyre, Oswego, fourth; darning, class B—Mildred Gedhill, Milwaukie, third; field corn, class B—Mildred Hutchins, Oregon City, second; popcorn, class B—Clifford DeBok, Oregon City, fourth; watermelons, class A—Tappy Shaver, Wilsonville, fifth; unidentified, Wilsonville, third, fourth and fifth; muskmelons, class A—unidentified, Wilsonville, fifth; class B—unidentified, Wilsonville, third; unidentified, Oregon City, fifth; squash, class A—unidentified, Wilsonville, fifth; unidentified, class B—Maggie Bishop, Wilsonville, fifth; bird house, class A—Everett Shibley, Springfield, first; Royce Peterson, Milwaukie, second; Bryan Davis, Mil-

If it happened it is in the Enterprise. (Continued on page 3)

SCHNOERR WINNER, FRIENDS DECLARE

GERMAN LEADER ALMOST CERTAIN TO BE ELECTED TO LEGISLATURE

TONGUE TO DECIDE ABOUT NEW TRIAL

Lawyers for Defendant are Confident of Acquittal if Case is Again Given Hearing

Whether Gustav Schnoerr, Republican nominee for representative in the state legislature, will be tried again on the charge of having libeled Chris Schuebel rests with District Attorney Tongue. The district attorney, who is considered one of the best prosecutors in the west, made a fine presentation of the state's side of the case, and several persons who heard the evidence, declared Saturday night that but for the work of Mr. Tongue Mr. Schnoerr might have been acquitted, instead of having a mistrial, the jury being equally divided. Just what the District Attorney's attitude is is not known, but in case it is decided to have another trial it cannot be called before the latter part of October or the first part of November.

It may be that the case will not go to trial until after the November election. Mr. Schnoerr and Mr. Schuebel are both Republican nominees for the state legislature, with fair chances of being elected. While deploring the inability of the jury to reach an agreement, George C. Brownell, J. E. Hedgess and Gordon E. Hayes, attorneys for Mr. Schnoerr, declared Saturday that they were confident in case of another trial their client would be acquitted. Mr. Schnoerr says he does not fear another trial, and is confident he can prove his innocence. His friends declare he will be elected a member of the legislature by a large majority, which will be a complete vindication. It is doubtful if any man in Clackamas county has more friends than Gustav Schnoerr.

COLLEGE SOCIAL GIVEN AT CHURCH BIG SUCCESS

The college social given at the Baptist church Friday evening by the young people of that church was well attended. The affair was novel and was thoroughly enjoyed. The early part of the evening was devoted to a short program, consisting of a vocal solo by Mrs. VanBrackle; piano solo Leo Burdon; piano solo, Miss Ruth Latourette. The remainder of the evening was devoted to college stunts, in which all participated and made merry. Refreshments were served.

TODAY A NEW TEAM

Daley & Shewbrooke
Man and Woman Comedy Entertainers

Monday Night AMATEUR NIGHT
Admission for Children Amateur Night 10c

Commencing today the Grand will have an entire change of pictures every day in the week with the exception of Tuesday.

The Grand

Jos. Wilkinson Roy Baxter

WILKINSON & BAXTER
... FLORISTS ...

Have opened a store next door to the Star Theatre with a fine line of cut flowers and plants.

PHONE MAIN 271

CLACKAMAS COUNTY BABIES TAKE PRIZES

Lyle Hasselbrink, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hasselbrink, of Wilsonville, was one of the lucky little fellows judged at the baby show of the Juvenile Fair at the State Fair. The boy was awarded third prize in the contest for best boy between the ages of two years and three years. George Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Clark, of Oak Grove, won second prize in the contest for the best boy over six months and under two years.

Lyle Hasselbrink was born at Wilsonville July 18, 1910, and is the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hasselbrink. He weighs 31 1/2 pounds and is the picture of health. He has slept in open air since his birth. George Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Clark, is one of the most healthy chaps in the county. He is ten months old.

STORK CONTINUES GOOD WORK HERE

The population Clackamas County is still on the increase. The old stork has visited several homes in this city the past few days. The following births have been reported by Drs. H. S. and Guy Mount:

Born, September 6, to the wife of F. J. Schwartz, Oregon City, R. F. D. No. 1, a daughter.

Born, September 6, to the wife of Robert Ketchum, of Jefferson Street, a daughter.

Born, September 7, to the wife of M. E. Sattelbauer, of Stafford, a son.

Born, September 7, to the wife of Edward Carpenter, of Milwaukie, a daughter.

DR. FORD PREACHES TODAY

Dr. T. B. Ford has returned from the Washington conference and will occupy the pulpit in the Methodist church this morning and evening, and invites the public to the services. The morning service will begin at 10:45 and the evening service at 7:30. The evening subject will be "Why they did it," or "The last chance."